Ecumenism And Interreligious Dialogue Unitatis Redintegratio Nostra Aetate:

Ecumenism and Interreligious Dialogue Edward Idris Cassidy, 2005 This initial volume in the Rediscovering Vatican II series looks at the relationship between the Catholic Church and other Christian churches Unitatis Redintegratio Restoring Christian Unity and between the Catholic Church and other great religions Nostra Aetate the Declaration on Interreligious Dialogue BOOK JACKET Hard Sayings Left Behind by Vatican II Peter De Mey, Judith Gruber, 2023-12-20 This project offers an original contribution to the interpretation of the documents of the Second Vatican Council that constitute the most authoritative doctrinal teaching within the Catholic Church The chapters in this volume published during the 60th anniversary of the Council 2022 2025 discuss three types of stumbling blocks Stumbling Blocks for Ecumenism Stumbling Blocks for Interfaith Dialogue and Stumbling Blocks for Church world Relations Eight specialists of ecclesiology comparative theology intercultural theology and theological ethics have each written chapters on a selected line of Vatican II that constitutes a stumbling block or hard saying for believers and theologians today The views expressed in these chapters have been discussed in three response essays The stumbling blocks have been selected from Lumen Gentium Unitatis Redintegratio Nostra Aetate and Gaudium et Spes The selected lines discuss the difficulties the Catholic Church has with atheism and with the Eucharist as celebrated by Protestant ministers how appreciation of other churches and religions goes hand in hand with defending the need of mission and why the Council assigns different roles to priests and laity making a distinction between the holiness of the Church and the sinfulness of its believers Nostra Aetate Pim Valkenberg, 2016-09-02 The contents of this book originated in a conference at the Catholic University of America in May 2015 The essays and lectures contained within focus on the relationships of the Catholic Church with the other Abrahamic faiths primarily Islam and Judaism There is some discussion of the Asian religions as well This volume in structure loosely follows the document Nostra Aetate itself The first part of the book gives a broad view of the document and its importance The following parts concentrates on the relationships between the Catholic Church and the Asian Muslim and Jewish religions The concluding section of the book surveys the reception Nostra Aetate received in various ecclesial and academic contexts Our Bishops, Heroes for the New Evangelization Justin McClain, 2017-06-05 These are challenging times when it comes to the need for lay Catholics to understand the Church's position on any number of doctrinal issues Likewise we need bishops who will lead warmly and amicably yet likewise accurately and as dutiful spiritual fathers The goal of this book is to invite the Catholic laity along with anyone of good will to become steadily familiar with the teachings of the Church as transmitted by the writings of modern Catholic bishops There is a particular focus on the bishops of the English speaking world as well as on the writings of the bishops over the course of the last two centuries If you would like to grow in your Catholic faith this book explains how the bishops have patiently and pastorally led the faithful to walk ever closer to the ultimate Good Shepherd the Lord Jesus Christ The Construction of Belief Aziz Esmail, Abdou Filali-Ansary, 2013-02-01

Mohammed Arkoun was one of the most prominent and influential Arab intellectuals of his day. During a career spanning more than thirty years, he was revered as an outstanding research scholar, a bold critic of the theoretical tensions embedded within Islamic Studies, and an outspoken public figure upholding political, social, and cultural modernism. This Festschrift honours Arkoun's scholarship, bringing together the contributions of eleven distinguished scholars of history, religious studies, and philosophy. It offers a comprehensive selection of critical engagements with Arkoun's work, reflecting on his considerable influence on contemporary thinking about Islam and its ideological, philosophical, and theological dimensions. Published in association with the Aga Khan University Institute for the Study of Muslim Civilisations.

Papal Teaching in the Age of Infallibility, 1870 to the Present Kevin T. Keating, 2018-06-29 Kevin Keating examines the major writings of the Roman Pontiffs from Pius IX in the last half of the nineteenth century to the most recent writings of Francis. He explores the shift in papal focus from internal church matters and attacks on modern thought to concern for matters affecting all of humanity, not just spiritually but socially, politically, and economically as well. Looming over all of these teachings is the specter of the doctrine of infallibility. First defined in 1870 to cover only papal infallibility, it would be expanded in the 1960s to include the exercise of infallibility by the worldwide college of bishops. Keating discusses the most significant themes dealt with by popes during this period: the Bible, religious freedom, church-state relations, social doctrine, human sexuality, ecumenism, and interreligious dialogue. He describes how papal teaching has changed, developed, and even been contradicted by later popes, although they have failed to expressly acknowledge departures from prior teaching. He details how the doctrine of infallibility, far from serving to bolster the credibility of papal teaching, often has served to undermine it.

