Empire In Transition The Portuguese World In The Time Of Camoes:

Empire in Transition Alfred Hower, Richard A. Preto-Rodas, 1985 Empire in transition : the Portuguese world in the time of Camões ; [papers presented at the thirtieth annual conference of the Center for Latin American Studies, University of Florida, in commemoration of the four-hundredth anniversary of the death of Luís de Camões] Alfred Hower, 1985 Empire in Transition Alfred Hower, 2018-02-20 The books in the Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series demonstrate the University Press of Florida's long history of publishing Latin American and Caribbean studies titles that connect in and through Florida highlighting the connections between the Sunshine State and its neighboring islands Books in this series show how early explorers found and settled Florida and the Caribbean They tell the tales of early pioneers both foreign and domestic They examine topics critical to the area such as travel migration economic opportunity and tourism They look at the growth of Florida and the Caribbean and the attendant pressures on the environment culture urban development and the movement of peoples both forced and voluntary The Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series gathers the rich data available in these architectural archaeological cultural and historical works as well as the travelogues and naturalists sketches of the area in prior to the twentieth century making it accessible for scholars and the general public alike The Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series is made possible through a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation under the Humanities Open Books program Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures - Continental Europe and its Empires Prem Poddar, 2011-09-21 The first reference work to provide an integrated and authoritative body of information about the political cultural and economic contexts of postcolonial literatures that have their provenance in the major European Empires of Belgium Denmark France G Convicts and Orphans Timothy J. Coates, 2001 This book examines how the early modern Portuguese state used convicts and orphans to populate its global empire In addition it addresses the issue of gender in the state's use of two distinct groups of single women as colonizers orphan girls and reformed prostitutes each given state awarded dowries if they agreed to relocate overseas A Plurilingual History of the Portuguese Language in the Luso-Brazilian Empire Luciane Scarato, 2023-07-21 This book investigates the diverse ways in which the Portuguese language expanded in Brazil despite the multilingual landscape that predominated before and after the arrival of the Europeans and the African diaspora Challenging the assumption that the prevalence of Portuguese was a natural consequence and foregone conclusion of colonisation the book argues that the language's expansion was as much a result of state intervention as of individual agency The growth of the Portuguese language was a tumultuous process that mirrored the power relations and conflicts between Amerindian European African and mestizo actors who shaped standardised and promoted the language within and beyond state institutions Knowing Portuguese became an identification sign of being Brazilian However a significant number of languages disappeared along the way and the book highlights that virtual language homogeneity does not imply social equality

Portuguese variants place speakers on different social levels that justify domination and inequality This research tells the history of a victorious language and other languages that left their mark on Brazilian Portuguese A Plurilingual History of the Portuguese Language in the Luso Brazilian Empire is a useful resource for scholars interested in the history and standardisation of languages Portuguese and Brazilian history and the impacts of colonisation

Twilight of the Literary Terry Cochran, 2009-07-01 In Western thought the modern period signals a break with stagnant social formations the advent of a new rationalism and the emergence of a truly secular order all in the context of an overarching globalization In The Twilight of the Literary Terry Cochran links these developments with the rise of the book as the dominant medium for recording preserving and disseminating thought Consequently his book explores the role that language plays in elaborating modern self understanding It delves into what Cochran calls the figures of thought that have been an essential component of modern consciousness in the age of print technology and questions the relevance of this print bound thinking in a world where print no longer dominates Cochran begins by examining major efforts of the eighteenth century that proved decisive for modern conceptions of history knowledge and print After tracing late medieval formulations of vernacular language that proved crucial to print he analyzes the figures of thought in print culture as they proceed from the idea of the collective spirit the people an elaboration of modern history Cochran reconsiders basic texts that in his analysis reveal the underpinnings of modernity's formation from Dante and Machiavelli to Antonio Gramsci and Walter Benjamin Moving from premodern models for collective language to competing theories of history his work offers unprecedented insight into the means by which modern consciousness has come to know itself

Trade and Romance Michael Murrin,2024-05-31 In Trade and Romance Michael Murrin examines the complex relations between the expansion of trade in Asia and the production of heroic romance in Europe from the second half of the thirteenth century through the late seventeenth century He shows how these tales of romance ostensibly meant for the aristocracy were important to the growing mercantile class as a way to gauge their own experiences in traveling to and trading in these exotic locales Murrin also looks at the role that growing knowledge of geography played in the writing of the creative literature of the period tracking how accurate or inaccurate these writers were in depicting far flung destinations from Iran and the Caspian Sea all the way to the Pacific With reference to an impressive range of major works in several languages including the works of Marco Polo Geoffrey Chaucer Matteo Maria Boiardo Lu s de Cam es Fern o Mendes Pinto Edmund Spenser John Milton and more Murrin tracks numerous accounts by traders and merchants through the literature first on the Silk Road beginning in the mid thirteenth century then on the water route to India Japan and China via the Cape of Good Hope and finally the overland route through Siberia to Beijing All of these routes originally used to exchange commodities quickly became paths to knowledge as well enabling information to pass if sometimes vaguely and intermittently between Europe and the Far East These new tales of distant shores fired the imagination of Europe and made their way with surprising accuracy as Murrin shows into the poetry of the period THE EMPIRE OF APOSTLES Ananya Chakravarti,2018-05-18 The Portuguese encounter with the peoples of South Asia and Brazil set foundational precedents for European imperialism Jesuit missionaries were key participants in both regions As they sought to reconcile three commitments to local missionary spaces to a universal Church and to the global Portuguese empire the Jesuits forged a religious vision of empire Ananya Chakravarti explores both indigenous and European experiences to show how these missionaries learned to negotiate everything with the diverse peoples they encountered and that nothing could simply be imposed Yet Jesuits repeatedly wrote home in language celebrating triumphal impositions of European ideas and practices upon indigenous people In the process while empire was built through distinctly ambiguous interactions Europeans came to imagine themselves in imperial moulds In this dynamic in which the difficult lessons of empire came to be learned and forgotten repeatedly Chakravarti demonstrates an enduring and overlooked characteristic of European imperialism Literature and Travel Michael Hanne,2023-12-18 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,1985 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969
