I Can Solve Problems

In math there are many ways to solve a problem. I can solve problems by thinking critically and creatively about new ideas.

I Can Find My Strengths

Do I feel good about myself as a math student? I can find my strengths and use these to help me succeed.

I Can Ask For Help

Sometimes I need help from others. Working with others and communicating ideas makes us all stronger.

I Can Persevere

Sometimes math is hard. I can learn to use healthy coping strategies to persevere when things get tough.

I Can Identify My Emotions

In math sometimes I feel different emotions. I can identify my emotions and how they impact my thoughts and actions.

I Can Stay Positive

Not everything in math class will be easy. I can stay positive and focused on my goals.

sheets and bookings But everything changed in a matter of days Not just for me but for hundreds of others who arrived with nothing but fear in their eyes and the clothes on their backs When the war started in Ukraine I didn't plan to get involved I watched the news like everyone else shocked and angry I saw the images families separated cities bombed people running with no clear destination And then the buses started arriving The first week was chaos Hundreds of people came through most of them women many with children a few with parents in tow I still remember the exhaustion on their faces the silence of the children the way they clutched plastic bags like lifelines They didn't want much Just somewhere safe to breathe Somewhere warm I opened the doors to my hotel and the houses Everything was free No one asked me to do it No one promised anything in return I just knew I had to It was as if some unseen force had taken hold of me whispered Go Help I didn't ask questions I just moved It wasn't easy In fact it was one of the hardest things I've ever done We ran out of food space patience sleep I had to expand rooms make temporary bedding organize volunteers and mediate endless conflicts Because truth be told when you put hundreds of strangers in the same space traumatized frightened with no idea what tomorrow brings it's not peaceful It's pressure Constant pressure And those women They drove me crazy a million times over Some demanded too much others clashed with each other some cried constantly and a few didn't even say thank you I got yelled at lied to leaned on But despite all that I couldn't stop I kept helping Even when I swore I'd had enough something inside me kept pushing me forward Looking back now three and a half years later I realize I was part of something far bigger than myself Something karmic That's the only word that fits I didn't help because I was a good person I helped because I was meant to Something or someone moved me I still don't know what it was A force A pull Maybe God Maybe fate But whatever it was it made sure I didn't walk away Now with the clarity of time I can say this we all showed our true faces during those years Every single one of us The refugees the volunteers even me Some people became bitter selfish cruel Others became softer kinder stronger We didn't all come out better but we all came out revealed I saw women who had lost everything step up to help others I saw volunteers cry from exhaustion and then keep working I saw teenagers become men overnight I saw sides of myself I didn't know existed both noble and shameful There were days I cursed the war the people and the entire mission But there were also days where the smallest thank you broke me open Today I still host some of them Not as many but enough Some have stayed in Romania Some went back Some moved on to Germany France even Canada I still help even when it's hard Even when I feel I have nothing more to give Why I wish I had a rational answer But I don't The truth is that force whatever it was is still inside me I'm still determined Not because I expect reward Not because I'm a saint But because when everything fell apart for them I had something to offer A room A bed A moment of peace And if I could do it again even knowing how hard it would be I would Because in that mission difficult chaotic maddening I found something I didn't even know I was searching for I found myself And I learned that sometimes the greatest act of love is simply to open your door

Iron Rose Cindy Adams, Susan Crimp, 1995-07-03 Rose Kennedy was born in 1890 and died in 1995 The mother of nine children she outlived four of them two slain by assassins Her eldest Joseph perished during World War II while her second son John F Kennedy ascended to the highest office in America Her sons Robert and Edward also assumed political power but their lives were marked with what many called the Kennedy curse Never before had there been such a world famous matriarch a woman who had given so much and yet had so much taken away In this intimate and revealing portrait of Rose Kennedy Cindy Adams and Susan Crimp set the record straight about the real power behind America s political throne for more than 40 years They identify Rose Queen Mother of Camelot as the one constant pillar of strength who kept America s most powerful and privileged family together Iron Rose is the tale of one of the strongest women in America s history a woman guided by her faith in both her family and her religion and ensures Rose her rightful place as one of the 20th century s most influential women Geek Chic S. Inness,2016-04-30 Mainstream society has often had a deeply rooted fear of intelligent women Why do brilliant women make society ill at ease Focusing on the US Sherrie Inness and contributors explore this question in the context of the last two decades arguing that more intelligent women are appearing in popular culture than ever before Double-Takes David R. Jarraway,2013-05-25 Over the past forty years Canadian literature has found its way to the silver screen with increasing regularity Beginning with the adaptation of Margaret Laurence s A Jest of God to the Hollywood film Rachel Rachel in 1966 Canadian writing would appear to have found a doubly successful life for itself at the movies from the critically acclaimed Kamouraska and The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz in the 1970s through to the award winning Love and Human Remains and The English Patient in the 1990s With the more recent notoriety surrounding the Oscar nominated Away from Her and the screen appearances of The Stone Angel and Fugitive Pieces this seems like an appropriate time for a collection of essays to reflect on the intersection between literary publication in Canada and its various screen transformations This volume discusses and debates several double edged issues the extent to which the literary artefact extends its artfulness to the film artefact the degree to which literary communities stand to gain or lose in contact with film communities and perhaps most of all the measure by which a viable relation between fiction and film can be said to exist in Canada and where that double life precisely manifests itself if at all This book is published in English

Embracing the Melody of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Emotional Arithmetic

In some sort of taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of quick communication, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony created by the published term often disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of Emotional Arithmetic an enchanting fictional prize full of organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound influence resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of this touching analysis, we shall explore the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
