What Do We Know about War? John A. Vasquez,2000 What Do We Know about War reviews the causes of war and the conditions of peace Drawing analyses from the thirty five year history of this discipline leading researchers explore the roles played by alliances territory arms races interstate rivalries capability and crisis bargaining in increasing the probability of war They emphasize international norms and the recent finding that democratic states do not fight each other as factors that promote peace This book offers an accessible and up to date overview of current knowledge and an agenda for future research

Advancing Peace Research J. David Singer,2012-04-27 Professor J David Singer has been arguably the most important influence on quantitative research into the causes and attributes of war His pioneering work on the Correlates of War project at the University of Michigan and his numerous books and articles have inspired generations of researchers in the fields of international relations conflict analysis security studies and peace science This collection is a carefully selected overview of his work which provides not only an excellent introduction to his considerable methodological theoretical and empirical contributions but also an intellectual history of developments in the field of international relations which are reflected in Professor Singer s work This is essential reading for all those with an interest in the use of quantitative methods in social science the changing nature of the study of international relations and the analysis of war and peace

Nations at War Daniel S. Geller,J. David Singer,1998-02-13 Nations at War provides an explanation of war in international politics grounded on data based empirical research The book classifies and synthesizes the research findings of over 500 quantitative analyses of war at the analytic level of the state dyad region and international system Because wars follow from political decisions two basic decision making models the rational and the non rational are examined in relation to the explanatory framework of the volume In addition case analyses of two wars the Iran Iraq War 1980 and World War I 1914 are provided as demonstrations of scientifically based explanations of historical events The primary structural factors responsible for the onset and seriousness of war are identified and the explanations are developed according to the scientific model of covering laws The conclusion presents a discussion of the potential for probabilistic conditional predictions of conflict within the context of war and peace studies

Afrocentrism and World Politics Errol A. Henderson,1995-09-30 This study presents a refined Afrocentric critique of world politics Rejecting earlier wholesale condemnations of Eurocentrism the author instead roots Afrocentrism in its capacity to offer itself as a worldview supportive of scientific paradigms suggesting social science theory Arguing that African peoples their history and humanity are denigrated in many Eurocentric analyses Henderson makes clear that Africans in particular though not exclusively must promote paradigms rooted in their own historical image and interests The author offers kimira an historical African centered paradigm rooted in an analysis of cultural groups as a distinct framework for explicating global political dynamics and an
