Employment Creation And Social Protection In The Middle East And North Africa:

Employment Creation and Social Protection in the Middle East and North Africa Economic Research Forum for the Arab Countries, Iran, and Turkey, 2002 Describes and analyzes critical aspects of the labor market and social protection in the Arab world The Economic Development Process in the Middle East and North Africa Alessandro Romagnoli, Luisa Mengoni, 2013-11-12 Offering a comprehensive analysis of the development of economies in the Middle East and North Africa over the past half century this book charts the progress of these countries through an examination of an Islamic model of economic development reform processes and economic integration Far from being a simple process economic development in the Middle East and North Africa is dependent on the interaction of a set of changing systems including international relations the political regime economy and society By analysing these interdependent factors The Economic Development Process in MENA seeks to provide answers to the most pressing issues facing the economies in this area Providing an interpretation of regional development in light of dialectics between state and society this book will be of value to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East Economics and International Relations Infrastructure and Employment Creation in the Middle East and North Africa Antonio Estache, Elena Ianchovichina, Robert Bacon, Ilhem Salamon, 2013-02-20 Infrastructure has a substantial role to play in creating new jobs in the Middle East and North Africa but its potential varies greatly across countries and sectors and will not suffice to resolve the mounting unemployment problem in the region

Privatizing Welfare in the Middle East Anne Marie Baylouny, 2010 Examines the effects of neoliberal economic reforms on middle classes in the Middle East Based on fieldwork and interviews with members non members and policymakers this title provides fresh insights into democratization liberalization and civil society The Routledge Handbook on the Middle East Economy Hassan Hakimian, 2021-07-08 This Handbook captures the salient features of Middle Eastern economies and critically examines the public policy responses required to address the challenges and opportunities across the region Bringing together wide ranging perspectives from carefully selected and renowned subject specialists the collection fills a gap in this relatively young and growing academic field Combining discussion of theory and empirical evidence the book maps out the evolution of Middle East economics as a field within area studies and applied development economics Presented in six thematic sections the book enables the reader to gain a comprehensive understanding of the region's main economic themes and issues Growth and development in comparative perspectives Labour force and human development Natural resources resource curse and trade Poverty inequality and social policy Institutions and transition to democracy Corruption conflict and refugees Providing an overview of the principal economic problems policies and performances relating to the countries in the Middle East and North Africa region this collection will be a key resource for upper level undergraduates graduates and scholars with an interest in Middle East economics applied development economics development studies and area studies Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown, 2023-05-01 In recent decades the culture society politics and economics of Bahrain have been transformed driving its global ambitions while retaining to a degree the rule of law and cosmopolitanism Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain examines the transformation of Bahrain from the 1930s from a regional trading port and then an important oil producer into the financial hub for the Gulf and into a global centre of Islamic finance It focuses on the changes and tensions that transformation brought to Bahrain s political legal economic religious and social structures In this book Rajeswary Brown explores the rising force of youth populism driven by the persistence of poverty and unemployment notably among rural Shi ite communities and unemployed middle class youth as well as examining Bahrain s skillful reconciliation of the demands of Islamic faith expressed in the Sharia to the requirements of modern financial capitalism In this Bahrain s experience can be set against the modern history of much of the rest of the Middle East most strikingly with respect to the position of Islamic charities notably in Syria comparisons of which are fully explored here Proceedings of The 6th MAC 2016 Group of authors,2016-02-16 Proceedings of The 6th MAC 2016 The 6th Multidisciplinary Academic Conference in Prague 2016

Challenges of Economic Development in the Middle East and North Africa Region Julia Devlin,Julia C. Devlin,2010 This book surveys major economic issues in the development of countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region since World War II It presents a framework of analysis highlighting underlying continuities in the region s approach to issues of growth management of oil and natural resources post conflict environments progress in trade liberalization and regional integration the use of industrial policy labor market adjustment and unemployment educational attainment and poverty incidence At the same time this book focuses on emerging differences across countries in the region in the prevailing approach to addressing such challenges most notably between the economies of the Gulf Cooperation Council and other MENA countries This book also incorporates a discussion of tools and methods used by development practitioners and briefly examines issues of aid effectiveness The approach used is intended to appeal to a wide audience including students of economic development political scientists and development practitioners Institutional Reform & Economic Development in Egypt Noha El-Mikawy,Heba Ahmad Handoussa,2002 This pioneering volume addresses the key issue of the relationship between politics and economics with special reference to Egypt in the 1990s Drawing on the expertise of both political scientists and economists it assembles an impressive array of data including detailed opinion surveys to demonstrate conclusively that political and economic reform need to proceed in tandem In an insightful analysis of the Egyptian legislature the authors draw attention to a fundamental aspect of institutional reform namely the informational and knowledge base of legislation as well as the organizational infrastructure of policy formulation As regards Egypt s economic performance since the early 1990s they focus in particular on impediments to improved export performance and offer solid recommendations as to how such obstacles might be overcome This stimulating study makes a timely contribution to political economic analysis which may at the same time prove helpful in the formulation of new policies Facing

Barriers Vered Kraus, Yuval P. Yonay, 2018-03-22 Palestinian women have slowly become active in the formal labor market in Israel In this book Vered Kraus and Yuval Yonay describe and analyse the labor experience of these Palestinian women and explain why Palestinian and Jewish women have different rates and outcomes in the labor market Challenging popular views that ascribe these differences to Arab culture and Islam they instead find that it is state policies and widespread discrimination that hinder Palestinian women s participation and success By including the various Palestinian sub groups Muslims Bedouins Druze Christians non citizen residents of Jerusalem this book shows how the specific life circumstances of the women from these subgroups affect their employment and achievements The book thus enriches the acute discussion on the labour market experiences of Muslim and Arab women in the Middle East and North Africa and in advanced industrialized societies
