Disaffiliating Ministry Gregory Baker,2019-08-23 This book explores the shifting role of the minister in light of the experiences of college men in the United States Young men frequently struggle to know what it means to be a man and doubt that churches can supply the meaning and direction for which they hunger These men are not necessarily lost but they do need a certain kind of spiritual accompaniment that is likely to push many ministers outside of postures and practices with which they have grown comfortable This interdisciplinary work draws together feminist and masculinist theories contemporary practices in campus ministry recent literature on religious deconversion and individual interviews with college men in order to argue for new ways amid the practice of ministry This work invites ministers to become more apophatic to grow comfortable with moving away from clarity and to adopt ungrasping postures of ministry that attend to the unfolding theology of the individual This repositions campus ministers to support young adults from a range of spiritual commitments Disaffiliating Ministry invites ministers to eliminate wasteful ministerial habits to explore new ministry practices and to enjoy the freedom of accompanying young men in processes of leaving behind attitudes and actions that cease to be life giving while deepening in faith courage and responsibility for others

La Teología Mujerista: A Christian Minister Examines the Mujerista Theology of Ada María Isasi-Díaz Gary Edwin Loy, 2009-01-08 Mujerista theology has been in existence for at least twodecades It has come about because there is a perceived need for a theology that addressed the needs of Latin American women Yet mujerista theology as with any other theology has problems This book examines those problems from a conservative Christian perspective and offers the reader some things to ponder when thinking about mujerista theology and its consequences This book assists readers in gaining a more open yet cautious understanding of mujerista theology its place at the table of contemporary and feminist theology and its challenges and consequences for the Church of Jesus Christ and Christian theology in the 21st century Latino/a Theology and the Bible Francisco Lozada Jr., Fernando F. The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Philip's Daughters Estrela Y. Alexander, Amos Yong, 2009-01-01 This volume brings together twelve scholars from a variety of scholarly fields including biblical studies history theology sociology anthropology and missiology in a multi disciplinary exploration of themes related to women's leadership within the three branches of the renewal movement Holiness Pentecostal and Charismatic traditions These scholars women and men from both within and outside the traditions draw on various methodologies including hermeneutics ethnography critical theory and historical analysis to explore the experiences and contributions of women from the movement's inception to the present They keep before us the challenges that still impact women's full participation as equal partners in ministry and leadership on both the American and global scene. The volume looks at the multiple roots of women's marginalization within the renewal movement while suggesting progressive solutions that take seriously the social locations of Pentecostal and Charismatic congregations and the theological foundations on which the movement has been built. At the same time it locates these discussions within the broader postmodern realities facing the church as it attempts to faithfully live out its witness to the biblical truth that both male and female are created in the God's image and endowed with the capacity to work creatively toward the unfolding of the Kingdom.
