Empire and Elites after the Muslim Conquest Chase F. Robinson, 2000-12-21 The study of early Islamic historical tradition has flourished with the emergence of an innovative scholarship no longer dependent on more traditional narrational approaches Chase Robinson's book first published in 2000 takes full account of the research available and interweaves history and historiography to interpret the political social and economic transformations in the Mesopotamian region after the Islamic conquests Using Arabic and Syriac sources to elaborate his argument the author focuses on the Muslim and Christian elites demonstrating that the immediate effects of the conquests were in fact modest ones Significant social change took place only at the end of the seventh century with the imposition of Marwanid rule Even then the author argues social power was diffused in the hands of local elites This is a sophisticated study in a burgeoning field in Islamic studies

Damascus after the Muslim Conquest Nancy Khalek, 2011-09-09 Before it fell to Muslim armies in AD 635 6 Damascus had a long and prestigious history as a center of Christianity How did this city which became the capitol of the Islamic Empire and its people negotiate the transition from a late antique or early Byzantine world to an Islamic culture In Damascus after the Muslim Conquest Nancy Khalek demonstrates that the changes that took place in Syria during this formative period of Islamic life were not simply a matter of the replacement of one civilization by another as a result of military conquest but rather of shifting relationships and practices in a multifaceted social and cultural setting Even as late antique forms of religion and culture persisted the formation of Islamic identity was affected by the people who constructed lived in and narrated the history of their city Khalek draws on the evidence of architecture and the testimony of pilgrims biographers geographers and historians to shed light on this process of identity formation Offering a fresh approach to the early Islamic period she moves the study of Islamic origins beyond a focus on issues of authenticity and textual criticism and initiates an interdisciplinary discourse on narrative storytelling and the interpretations of material culture Empires of

Jihad R. Bonney, 2004-11-19 Holy war ideas appear among Muslims during the earliest manifestations of the religion This book locates the origin of Jihad and traces its evolution as an idea with the intellectual history of the concept of Jihad in Islam as well as how it has been misapplied by modern Islamic terrorists and suicide bombers Essays in Islamic Philology, History, and Philosophy Alireza Korangy, Wheeler M. Thackston, Roy P.

Mottahedeh, William Granara, 2016-05-24 The articles in this volume are dedicated to Professor Ahmad Mahdavi Damghani for the breadth and depth of his interests and his influence on those interests They attest to the fact that his fervor and rigorously surgical attention to detail have found fertile ground in a wide variety of disciplines including among others Persian literature and philology Islamic history and historiography Arabic literature and philology and Islamic philosophy and jurisprudence The volume has brought together some of the most respected scholars in the fields of Islamic studies and Islamic literatures all his prior students to contribute with articles that touch on the fields Professor Mahdavi Damghani has so permanently touched with his astonishing scholarship and attention to detail The Byzantine and Early Islamic Near East Hugh Kennedy, 2024-10-28 The essays in this volume deal with the history of the Middle East from c 550 to 1000 AD There are three main themes Syria in Late Antiquity and the changes and continuities with the early Islamic period relations between Muslims and the Byzantine Empire from the 8th to the 11th centuries and the development of government and the economy in the early caliphate Throughout there is an emphasis on social and economic trends and the integration of written and archaeological evidence to elucidate the complex developments in this pivotal part of the world In different ways all the papers discuss the formation of the Islamic world and the way in which the legacy of Antiquity economic social and cultural affected the emergence of what we think of as this Islamic World These papers will be of interest to historians of Islam and Byzantium but also western mediaevalists interested in comparing processes of change at opposite ends of the Mediterranean Shurat Legends, Ibadi Identities Adam R. Gaiser, 2016-10-15 An analysis of a variety of early Islamic texts to understand processes of identity formation and community In Shurat Legends Ibadi Identities Adam Gaiser explores the origins and early development of Islamic notions of martyrdom and of martyrdom literature He examines the catalogs or lists of martyrs martyrologies of the early shur t Kh rijites in the context of late antiquity showing that shur t literature as it can be reconstructed shares continuity with the martyrologies of earlier Christians and other religious groups especially in Iraq and that this powerful literature was transmitted by seventh century shur t through their successors the Ib iyya Gaiser examines the sources of poems and narratives as quasi historical accounts and their application in literary creations designed to meet particular communal needs in particular the need to establish and shape identity Gaiser shows how these accounts accumulated traits such as all night prayer vigils stoic acceptance of death and miracles of a wider ascetic and apocalyptic literature in the eighth century including martyrdom narratives of Eastern Christianity By establishing focal points of piety around which a communal identity could be fashioned such accounts proved suitable for use in missionary activity in North Africa and the Arabian Peninsula Gaiser also documents the reshaping of these narratives for more quietist purposes emphasizing moderated rather than violent action diplomacy and respect for other Islamic sects as also being monotheistic rather than condemning them as sinful Along with refashioning narratives Gaiser details the Ib efforts to compile collections into genealogies both biographical dictionaries and lineages of the true faith linking individuals and communities to local saints and martyrs He also shows how this more nuanced history led to the formation of rules and authorities governing the shur t Employing rarely examined manuscript materials to shed light on such processes as identity formation and communal boundary maintenance Gaiser traces the course by which this martyrdom literature and its potentially dangerous implications came to be institutionalized contained and controlled The Oxford History of Historical Writing Sarah

