Empire Express David Haward Bain, 2000-09-01 After the Civil War the building of the transcontinental railroad was the nineteenth century's most transformative event Beginning in 1842 with a visionary's dream to span the continent with twin bands of iron Empire Express captures three dramatic decades in which the United States effectively doubled in size fought three wars and began to discover a new national identity From self-made entrepreneurs such as the Union Pacific's Thomas Durant and era-defining figures such as President Lincoln to the thousands of laborers whose backbreaking work made the railroad possible this extraordinary narrative summons an astonishing array of voices to give new dimension not only to this epic endeavor but also to the culture political struggles and social conflicts of an unforgettable period in American history

Empire Express David Haward Bain, 2000      The Old Iron Road David Haward Bain, 2022-09 In the summer of 2000 David Haward Bain and his family left their home in Vermont and headed west in search of America's past Spiritually their journey began on a Kansas trail where the author's grandmother was born in a covered wagon in 1889 Between the Missouri River and the Golden Gate they retraced the entire route of the first transcontinental railroad and large stretches of the Oregon and California trails and the equally colorful old Lincoln Highway Following vanished iron rails and wagon wheel ruts bumping down backroads and main streets they discovered the deep restless uniquely American spirit of adventure that connects our past to our present A superb writer and an exacting researcher Bain conjures up a marvelous sense of coming unstuck in time as he lingers in the ghost towns and battlegrounds prairies and river ports trainyards museums deserts and diners that line his cruise west to California Bain encounters a fascinating cast of characters both historic and contemporary as well as memories of his grandparents and the journeys that shaped his own heritage Writing in the tradition of William Least Heat Moon and Ian Frazier and with an engaging warmth and a deep grasp of history all his own Bain has fashioned a quintessentially American journey      The Men Who Built The Transcontinental Railroad Rolanda Mathies, 2021-05-07
