En Jardinant Avec Bergson:

En jardinant avec Bergson Michel Georges-Michel, 1926 En jardinant avec Bergson, en junglant avec Kipling .. Michel Georges-Michel, 1926 Classical Antiquity and the Cinematic Imagination Martin M. Winkler, 2024-02-22 This book aims to enhance our appreciation of the modernity of the classical cultures and conversely of cinema's debt to ancient Greece and Rome. It explores filmic perspectives on the ancient verbal and visual arts and applies what is often referred to as pre-cinema and what Sergei Eisenstein called cinematism that paintings, statues, and literature anticipate modern visual technologies. The motion of bodies depicted in static arts and the vividness of epic ecphrases point to modern features of storytelling while Plato's Cave Allegory and Zeno's Arrow Paradox have been related to film exhibition and projection since the early days of cinema. The book additionally demonstrates the extensive influence of antiquity on an age dominated by moving image media as with stagings of Odysseus' arrow shot through twelve axes or depictions of the Golden Fleece. Chapters interpret numerous European and American silent and sound films and some television productions and digital videos The Soul of Film Theory S. Cooper, 2013-05-30 In this innovative book Sarah Cooper revisits the history of film theory in order to bring to the fore the neglected concept of the soul and to trace its changing fortunes. The Soul of Film Theory charts the legacy of this multi-faceted contested term from the classical to the contemporary era Henri Bergson Pete Addison Y. Gunter, 1986 Henri Louis Bergson 1859-1941 is the most prominent French philosopher of the last hundred years Counter-Archive Paula Amad, 2010-09-23 Tucked away in a garden on the edge of Paris is a multimedia archive like no other. Albert Kahn's Archives de la Planète 1908-1931 Kahn's vast photo-cinematographic experiment preserved world memory through the privileged lens of everyday life and Counter-Archive situates this project in its biographic, intellectual, and cinematic contexts. Tracing the archive's key influences such as the philosopher Henri Bergson, the geographer Jean Brunhes, and the biologist Jean Comandon, Paula Amad maps an alternative landscape of French cultural modernity in which vitalist philosophy cross-pollinated with early film theory, documentary film with the avant-garde cinematic models of temporality with the early Annales school of history, and film's appropriation of the planet with human geography and colonial ideology. At the heart of the book is an insightful meditation upon the transformed concept of the archive in the age of cinema and an innovative argument about film's counter-archival challenge to history. The first comprehensive study of Kahn's films, Counter-Archive also offers a vital historical perspective on debates involving archives, media, and memory The Memory of the Modern Matt K. Matsuda, 1996 A multidisciplinary work, Memory of the Modern examines stock markets, tango dancers, vagabond murderers, neurology, monument destruction, and colonial policies to document how individuals and institutions shaped memory in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The book studies these diverse memory sites to show how memory and history are fought over, shaped, and put to personal and ideological use Romantic Review, 1927 The Third Sex Lawrence R.
