Hall,James V. Fenelon,2015-12-03 The issues native peoples face intensify with globalization Through case studies from around the world Hall and Fenelon demonstrate how indigenous peoples movements can only be understood by linking highly localized processes with larger global and historical forces The authors show that indigenous peoples have been resisting and adapting to encounters with states for millennia Unlike other antiglobalization activists indigenous peoples primarily seek autonomy and the right to determine their own processes of adaptation and change especially in relationship to their origin lands and community The authors link their analyses to current understandings of the evolution of globalization Global Change and the Earth System Will Steffen,Regina Angelina Sanderson,Peter D. Tyson,Jill Jäger,Pamela A. Matson,Berrien Moore III,Frank Oldfield,Katherine Richardson,Hans-Joachim Schellnhuber,Billie L. Turner,Robert J. Wasson,2005-12-29 The interactions between environmental change and human societies have a long complex history spanning many millennia but these have changed fundamentally in the last century Human activities are now so pervasive and profound that they are altering the Earth in ways which threaten the very life support system upon which humans depend This book describes what is known about the Earth System and the impact of changes caused by humans It considers the consequences of these changes with respect to the stability of the Earth System and the well being of humankind as well as exploring future paths towards Earth System science in support of global sustainability
