and Possessions Rachel L. Coleman, 2019-12-02 In The Lukan Lens on Wealth and Possessions A Perspective Shaped by Reversal and Right Response Rachel Coleman offers a detailed look at Luke's wealth ethic. The long debated question of how Luke understands the relationship between followers of Jesus and material possessions is examined with careful exegesis and keen literary and theological sensitivity. The twin motifs established in Luke's introductory unit (Luke 1:5-4:44) reversal and right response provide the hermeneutical lenses that allow the reader to discern a consistent Lukan perspective on wealth in the life of disciples. With an engaging style and an eye to the contemporary church, the book will appeal to both scholars and pastors. Science and Civilisation in China: Volume 1, Introductory Orientations Joseph Needham, Ling Wang, 1954 For contents see Author Catalog. 1996 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences (IBOHS) is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times. Department of State, 1967. State Violence in Nazi Germany Emanuel Marx, 2019-11-26 Through analyses of three eventful years in Nazi Germany's history: the Kristallnacht pogrom, the invasion of Poland, and the invasion of Soviet Russia, this book explores the violence of states. All three events were part of the Nazi colonial project and led to mass killings, eventually resulting in the systematic murder of Jews becoming a major war aim, one that Germany would pursue to the end, even when it became clear that the military conflict could no longer be won. Drawing on voluminous historical and sociological literature as well as documentary and contemporary evidence, the author presents a new account of the phenomenon of extreme state violence as a special category of violence in which the armed forces, maintained in a state of readiness, are used unnecessarily and excessively, often on thin pretexts, and unlike coercive violence, only rarely for the purposes of carrying messages to the public. As such, it will appeal to scholars of sociology, history, and anthropology concerned with mass and state violence. Newsletter United States. Department of State, 1967. Asian Crossings Steve Clark, Paul Smethurst, 2008-07-01 The fourteen chapters in this book examine various topics and contexts of travel writings on China, Japan, and Southeast Asia. From the first Colombian on a trade mission to China to French women travellers in Asia and the opening of Japan Fairs in the US during the latter half of the nineteenth century, this book offers a kaleidoscopic glimpse of the various cultures in the eyes of their beholders, coupled with insightful understanding of the various politics and relationships that are involved. While this book will appeal to expert scholars and students of travel literature and Asian
