Empowering Small Enterprises In Zimbabwe:

Empowering Small Enterprises in Zimbabwe Kapil Kapoor, Doris Mugwara, Isaac Chidavaenzi, 1997 IFC Lessons of Experience Series No 5 The project experience accumulated by the International Finance Corporation IFC provides a basis for analyzing the way in which the investment framework has changed over time in developing countries and the implications for the success and efficiency of foreign direct investment FDI ventures This report discusses the growth of FDI in the world economy and its role in emerging markets describes the role of IFC in providing policy advice related to FDI and the IFC's experience as an investor alongside FDI in developing countries and draws lessons for how to structure FDI projects and policies to attract such investments Annexes present and describe global FDI flows FDI projects involving IFC investment and FIAS advisory assignments and FDI projects examined in preparing this study Also available French 0 8213 4212 6 Stock No 14212 Spanish 0 8213 4213 4 Stock No 14213 Matarenda/Talents in Zimbabwean Pentecostalism, 2021-03-15 In Matarenda Talents in Zimbabwean Pentecostalism the fourteen contributors to this multidisciplinary collection reflect on how Pentecostalism contributes to the empowerment of marginalised societies how it empowers women in particular through the matarenda talents principles and how it contributes to the development of wider society All but three of the authors are Zimbabwean Pentecostals The book deals with such subjects as gender equality economics and finance poverty alleviation and sustainable development education and entrepreneurship A remarkable independent Zimbabwean church has harnessed biblical principles from the Parable of the Talents to empower women and those marginalised by economic disasters It is particularly relevant for understanding the potential of African Pentecostalism in dealing with social and economic challenges Urban Infrastructure in Zimbabwe Innocent Chirisa, Abraham R. Matamanda, 2023-11-29 The book provides insights into urban infrastructure debates and discourses in Zimbabwe Through an inter disciplinary and multi disciplinary approach the book explores the theoretical conceptual and lived experiences in urban infrastructure The book focuses on case studies relating to urban transport public housing water and sanitation and Geographical Information Systems GIS among other substantive issues relating to urban infrastructure and services Beyond the Crises: Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation Tendai Murisa, Tendai Chikweche, 2015-12-01 Over the past years few African countries have been the focus of discussions and analyses generating a vast array of literature as much as Zimbabwe The socioeconomic and political crises since the turn of the century have deeply transformed the country from the ideals of a vibrant freshly independent nation just two decades earlier These transformations have necessitated the call for the restructuring of Zimbabwean society polity and economy But this literature remains exclusively within the realm of academic thinking and theorising with no concerted effort to move beyond this by explicitly drawing out the policy implications Beyond the Crises Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation is a welcome addition to the academic and policy literature with a much broader and all embracing focus in terms of policy interventions By focusing on different aspects of social and economic justice Murisa and Chikweche go beyond initiating a broad discussion on these two key pillars of human development with a view to suggesting possible future directions of practical solutions and policy development for the attainment of inclusive social and economic justice for Zimbabweans Financing Vocational Training in Sub-Saharan Africa Adrian Ziderman, 2003 For developing countries

vocational training is a vital component of the drive to enhance productivity stimulate economic competitiveness and lift people out of poverty However training provision in many countries is underfinanced and fragmented and traditional state funded training programs are proving inadequate to the task Financing Vocational Training in Sub Saharan Africa emphasizes the central role that financing strategies should play in enhancing the effectiveness and efficiency of training systems as a whole through incentives greater competition and the integration of private and public provision This book describes the emerging consensus about best practice in the financing of training drawing on experience in Latin America and Asia and testing this consensus against findings from Sub Saharan Africa It sets out the case for financing interventions by governments and scrutinizes the role and effectiveness of national training agencies payroll levies and alternative transfer mechanisms for institutional funding This discussion draws on lessons from the experience of Kenya South Africa Tanzania and Zimbabwe The book will be of particular interest to policymakers and practitioners of vocational training in developing countries to development policy analysts and to students and scholars of education and training systems worldwide A

