Path to Economic Co-operation and Integration in Western Asia, 1981 The Challenges Of South-South Cooperation Breda Pavlic, Raul R. Uranga, Boris Cizelj, Marjan Svetlicic, 2019-07-11 The process of economic cooperation among developing countries has come a long way since the early 1960s. Alongside the movement from the establishment of regional and subregional integration and cooperation groupings to the elaboration of concepts and approaches for global and interregional cooperation such as for example the scheme for a global system of trade preferences among developing countries, there has been an extension of the scope of cooperation originally focused on trade to other areas including monetary and financial matters, production marketing and so on. Today the process of economic cooperation among developing countries occupies an important place in the economic strategies and policies of developing countries and in recent years with the marked deterioration in the world economic situation and the weakening of international cooperation for development it has acquired even greater importance and urgency. Indeed in view of the prospects for the world economy for the coming years it has become an imperative if the developing countries are going to be able to envisage the transformation of their economies and the growth rates they need.

West Asia After Washington Tim Anderson, 2023-09-01 At the turn of the century Washington launched a series of invasions and proxy wars against all the independent peoples and states of the region in the name of creating a New Middle East. That offensive involved mass propaganda and the use of large proxy terrorist armies especially sectarian Islamist groups.

armed and financed by Washington and its regional allies especially Saudi Arabia Qatar Turkey and Israel Resistance to that regional war led to the formation of a loose regional bloc led by Iran which is now forming more substantial relations with the wider counter hegemonic blocs led by China and Russia in particular the BRICS and the Shanghai Cooperation Organization SCO West Asia After Washington addresses how as Washington s multiple wars for a subjugated New Middle East fail the global order is shifting against the North American giant China is displacing the USA as the productive and economic center of the world and new global organizations are competing with those created by the Anglo Americans It is in this global context we must understand the future of the Arabic and Islamic countries of the Middle East now often called West Asia in reflection of that new orientation Among other things this alliance is making real what North American intelligence has long feared and termed an Iranian land bridge extending to the Mediterranean in the west and as far as China in the east That land bridge between East Asia and Europe centers on Iran the largest independent state of the region and is from a Zionist perspective thought to represent the most serious long term existential threat to Israel because it forms a united resistance front in support of the colonized Palestinian people This book discusses the wars of hegemonic decline the roots of Western fascism Zionist cancel culture the Kurdish card in Syria the purging of Christians from the New Middle East the betrayal of Yemen and takes us inside Syrian Idlib Then it looks into the near future considering Washington s strategic retreat the legacy of murdered Iranian Commander Qassem Soleimani and the possibilities of dismantling Apartheid Israel and the lifting of the siege on Syria and its recovery The Iranian land bridge to China Iran s Resistance Economy regional integration and the challenge of multipolarity offer insight into the West Asian region after Washington

Ideas Yves Berthelot, 2004-01-30 This second volume from the United Nations Intellectual History Project surveys the history of the UN's regional commissions and the ideas they have developed over the last 40 years. Each essay is devoted to one of the five regional commissions: Europe, Asia and the Far East, Latin America, Africa, and Western Asia, and how it has approached its mission of assessing the condition of regional economies and making prognoses about future conditions. The essays describe how each commission has added local perspectives to global debates over economic development and brought an authentic regional voice to the UN. Contributors are Adebayo Adedeji, Yves Berthelot, Leelananda de Silva, Blandine Destremau, Paul Rayment, and Gert Rosenthal.

Study On International Politics In Contemporary China

Yuyan Zhang, 2020-07-14 China's guiding principle for foreign relations and its focus on states and regions has shifted a lot from the first 30 years of the founding of the People's Republic of China (PRC) in 1949 to 1978 and beyond after reform and opening up. However, PRC's diplomatic practice has been continuous, whether it was participation in the Korean War, breaking up with the former Soviet Union after a honeymoon period, China's self-defense war over Sino-Indian border, participation in the Vietnam War, breakthrough in the Sino-US relation, or PRC's self-defense war over the Sino-Vietnamese border. These historical events brought the need for theoretical study in International Politics (IP). The development of China's IP research was slow and filled with complications, but it signified a breakthrough from scratch. This book has filled the gap by depicting a complete scroll of China's IP research in over 60 years since 1949. This book has followed two principles: one is according to the classification of the IP discipline, and the other is to recommend adaptations according to China's actual conditions.

Current Issues in Economic Integration M. Bruna Zolin, 2016-05-13 The current economic crisis has called into question the long-term viability of the decoupling between multinational firms and the banking system. It has also cast serious doubts on the US dollar-centred monetary system and invited reassessment of the long-term viability of US-China economic relations based on a US current account deficit absorbed by Chinese financial institutions. It is also an opportunity to analyse the rise in property prices, particularly in fast-growing economies. Long-term food security is also an issue bringing to the fore the multinational firms from emerging economies such as China and India, and calling into question the response strategies of multinational firms from the West and Japan. This book engages these key issues within the broad theme of integration to give an up-to-date consideration of the subject, opening debate on the future stimulating role that Asia could play vis-à-vis the West, particularly the European Union.

The Middle East's Relations with Asia and Russia Hannah Carter, Anoushiravan Ehteshami, 2013-01-11 Carter and Ehteshami consider the significant geopolitical, economic, and security links between the Middle East and the wider Asian world, links which are often overlooked when the Middle East is considered in isolation or in terms of its relations with the West, but which are of growing importance. Topics covered include Asia's overall geostrategic realities and the Middle East's place within them, relations between the Middle East and China, Russia, central Asia, southeast Asia, and south Asia, Islam in central Asia and southeast Asia, and the connections with the Middle East and the important