Dialogue as an Imperative to Ecumenical and Interreligious Problems in Nigeria Casmir Chimezie Obi, 2015-08-06 The Church is the Sacrament of Communion with God and unity among all men. Cf. Vatican II doc. L. G. 1: Christ prayed for this unity amongst his adherents in accordance with the unity between him and God the Father. Cf. Jn 17:21. This unity will be a sign by which the outside world is to believe in him, hence calling on the Church to rise up to this demand. Efforts were made by the Church to respond to this demand, but it was at the Second Vatican Council that the search for unity became an imperative. With this Council, the Church acknowledged the possibility of salvation for the members of other Christian traditions and people of other religions. The Church has done a lot to promote this unity through the teachings of the Magisterium and the activities of the recent Popes. It is then important to study the situation of Nigeria, where this call of the Vatican II has received scant response, both in ecumenical and interreligious relations. Having done pastoral work in places with interdenominational and interreligious rivalry in Nigeria, I became concerned and worried. The present religious crises in Nigeria have escalated to an issue of grave concern with the Boko Haram insurgency. My motivation is to demonstrate the teaching of the Church regarding interdenominational and interreligious dialogue within Nigeria. There has been no sustained effort to build bridges of religious unity in the country. This research will demonstrate the necessity of ecumenical dialogue as a prelude to interreligious dialogue in Nigeria On the global level the need for various religions to foster relationships has become an imperative Two important bodies CAN and NIREC will be studied in this book The work aims at demonstrating the involvement of the Nigerian Christians and Muslims in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Essentially concerned with the Catholic view of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue its application to the Nigerian situation No in depth study of the religions involved It is rather the fact of their existence the role dialogue will play with them to solve religious problems in Nigeria Though ATR was considered in this work but the issue of dialogue will only involve Nigerian Muslims Christians The research wishes to provoke further study on dialogue between ATR and any of the other two religions Two issues involved the reality importance of the Catholic teachings on ecumenical interreligious dialogue and their application to the Nigerian situation Key methods involved in this work are literary research and analysis through theological historical critical descriptive analytical expository approaches Dogma and Ecumenism Matthew Levering, Bruce L. McCormack, Thomas Joseph White, 2020-01-24 The conversation of this book is structured around five major documents from the Second Vatican Council each of which Barth commented upon in his short but penetrating response to the Council published as Ad Limina Apostolorum In the two opening essays Thomas Joseph White reflects upon the contribution that this book seeks to make to contemporary ecumenism rooted in awareness of the value of dogmatic theology and Matthew Levering explores the way in which Barth's Ad Limina Apostolorum flows from his preconciliar dialogues with Catholic representatives of the nouvelle thologie and remain relevant to the issues facing Catholic theology today The next two essays turn to Dei Verbum the Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation here Katherine Sonderegger Protestant reflects on scripture and Lewis Ayres Catholic reflects on tradition The next two essays address the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium which touches upon central differences of Catholic and Protestant self understanding Christoph Schwabel Protestant analyzes visible ecclesial identity as conceived in a Protestant context while Thomas Joseph White Catholic engages Barth's Reformed criticisms of the Catholic notion of the Church The next two essays take up Nostra Aetate Bruce Lindley McCormack Protestant asks whether it is true to say that Muslims worship the same God as Christians and Bruce D Marshall Catholic explores the implications of the Council's reflections on the Jewish people The next two essays take up the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World Gaudium et Spes John Bowlin Protestant makes use of the thought of Aquinas to consider the promise and perils of the document while Francesca Aran Murphy Catholic engages critically with George Lindbeck's analysis of the document The next two essays explore Unitatis Redintegratio Hans Boersma Protestant asks whether the ecumenical intention of the document is impaired by its insistence that the unity of the Church is already present in the Catholic Church and Reinhard Hutter Catholic systematically addresses Barth's questions regarding the document The noted ecumenist and Catholic theologian Richard Schenk brings the volume to a close by reflecting on true and false ecumenism in the post conciliar period The Art of Coexistence Salih Yucel, Ismail Albayrak, 2015-04-07 The