Critical Perspectives on African Politics Clive Gabay, Carl Death, 2014-05-09 Strong states and strong civil societies are now increasingly hailed as the twin drivers of a rising Africa Current attempts to support growth and democracy are part of a longer history of promoting projects of disciplinary regulatory and liberal rule and values beyond the West Yet this is not simply Western domination of a passive continent Such an interpretation misses out on the complexities and nuances of the politics of state building and civil society promotion and the central role of African agency Drawing upon critical theory including postcolonial and governmentality approaches this book interrogates international practices of state building and civil society support in Africa It seeks to develop a theoretically informed critical approach to discourses and interventions such as those associated with broadly Western initiatives in Africa In doing so the book highlights the power relations inequalities coercion and violence that are deeply implicated within contemporary international interventions on the African continent Providing a range of empirical cases and theoretical approaches the chapters are united by their critical treatment of political dynamics in Africa This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics development studies postcolonial theory International Relations international political economy and peacekeeping making

Intellectual Property Rights and Economic Development Carlos Alberto Primo Braga, Carsten Fink, Claudia Paz Sepulveda, 2000 Over the course of history different legal instruments for protecting intellectual property have emerged These instruments differ in their subject matter extent of protection and field of application reflecting society's objective to balance the interests of creators and consumers for different types of intellectual works These legal instruments are just one of the pieces that form a national system of intellectual property protection Also crucial to the system's overall effectiveness are the institutions administering these instruments the mechanisms available for enforcing IPRs and the rules regarding the treatment of non nationals To address some of the issues concerning IPRs this paper defines what they are and attempts to evaluate the relationship between the protection of intellectual property and economic activity in developing countries It also summarizes the economic effects of IPRs in terms of creation and diffusion of knowledge and information and market structure and prices Furthermore it discusses the reformation of IPRs regimes and makes recommendations for their administration and enforcement This paper consolidates some of the research from the World Development Report 1998 1999 Knowledge for Development and some contributions made at an Internet moderated conference conducted by the Bank's TechNet program It will be of interest to governments investors and international organizations

Choices in Financing Health Care and Old Age Security Nicholas Prescott, 1998 In November 1997 the World Bank and Singapore's Institute of Policy Studies sponsored a conference

Financing Health Care and Old Age Security to assess and identify potential solutions to these concerns. It addressed a topic of concern to nearly every country developing and industrial that is how to deal with the implications of financing medical care and income security for rapidly aging populations. The issues identified and the solutions proposed can provide insight and guidance for policymakers, researchers and others interested in addressing these challenges now. Of special interest are the contributors' analyses of Singapore's unique integrated approach to managing social risk which is based on mandatory individual savings accounts.

World Bank HIV/AIDS Interventions Julia Dayton, 1998-01-01. The AIDS epidemic is one of the greatest development challenges of the 20th century. Since 1986 the World Bank has supported member countries' efforts to fight the epidemic in many ways including committing over US $550 million to HIV/AIDS prevention and mitigation efforts. This paper, the first comprehensive study of all World Bank HIV/AIDS related activities, assesses the appropriateness of Bank interventions from the perspective of public economies and reviews the economic evaluation and implementation of projects.

Market-based Instruments for Environmental Policymaking in Latin America and the Caribbean Richard M. Huber, H. Jack Ruitenbeek, Ronaldo Seroa da Motta, 1998. To preserve the environment with the lowest possible cost to the social sector means that private costs should be aligned with social costs. Many governments in the Latin American and Caribbean Region are doing this now using market-based instruments (MBIs). This publication investigates the use of MBIs in the Latin America and the Caribbean LAC context. The investigation covers a sample of eleven countries in the region and a cross section of environmental issues in an urban setting.

A Crisis of Governance Jacob Wilson Chikuhwa, 2004. An internationally trained African economic analyst studies this former British colony's struggle to become a viable independent state. Problems range from the need for constitutional reform to political patronage and a de facto one-party democracy and the Kyrgyz Republic Mohinder S. Mudahar, 1998-01-01. Accelerating agricultural growth and alleviating rural poverty are clearly the main development challenges facing the policymakers in the Kyrgyz Republic. This report examines the current state of Kyrgyz agriculture and the status of agricultural policy reform program during its transition to a market economy. It outlines a rural development strategy that if properly implemented is designed to promote agricultural growth, alleviate rural poverty and improve natural resource management. The strategy includes deepening policy reforms, increasing public investment, promoting institutional development and strengthening the information base.

