Economic Development Opportunities Through Liberalisation Debendra Kumar Das,1998 Liberalization in the Process of Economic Development Lawrence B. Krause,Kim Kihwan,2023-11-15 Economic growth in all developing countries is guided and often accelerated by generally intrusive policies implemented by governments intent on playing an active role in furthering development As economies have grown and become more complex however even small market distortions are magnified and the tendency is to rely more heavily on the market for continued growth In this volume leading experts in economic development examine the variety of issues that arise as governments in some of the newly industrializing countries of Southeast Asia such as South Korea Taiwan and Singapore grapple with this difficult process of liberalization This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991 Trade Liberalisation and Economic Development in Africa Gift Mugano,2021-09-30 This book provides a thorough and rigorous discussion on the impact of trade liberalisation on economic development with a special focus on the African continent The author presents the rationale for trade liberalisation trade liberalisation frameworks the trade liberalisation economic development nexus impediments to trade and contemporary issues of international trade In this book notwithstanding the benefits from trade liberalisation the author shows that African trade as a share of global trade has remained flat at 3% as in 1975 while the continent s exports have remained raw materials and its intra regional trade at less than 15% of total trade which is the lowest in the world UNCTAD 2020 With respect to key economic development indicators such as economic growth poverty levels and employment levels this book shows that ironically and in direct contrast with the conventional views that trade liberalisation alleviates poverty trade liberalisation in Africa has resulted in high levels of unemployment and low economic growth which ultimately lead to increased poverty In addition this book provides a detailed analysis of why trade liberalisation has failed to yield meaningful benefits to Africa The binding constraints and blockages which prevent positive spin offs on trade liberalisation in Africa are discussed in detail in this book In the same vein the author provides practical strategies which must be adopted by African countries in order to gain from trade liberalisation making this work a must read for African governments academia trade experts regional trading blocs the World Trade Organization and development partners In view of this and as part of the disruptive and structural transformation policies the author discusses case studies and international experience contextualised to Africa as well as strategies for addressing the trade related infrastructure gap production capacities export promotion and aid for trade

Financialisation and Poverty Alleviation in Ghana Francis Boateng Frimpong,2021-11-22 The neoliberal policy response to the crisis in Ghana did not succeed in reversing the economic decline in both the medium and long term In fact quite the opposite rather than undoing the economic decline Frimpong argues that the policy prescriptions further weakened the country s ability to develop This is because the policies intentionally and unintentionally encouraged factors that destabilised the possibility of the real productive assets to earn commensurate returns to facilitate the flow of capital to the real sectors to ensure the survival of industrial enterprises Rising profit in the financial sector incentivised financial capitalist to divert capital into financial assets at the expense of productive investment further decelerating the pace of real capital accumulation in the country
