Contemporary Black British and African American Women Writers Jean Wyatt,Sheldon George,2020-01-28

Contemporary African American and Black British Women Writers Narrative Race Ethics brings together British and American scholars to explore how in texts by contemporary black women writers in the U S and Britain formal narrative techniques express new understandings of race or stimulate ethical thinking about race in a reader Taken together the essays also demonstrate that black women writers from both sides of the Atlantic borrow formal structures and literary techniques from one another to describe the workings of structural racism in the daily lives of black subjects and to provoke readers to think anew about race Narratology has only recently begun to use race as a category of narrative theory This collection seeks both to show the ethical effects of narrative form on individual readers and to foster reconceptualizations of narrative theory that account for the workings of race within literature and culture

A Thickness of Particulars Jonathan F. S. Post,2015 A Thickness of Particulars The Poetry of Anthony Hecht uses Hecht s own correspondence to present the first book length study of one of the great formal poets of the later twentieth century 1923 2004

Metamorphoses of Travel Writing Grzegorz Moroz,2010-02-19 This book reflects comments on and adds to a fast growing field of travel writing studies The twenty five papers in this volume rely on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and explore a diverse body of travel writing texts created over the last three hundred years in English Polish Hungarian and French The book is divided into three parts The first one includes papers which apply the findings of post structuralism generic and cultural criticism as well as narratology to explore theories canons and genres in travel writing drawing material not only from non fictional and fictional prose narratives but also from poetry and tragedy The second and third parts contain papers on a wide selection of travel writing texts both fictional and non fictional written in Anglophone as well as other literary traditions They are arranged chronologically the second part is devoted to texts written in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries while the third part focuses on those written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries

debbie tucker green Siân Adiseshiah,Jacqueline Bolton,2020-04-15 This long awaited book is the first full length study of the work of the extraordinary contemporary black British playwright debbie tucker green Covering the period from 2000 Two Women to 2017 a profoundly affectionate passionate devotion to someone noun it offers scholars and students the opportunity to engage in cutting edge critical debate engendered by tucker green s innovative dramatic works for stage television and radio This groundbreaking book includes contributions by a range of outstanding scholars including black playwriting specialists world leading contemporary theatre scholars and some of the very best emerging researchers in the field While always focused on the precision and detail of tucker green s work this book simultaneously reframes broader debates around contemporary drama and its politics poses new questions of theatre and provokes scholarly thinking in ways that however obliquely contribute to the change for which the plays agitate The Reaper ,1989 Radium of the Word Craig Dworkin,2020-12-09 With fresh insight and contemporary relevance Radium of the Word argues that a study of the form of language yields meanings otherwise inaccessible through ordinary reading strategies Attending to the forms of words rather than to their denotations Craig Dworkin traces hidden networks across the surface of texts examining how typography and even individual letters and marks of punctuation can reveal patterns that are significant without being symbolic fully meaningful without communicating any preordained message Radium of the Word takes its title from Mina Loy s poem for Gertrude Stein which hails her as the Madame Curie of the laboratory of vocabulary In this spirit Dworkin considers prose as a dynamic literary form characterized by experimentation Dworkin draws on examples from writers as diverse as Lyn Hejinian William Faulkner and Joseph Roth He takes up the status of the proper name in Modernism with examples from Stein Loy and Guillaume Apollinaire and he offers in depth analyses of individual authors from the counter canon of the avant garde including P Inman Russell Atkins N H Pritchard and Andy Warhol The result is an inspiring intervention in
