Emotion In Art:

Emotion and the Arts Mette Hjort, Sue Laver, 1997 Literatuuropgave p 283 298 Under four headings the relationship between the arts and emotions is discussed by mainly philosophers The headings are the paradox of fiction emotion and its expression through art the rationality of emotional responses to art and the value of emotion art forms discussed are literature music theatre visual arts Art and Emotion Derek Matravers, 2001-01-25 The author's aim in this study is to show that what experiences of art and emotion have in common and what links them to the expression of emotion in non artistic cases is the role played by feeling Suffering Art Gladly Jerrold Levinson, 2013-11-14 A collection of newly composed essays some with a historical focus and some with a contemporary focus which addresses the problem of explaining the appeal of artworks whose appreciation entails negative or difficult emotions on the appreciator's part what has traditionally been known as the paradox of tragedy Art's Emotions Damien Freeman, 2011-01-01 How is that artistic works have the power to move the human heart Why does Manet's Woman with a Parrot evoke reverie and an Edward Elgar cello concerto nostalgia What is the value of such experiences Art's Emotions is a reflective thought provoking exploration of the significance that experiencing emotion through art has upon our lives Damien Freeman reviews and evaluates three traditional approaches to understanding artistic expression and moves on to develop a new theory of emotion that resolves key questions in aesthetics In a novel philosophical project Freeman also establishes the ethical importance of art in nurturing humans and helping them flourish Art's Emotions challenges readers to consider not only how art engages with emotion but also the ways in which art can answer fundamental questions about the value and nature of experience

Emotion and Art John Ruskan, 2011-01-01 In this highly original work John Ruskan explores the intricacies of feeling oriented art He presents radical insights about the nature of the art process that explain exactly what it is that artists do how they can do it better and how to make art an essential route to enlightenment through revealing and integrating the personal unconscious He demystifies artistic manic depressiveness clarifying in remarkably simple terms how it forms and how it may be handled and reversed His original three stages of art provide a road map for those traveling the glorious yet often perilous path of the artist revealing those perils and how to avoid them He will enable you to experience art either as a viewer or creator as a vital part of your evolutionary advancement Living with Feeling Lucia Capacchione, 2001 An outline and instructional guide explains how to use artistic expression to achieve emotional equilibrium and start on the road to self discovery Draw Your Feelings Rukmini Poddar, 2023-10-10 An interactive guide to help readers connect with learn and process their emotions creatively Our emotions add color to our lives Happiness can feel like bright sunshine Anxiety can feel like a gray cloud Even though it may be uncomfortable at first it's clear that sitting with your emotions feeling them fully and exploring their depths can teach you more about yourself and help you better anticipate and process big feelings when they come In this mind opening and beautifully illustrated guide popular artist Rukmini Poddar guides you through the steps to creative self reflection giving your emotions a physical representation through lines shapes colors and more With exercises tailored to beginners and experts alike readers will learn basic drawing skills and take them all the way to mapping their emotional landscape Draw Your Feelings will stretch creative muscles you didn't know you had At the end of the journey you will transform the way you interact with yourself and the world

Cognition in Emotion Tone Roald, 2007-01-01 Emotions are essential for human existence both lighting the way toward the brightest of achievements and setting the course into the darkness of suffering Not surprisingly then emotion research is currently one of the hottest topics in the field of psychology Yet to divine the nature of emotion is a complex and extensive task In this book emotions are approached through an exploration of the nature of cognition in emotion the nature of thoughts in feelings Different approaches to emotions are explored from brain research to research at the level of experience and it is argued that all approaches must seriously take into account the experiential dimension A qualitative study of experiences with art is therefore presented as emotions and cognition are often expressed in experiences with art It is the first study of its kind Descriptions of various affective phenomena are then given which have significant implications for contemporary debates about emotions resolving several contemporary controversies

Art's Emotions Damien Freeman, 2014-09-03 Despite the very obvious differences between looking at Manet's Woman with a Parrot and listening to Elgar's Cello Concerto both experiences provoke similar questions in the thoughtful aesthete why does the painting seem to express reverie and the music nostalgia How do we experience the reverie and nostalgia in such works of art Why do we find these experiences rewarding in similar ways As our awareness of emotion in art and our engagement with art's emotions can make such a special contribution to our life it is timely for a philosopher to seek to account for the nature and significance of the experience of art's emotions Damien Freeman develops a new theory of emotion that is suitable for resolving key questions in aesthetics He then reviews and evaluates three existing approaches to artistic expression and proposes a new approach to the emotional experience of art that draws on the strengths of the existing approaches Finally he seeks to establish the ethical significance of this emotional experience of art for human flourishing Freeman challenges the reader not only to consider how art engages with emotion but how we should connect up our answers to questions concerning the nature and value of the experiences offered by works of art