Empowering and Advancing Women Leaders and Entrepreneurs Haoucha, Malika, 2024-05-31. Women living in rural regions today still often struggle to harness the full potential of mobile internet for their economic empowerment despite a rapidly evolving digital landscape. This limitation hinders their ability to engage in online selling, job searching and accessing public services, thereby constraining potential economic opportunities. The powerful research book Empowering and Advancing Women Leaders and Entrepreneurs presents a comprehensive analysis of the impact of mobile internet on gender-inclusive economic empowerment, offering innovative solutions to enhance rural entrepreneurs' digital skills and knowledge. The underrepresentation of women in leadership roles globally must be addressed to advance gender equity This book examines the systemic barriers including stereotypes and biases that impede women's advancement in leadership positions By proposing coordinated solutions involving corporations governments and civil society such as allyship building and policy reforms the book aims to reduce gender gaps in leadership and foster a more inclusive society Through its insightful analysis and practical recommendations this book is a valuable resource for scholars policymakers and practitioners seeking to promote gender equality and inclusive development and underscores the necessity of their roles for this initiative

Violence against Women of African Descent Anita Kalunta-Crompton, 2019-10-11 Africa as a continent which holds strong to its patriarchal cultural principles and practices is known for its blatant display of violent abuse of women including state sanctioned violence and its lax approach to national legislative policies and international treaties against violence against women Using data from Africa the Americas Australia and Europe this edited collection showcases a variety of experiences and perspectives in the international comparative study of violence against women of African ancestry This approach provides the context for examining the problem of violence against women including its policy and practice responses if any as it impacts women of African origin in different parts of the world This book is of value to those interested in African studies criminology gender studies sociology and many more School Enrollment Decline in Sub-Saharan Africa

Joseph W. B. Bredie, Girindre K. Beeharry, 1998-01-01 The overarching objective of the World Bank's assistance to Sub-Saharan African countries is poverty reduction through sustained economic growth at a high level and improved social services Past experience shows that a minimum level of educational attainment has been a prerequisite for the success of such a strategy The current level of education development has been low and the development of primary education has stagnated and even declined in some countries since the early 1980s This paper examines the likely causes for deteriorating enrollment rates in Africa It looks at the constraints in the demand for schooling and gives possible reasons for stagnation

Enterprising Africa Stephen Dobson, Paul Jones, Daniel Agyapong, Gideon Maas, 2020-12-30 Enterprising Africa explores the future opportunities challenges growth areas and key themes that will shape entrepreneurship in the African continent over the next decade Entrepreneurship can be the key to unlock resilient growth but only if it is driven by both socially productive and growth oriented new businesses The book considers entrepreneurship as an enabler for socio economic growth and development in Africa especially in the context of youth unemployment and increasing youth population for which the traditional and indeed emerging industrial sectors will not be able to produce sufficient jobs to meet demand Organised around three thematic parts Part I covers the notion of inclusive growth and the role that entrepreneurs can play supporting this Part II considers the dynamic between entrepreneurs and the environment since social economic and environmental concerns need to build upon each other rather than vie for recognition Finally Part III offers chapters exploring policy contexts and the wider institutional ecosystems that need to be developed and enhanced to ensure a strong and vibrant environment for the future entrepreneurs of Africa to thrive Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this fascinating text will be of interest to academics as well as students of International Transformational and Social Entrepreneurship and International and African Business      Russian Enterprise Reform Harry G. Broadman,1998-01-01

To enhance and sustain economic prosperity Russian authorities must improve the business climate so that firms restructure and the private sector thrives within a market environment Meeting this challenge requires actions on several fronts The Russian government asked the World Bank to write policy papers to address this issue This volume contains those policy papers which were then presented at a high level workshop in Moscow The topics include removing impediments to robust interfirm competition such as structural concentration arbitrary regulatory practices and entry barriers strengthening corporate governance incentive systems enhancing the nascent institutional framework for the exercise of creditor rights and implementation of enterprise bankruptcy procedures reducing barter and other nonmonetary forms of business transactions and fostering enterprise restructuring The volume also contains formal comments on these papers presented by senior Russian officials at the workshop
