Emerson and Other Essays John Jay Chapman, 2018-08-13 Emerson and Other Essays by John Jay Chapman Leave this hypocritical prating about the masses Masses are rude lame unmade pernicious in their demands and influence and need not to be flattered but to be schooled I wish not to concede anything to them but to tame drill divide and break them up and draw individuals out of them The worst of charity is that the lives you are asked to preserve are not worth preserving Masses The calamity is the masses I do not wish any mass at all but honest men only lovely sweet accomplished women only and no shovel handed narrow brained gin drinking million stockingers or lazzaroni at all If government knew how I should like to see it check not multiply the population When it reaches its true law of action every man that is born will be hailed as essential Away with this hurrah of masses and let us have the considerate vote of single men spoken on their honor and their conscience We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out