Painting Emotions: The Art of Expressing Feelings Through Color and Form Craig Dobson, Imagine a world where colors dance with our feelings where shapes embody our deepest thoughts and where the canvas becomes a mirror reflecting our very souls This is the world of emotional art a realm where the power of visual expression intertwines with the intricate tapestry of human emotions Painting Emotions The Art of Expressing Feelings Through Color and Form is more than just an art instruction manual it's an invitation to delve into the profound connection between art and emotional well being Through practical techniques insightful reflections and inspiring stories this book will guide you on a journey of self discovery helping you unlock the emotional language of colors shapes and forms We'll explore the psychological impact of color palettes the emotional resonance of brushstrokes and the expressive power of compositional elements Whether you're seeking a way to manage stress process challenging experiences or simply enhance your artistic expression this book provides a powerful tool for self exploration and emotional growth Get ready to embrace your inner artist tap into the wellspring of your emotions and let your creativity paint the world with the vibrant hues of your soul The Expression of Emotion in the Visual Arts: A Philosophical Inquiry Benjamin R. Tilghman, 2012-12-06 The philosophy of art aesthetics is here understood to be something distinct from both art appreciation and art criticism The philosophy of art is nevertheless dependent upon the existence of appreciation and criticism because it is out of reflection upon these that the uniquely philosophical problems of art arise problems that reflect puzzlement about what is involved in understanding enjoying describing and evaluating works of art Hence the philosophy of art must presuppose at least some measure of understanding and appreciation of particular works of art and if such understanding and appreciation are lacking the philosopher is in no position to supply them It can not be a philosophical task to undertake a Defense of Poesie against either the philistine or the tyrant The philosopher is not the one to convince us that art is a Good Thing that paintings are worth looking at poems worth reading and music worth listening to if for no other reason than that philosophical theory and argument are no substitute for taste and sensibility My position here is the now unexceptional one that philosophical problems are essentially conceptual problems and while the philosopher of art cannot produce aesthetic sensibility and appreciation where these do not exist he can give us understanding of the concepts relevant to artistic appreciation and thereby help us to see our way through the conceptual confusions that have generated the philosophical puzzles surrounding art its appreciation and criticism Deeper Than Reason Jenefer Robinson, 2005-04-07 Jenefer Robinson uses modern psychological and neuroscientific research on the emotions to study our emotional involvement with the arts Emotion in art Claude Phillips, 1968 Emotion and Art John Ruskan, 2012-01-01 In this highly original work John Ruskan explores the intricacies of feeling oriented art He presents radical insights about the nature of the art process that explain exactly what it is that artists do how they can do it better and how to make art an essential route to enlightenment through revealing and integrating the personal unconscious He demystifies artistic manic depressiveness clarifying in remarkably simple terms how it forms and how it may be handled and reversed His original three stages of art provide a road map for those traveling the glorious yet often perilous path of the artist revealing those perils and how to avoid them He will enable you to experience art either as a viewer or creator as a vital part of your evolutionary advancement Emotion in Art Sir Claude Phillips, 1925 Emotions, Art, and Christianity in the Transatlantic World, 1450-1800 Heather Graham, Lauren G. Kilroy-Ewbank, 2021-08-24 Emotions Art and Christianity in the Transatlantic World 1450-1800 is a collection of studies variously exploring the role of visual and material culture in shaping early modern emotional experiences The volume's transatlantic framework moves from The Netherlands Spain and Italy to Mexico Peru Ecuador and the Philippines and centers on visual culture as a means to explore how emotions differ in their local and global contexts amidst the many shifts occurring c 1450 1800 These themes are examined through the lens of art informed by religious ideas especially Catholicism with each essay probing how religiously inflected art stimulated molded and encoded emotions Contributors Elena FitzPatrick Sifford Alison C Fleming Natalia Keller Walter S Melion Olaya Sanfuentes Patricia Simons Dario Velandia Onofre and Charles M Rosenberg Emotion and the Arts Mette Hjort, Sue Laver, 1997-09-04 Although there are a number of anthologies dealing with various topics related to the emotions this is the first to focus on the arts The editors have collected new essays on emotion and its relation to the arts by fifteen leading aestheticians The essays consider such topics as the paradox of fiction emotion in the pure and abstract arts the rationality and ethics of emotional responses to art and the value of emotion Contributors include Robert Solomon Rom Harre Kendall Walton and Jerrold Levinson Emotion, Creativity, and Art Leonid IĀkovlevich Dorfman, 1997 Emotion in Art (Classic Reprint) Claude Phillips, 2017-12-18 Excerpt from Emotion in Art The observant would ascertain numerous emen dations if they were to compare the original text with that which Claude now places before us More than a year ago he wrote to me pointing out that this might prove to be a last book to his intimates he often expressed the hope that it might prove to be also a first book meaning of course that it might be followed by other volumes of a similar nature About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Representing Emotions Helen Hills, Taylor & Francis Group, 2019-05-31 Juxtaposing artistic and musical representations of the emotions with medical philosophical and scientific texts in Western culture between the Renaissance and the twentieth century the essays collected in this volume explore the ways in which emotions have been variously conceived configured represented and harnessed in relation to broader discourses of control excess and refinement Since the essays explore the interstices between disciplines e g music and medicine history of art and philosophy and thereby disrupt established frameworks within the histories of art music and medicine traditional narrative accounts are challenged Here larger historical forces come into perspective as these papers suggest how both artistic and scientific representations of the emotions have been put to use in political social and religious struggles at a variety of different levels