Foot, Chase F. Robinson, 2012-10-25 How was history written in Europe and Asia between 400 1400 How was the past understood in religious social and political terms And in what ways does the diversity of historical writing in this period mask underlying commonalities in narrating the past The volume which assembles 28 contributions from leading historians tackles these and other questions Part I provides comprehensive overviews of the development of historical writing in societies that range from the Korean Peninsula to north west Europe which together highlight regional and cultural distinctiveness Part II complements the first part by taking a thematic and comparative approach it includes essays on genre warfare and religion amongst others which address common concerns of historians working in this liminal period before the globalizing forces of the early modern world

Ancient and Modern Assyrians George V. Yana, 2008-04-10 Some scholars have doubted or denied the continuity of the

Assyrian people from the times of empire to the present time This work based on a scientific analysis sheds light on the subject and demonstrates the continuous existence of the Assyrian people Assyria northern Iraq was a state grouped about the heavily fortified city of Ashur on the middle of the Tigris River Assyrians had become civilized in the third millennium BC under the impetus of Mesopotamian development They created the first empire known to history that was run by an empire administration The empire created by Sargon Sharukin much earlier in the third millennium did not have an administration to hold it together Toward the close of the Bronze Age 1700 1200 BC Assyria had expanded westward to the middle of the Euphrates River and in the south they held Babylon temporarily Tiglat Pileser I 1114 1076 extended Assyrian rule to the Mediterranean But Adadnirari II 911 891 BC may be called the father of Assyrian imperial administration Empire building was a necessity of economic development which was based on the technological advances caused by the introduction of iron and the alphabet International trade was necessary for the growth of industry and manufacture and the Assyrians became the tools to carry out this historic economic necessity The Assyrian army was the first army to use iron arms The Assyrian Empire was defeated in 612 BC by an alliance of Medes an Iranian people Persians Iran Babylonians and Cythians Since then Assyria has been governed by Persians Greeks Arabs and Turks The Assyrians were the first non Jewish people to accept Christianity and since then Christianity has become their identity They burned all their ancient books that reminded them of their pagan kings Thus with time a dark cloud was cast over their memories that separated them from their glorious past But now and then there were sparks from the remote past that testified to the persistence of memory Only recently has the full national awareness been restored There are still scholars who doubt or deny any link between the ancient and the Modern Assyrians They argue that the Assyrians were all massacred during the destruction of their empire This book sets out to demonstrate that the Assyrians were not all massacred during the destruction of their country in 612 BC and that they emerged as a Christian people in Assyria northern Iraq and the neighboring countries Muhammad and the Empires of Faith Dr. Sean W. Anthony,2020-04-21 In Muhammad and the Empires of Faith Sean W Anthony demonstrates how critical readings of non Muslim and Muslim sources in tandem can breathe new life into the historical study of Muhammad and how his message transformed the world By placing these sources within the intellectual and cultural world of Late Antiquity Anthony offers a fresh assessment of the earliest sources for Muhammad s life taking readers on a grand tour of the available evidence and suggests what new insights stand to be gained from the techniques and methods pioneered by countless scholars over the decades in a variety of fields Muhammad and the Empires of Faith offers both an authoritative introduction to the multilayered traditions surrounding the life of Muhammad and a compelling exploration of how these traditions interacted with the broader landscape of Late Antiquity Child Custody in Islamic Law Ahmed Fekry Ibrahim,2018-08-09 Pre modern Muslim jurists drew a clear distinction between the nurturing and upkeep of children or custody and caring for the child s education discipline and property known as guardianship Here Ahmed Fekry Ibrahim analyzes how these two concepts relate to the welfare of the child and traces the development of an Islamic child welfare jurisprudence akin to the Euro American concept of the best interests of the child enshrined in the Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC Challenging Euro American exceptionalism he argues that child welfare played an essential role in agreements designed by early modern Egyptian judges and families and that Egyptian child custody laws underwent radical transformations in the modern period Focusing on a variety of themes including matters of age and gender the mother s marital status and the custodian s lifestyle and religious affiliation Ibrahim shows that there is an exaggerated gap between the modern concept of the best interests of the child and pre modern Egyptian approaches to child welfare The Power of Oratory in the Medieval Muslim World Linda G. Jones, 2012-08-06 A remarkable book analysing the importance of oratory for transmitting religious knowledge legitimising rulers and inculcating moral values in the medieval Islamic world The Umayyad World Andrew Marsham, 2020-11-25 The Umayyad World encompasses the archaeology history art and architecture of the Umayyad era 644 750 CE This era was formative both for world history and for the history of Islam Subjects covered in detail in this collection include regions conquered in Umayyad times ethnic and religious identity among the conquerors political thought and culture administration and the law art and architecture the history of religion pilgrimage and the Qur an and violence and rebellion Close attention is paid to new methods of analysis and interpretation including source critical studies of the historiography and inter disciplinary approaches combining literary sources and material evidence Scholars of Islamic history archaeologists and researchers interested in the Umayyad Caliphate its context and influence on the wider world will find much to enjoy in this volume Collective Liability in Islam Nurit Tsafir, 2020-01-16 Provides a close analysis of the Aqila a group collectively liable for blood money payments in Islamic law and history Late Ottoman Origins of Modern Islamic Thought Andrew Hammond, 2022-11-17 Offers an innovative reappraisal of the impact of Late Ottoman Turkish scholars on modern Islamic thought Empires and Communities in the Post-Roman and Islamic World, C. 400-1000 CE Walter Pohl, Rutger Kramer, 2021 Transcending ethnic linguistic and religious boundaries early empires shaped thousands of years of world history Yet despite the global prominence of empire individual cases are often studied in isolation This series seeks to change the terms of the debate by promoting cross cultural comparative and transdisciplinary perspectives on imperial state formation prior to the European colonial expansion Book jacket
