Emptiness Of The Image:

The Emptiness of the Image Parveen Adams, 2013-04-15 There has long been a politics around the way in which women are represented with objection not so much to specific images as to a regime of looking which places the represented woman in a particular relationship to the spectator's gaze. Artists have sometimes avoided the representation of women altogether but they are now producing images which challenge the regime. How do these images succeed in their challenge? The Emptiness of the Image offers a psychoanalytic answer. Parveen Adams argues that despite flaws in some of the details of its arguments, psychoanalytic theory retains an overwhelming explanatory strength in relation to questions of sexual difference and representation. She goes on to show how the issue of desire changes the way we can think of images and their effects. Throughout she discusses the work of theorists, artists and filmmakers such as Helene Deutsch, Catherine MacKinnon, Mary Kelly, Francis Bacon, Michael Powell and Della Grace. The Emptiness of the Image shows how the very space of representation can change to provide a new way of thinking the relation between the text and the spectator. It shows how psychoanalytic theory is supple enough to slide into and transform the most unexpected situations. Feminist Mysticism and Images of God Jennie S Knight, 2011-02-28 Feminist theologians often claim that women's experience is their starting point. However, most feminist theology is remarkably void of analysis of particular women's experiences of imaging God. In this book, Knight provides practical recommendations to help people transform images in the context of religious practices. What difference does it make whether we picture God as an elderly white grandfather, a nurturing African American mother or a stranger on the bus? Jennie Knight says our image of God affects how we see ourselves, how we worship, how we treat one another, how or whether we work for justice and a host of other life practices. But after years of knowing intellectually that God transcends a specific human type, Knight still struggles to make an emotional connection with God in different forms. She suspects that that struggle is why many seminarians who wrote papers about thea theology abandon nontraditional God images once they hit parish ministry, perpetuating the practice of seeing God as a European male on a throne and all the accompanying problems that such imagery creates. Knight believes that personal and critical reflection in the context of a supportive learning community combined with experiences of diverse images for the divine in worship can lead to profound changes in self-image, relationship with the divine and agency in the world. This book aims to demonstrate why and how this transformation is both possible and necessary. The popularity of The Shack, The Secret Life of Bees, Joan of Arcadia and other works with nontraditional God figures reveals a culture ready to embrace God in many forms. Knight examines how the church can do the same. Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa, 2017-12-12 The final installment of the Steps on the Path to Enlightenment series examines the nature of reality with a master class in Buddhist Middle Way philosophy and meditation. The late Geshe Sopa was a refugee monk from Tibet sent to the United States by the Dalai Lama in 1963. He became a professor at the University of Wisconsin, training a generation of Western Buddhist scholars and was a towering figure in the transmission of the Buddhism to the West In this fifth and final volume of his commentary on Lama Tsongkhapa's masterwork on the graduated steps of the Buddhist path Geshe Sopa explains the practice of superior insight or wisdom the pinnacle of the bodhisattva's perfections All the Buddhist practices are for the purpose of developing wisdom for it is wisdom that liberates from the cycle of suffering All other positive actions from morality to deep states of meditation have no power to liberate unless they are accompanied by insight into the nature of reality With unparalleled precision Geshe Sopa unpacks this central principle with scholarly virtuosity guiding the reader through the progressive stages of realization

Ten Ox-Herding Images Wim van den Dungen, 2016-10-10 The Ten Ox Herding Images are an ingenious set of metaphors representing the process of awakening the complete recognition of the original mind These images by Rinzai Ch an priest Kuoan Shiyuan of the 12th century reproduced by Tensho Shubun 1414 1463 have been repainted throughout the centuries But while varying versions exist what they convey stands unchanged Part of the Zen tradition they show how to train the mind a process shared by all schools of the Buddha Vehicle This mind training in the form of ten stages on the path to enlightenment is a science of awakening rooted in the Dharma of the Buddha. These metaphors shed light on the mental processes leading to true peace. Kuoan's illustrations move beyond the attainment of Buddhahood and explain how the last stage calls for the awakened one to walk back In Town With Helping Hands. The path culminates in universal altruism.

Sacred Interconnections David Ray Griffin, 1990-01-01. This book shows the interconnections between postmodernism, religion, politics, economics, and art. It shows that the awareness of interconnectedness is at the center of the postmodern sensibility. Sacred Interconnections illustrates the rejection of the modern idea that these subjects can be discussed as separate disciplines. While the term postmodern has been widely used for deconstructive, cynical, even nihilistic attitude especially in the world of art and literature, the book represents the emergence of a reconstructive, reenchanting postmodernism even within the artistic and literary circles.

Nothingness in Asian Philosophy Jeeloo Liu, Douglas Berger, 2014-06-13. A variety of crucial and still most relevant ideas about nothingness or emptiness have gained profound philosophical prominence in the history and development of a number of South and East Asian traditions including in Buddhism, Daoism, Neo Confucianism, Hinduism, Korean philosophy, and the Japanese Kyoto School. These traditions share the insight that in order to explain both the great mysteries and mundane facts about our experience, ideas of nothingness must play a primary role. This collection of essays brings together the work of twenty of the world's prominent scholars of Hindu, Buddhist, Daoist, Neo Confucian, Japanese, and Korean thought to illuminate fascinating philosophical conceptualizations of nothingness in both classical and modern Asian traditions. The unique collection offers new work from accomplished scholars and provides a coherent panoramic view of the most significant ways that nothingness plays crucial roles in Asian philosophy. It includes both traditional and contemporary formulations, sometimes putting Asian traditions into dialogue with one another and sometimes with classical and modern Western thought. The result is a book of immense value for students and researchers in Asian and comparative philosophy. Chapter 20 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license.