Hebrews in Contexts Gabriella Gelardini, Harold Attridge,2016-05-09 Scholars of Hebrews have repeatedly echoed the almost proverbial saying that the book appears to its reader as a Melchizedekian being without genealogy For such scholars the aphorism identified prominent traits of Hebrews its enigma its otherness its marginality Although Franz Overbeck might unintentionally have stimulated such correlations they do not represent what his dictum originally meant Writing during the high noon of historicism in 1880 Overbeck lamented a lack of historical context one that he had deduced on the basis of flawed presuppositions of the ideological frameworks prevalent of his time His assertion made an impact and consequently Hebrews was not only othered within New Testament scholarship its context was neglected and by some even judged as irrelevant altogether Understandably the neglect created a deficit keenly felt by more recent scholarship which has developed a particular interest in Hebrews contexts Hebrews in Contexts edited by Gabriella Gelardini and Harold W Attridge is an expression of this interest It gathers authors who explore extensively on Hebrews relations to other early traditions and texts Jewish Hellenistic and Roman in order to map Hebrews historical cultural and religious identity in greater and perhaps surprising detail Evangelization and Religious Freedom Stephen B. Bevens, Jeffrey Gros, 2009 An informational and entertaining text this work offers readers a deeper sense of why the saints and the honoring of them has been influential in the lives of Catholics and others who strive to follow Jesus Christ and experience his love Catholic The Future of Interreligious Dialogue Cohen, Charles L., Knitter, Paul F., Rosenhagen, Ulrich, 2017-09-14 "True and Holy" Leo Lefebure, 2014-04-10 When believers read the sacred texts of other religions through a hermeneutic of hostility the consequences can be deadly Christian history shows that the Bible is no exception In recent decades however many Christian traditions have radically refashioned their approach to other religious traditions and to biblical interpretation This new hermeneutics of generosity seeks to uncover what can be learned from other holy texts and the communities that treasure them and also seeks to find common ground on important issues such as human rights and religious liberty Lefebure offers Christian readings of Jewish Muslim Hindu and Buddhist holy texts that suggest new bases for friendship and understanding Noting the challenges and tensions in the relationship between Christians and these four other religious communities he also examines the specific issues involved in interpreting the Christian Bible in interreligious dialogue He concludes with a reflection on the experience of conversion in light of the theology of Bernard Lonergan and the mimesis theory of Rene Girard Vatican II Gavin D'Costa, 2014 Gavin D Costa breaks new ground in this authoritative study of the Second Vatican Council's doctrines on other religions with particular attention to Judaism and Islam The focus is exclusively on the doctrinal foundations found in Lumen Gentium 16 that will serve Catholicism in the twenty first century D Costa provides a map outlining different hermeneutical approaches to the Council whilst synthesising their strengths and providing a critique of their weaknesses Moreover he classifies the different authority attributed to doctrines thereby clarifying debates regarding continuity discontinuity and reform in doctrinal teaching Vatican II Catholic Doctrines on Jews and Muslims expertly examines the Council's revolutionary teaching on Judaism which has been subject to conflicting readings including the claim that the Council reversed doctrinal teachings in this area Through a rigorous examination of the debates the drafts the official commentary and with consideration of the previous Council and papal doctrinal teachings on the Jews D Costa lays bare the doctrinal achievements of the Council and concludes with a similar detailed examination of Catholic doctrines on Islam This innovative text makes essential interventions in the debate about Council hermeneutics and doctrinal teachings on the religions The Cambridge Companion to Joseph Ratzinger Daniel Cardó, Uwe Michael Lang, 2023-12-21 A study of key themes in Ratzinger's thought highlighting his theological synthesis in response to religious and intellectual challenges Joint Ventures M. D. Litonjua, 2012-10-16 Joint Venture's is a term used in the business world to describe two or more business enterprises that join hands and consolidate their management operations and labor force to increase their productivity to offer a more diversified array of products to increase their profitability and be a more successful business enterprise in service to their employees and society at large But it is not simply a matter of joining economic forces and resources There has to be synergy compatibility and complementarity in corporate strengths and weaknesses in corporate missions and cultures in corporate objectives and strategies such that the joint ventures result in something greater than the mere sum of their parts This is true of joint ventures in the academic world Interdisciplinary studies are not mere combinations of academic courses They are or should be the mutual enrichment and mutual correction of disciplines They can be and are about expanding the horizons of a discipline beyond its narrow confines and or correcting the constricting assumptions values and prescriptions of doctrinaire theoretical viewpoints These have been the basic assumption and the goal the working framework and agenda behind the essays gathered here as they were in my earlier collections Critical Intersections 2006 and Creative Fractures 2011 In my teaching and writing I seek to bring to bear insights and perspectives from religious studies and the social sciences their critical intersections their creative fractures and their joint ventures to elucidate discussions controversies and explanations 1 and 2 Corinthians Yung Suk

Kim, 2013-02-26 The Texts Contexts series gathers scholarly voices from diverse contexts and social locations to bring new or unfamiliar facets of biblical texts to light In 1 and 2 Corinthians scholars from a variety of cultural and social locations shed new light on themes and dynamics in Paul's most intriguing letters to a complex church Subjects include race identity and privilege ritual food and power community culture and love These essays de-center the often homogeneous first world orientation of much biblical scholarship and open up new possibilities for discovery Luther@500 and Beyond ATF

Press, 2019-09-13 The Luther 500 anniversary may be behind us but Luther stands ahead of us in many ways The essays in this volume by an international group of scholars begin with a contextual discussion of Luther's definitive contribution to the Wittenberg Reformation and its significance for us today New light is shed on old issues across a range of topics But these essays do not stay in the past Many also engage critically with contemporary issues in Luther interpretation and a few boldly trace the trajectory of Luther's reformational theology into the future The Oxford Handbook of Ecumenical Studies
