Canada. Parliament. Dodd, Neil G. Blake,2017-01-06 Holidays are a key to helping us understand the transformation of national regional community and ethnic identities In Celebrating Canada Matthew Hayday and Raymond Blake situate Canada in an international context as they examine the history and evolution of our national and provincial holidays and annual celebrations The contributors to this volume examine such holidays as Dominion Day Victoria Day Quebec's Fête Nationale and Canadian Thanksgiving among many others They also examine how Canadians celebrate the national days of other countries like the Fourth of July and how Dominion Day was observed in the United Kingdom Drawing heavily on primary source research and theories of nationalism identities and invented traditions the essays in this collection deepen our understanding of how these holidays have influenced the evolution of Canadian identities      Empire's Ally Jerome Klassen, Greg Albo,2013-01-10 The war in Afghanistan has been a major policy commitment and central undertaking of the Canadian state since 2001 Canada has been a leading force in the war and has spent hundreds of millions of dollars on aid and reconstruction After a decade of conflict however there is considerable debate about the efficacy of the mission as well as calls to reassess Canada's role in the conflict An authoritative and strongly analytical work Empire's Ally provides a much needed critical investigation into one of the most polarizing events of our time This collection draws on new primary evidence including government documents think tank and NGO reports international media files and interviews in Afghanistan to provide context for Canadian foreign policy to offer critical perspectives on the war itself and to link the conflict to broader issues of political economy international relations and Canada's role on the world stage Spanning academic and public debates Empire's Ally opens a new line of argument on why the mission has entered a stage of crisis      Canadian Gazette and Export Trader ,1909      The Canadian Annual Review of Public Affairs ,1911      The Parliamentarian ,1926      Official Report of the Debates of the House of Commons Canada.
