Nomads, Empires, States Kees van der Pijl,2007-10-20 Shortlisted for the Deutscher Memorial Prize 2008 How we think about international relations theory needs to change Kees van der Pijl argues that by making the nation state the focus of international relations the discipline has become Euro centric and a historical and that theories of imperialism and historic civilisations and their relation to world order have been discarded With more than half the world s population living in cities with unprecedented levels of migration global politics is present on every street corner The international is no longer only a balance of power among states but includes tribal relations making a comeback in various ways Outlining a new approach to IR theory the book makes a case for a re reading of world history in terms of foreign relations and shows what it reveals about both our past and our future The Human Mosaic Mona Domosh,Terry G. Spanish and Empire Nelsy Echávez-Solano, Kenya Dworkin y Méndez, 2007 Essays in this volume deal with the historical linguistic and ideological legacy of the Spanish Empire and its language in the New World Companion to Empire David Rojinsky, 2010 This volume traces a genealogy of the varied conceptions and functions of alphabetic writing in Hispanic cultures of the pre modern and early colonial periods The historical junctures selected are those at which the written word in grammatical historical and legal discourse assumed increased ideological importance for bolstering different kinds of imperial power In effect Companion to Empire posits a constellation of historical scenarios rather than a singular mythical origin in which the alliance between writing and imperium might be discerned The corpus of primary texts considered in the volume derives from works by foundational figures in the history of pre modern language theories Isidore of Seville Alfonso X the Wise Antonio de Nebrija and from those identified with the early transatlantic expansion of alphabetic writing Peter Martyr D'Anghiera Bernardino de Sahagún Nuño Beltrán de Guzmán By reading these canonical texts against the grain the author avoids the totalizing gesture of histories of the language and instead focuses upon the relationship between prestige written languages the creation of a literate mentality and the need to consolidate imperium on both sides of the Atlantic Companion to Empire will thus be of interest to those adopting a post philological approach to Hispanic Studies as well as those interested in medieval and transatlantic imperium studies Soft Power and the Worldwide Promotion of Chinese Language Learning Jeffrey Gil, 2017-05-11 The Confucius Institute Project consisting of Confucius Institutes and Classrooms the posting of Chinese language teachers to overseas schools and universities and the Chinese Bridge language competition represents an attempt by China to extend its influence globally through the use of soft power Facilitated by a rapidly increasing demand for Chinese language learning it has established a presence across the globe and made valuable contributions to the learning and teaching of Chinese However this has not necessarily led to an increasingly positive view of

China either at a political or a societal level Through an analysis of official documents interviews with those involved a survey of Chinese language learners and a study of academic and media sources the author evaluates the aims of the project and discusses whether these aims are being met
