Employment In Europe 1998:

Employment in Europe, 1999 Employment in Europe 1998. Jobs for People, People for Jobs, Turning Policy Guidelines Into Action Commission of the European Communities, 1998 Employment in Europe 1999, 1999

OECD Employment Outlook 1998 June OECD, 1998-10-07 Provides an annual assessment of labour market developments and prospects in the OECD area This edition includes chapters on minimum wages the transition from education to work workforce ageing and working hours Reference statistics are included Employment in Europe 1998 European Commission. Directorate-General for Employment, Industrial Relations, and Social Affairs. Unit V/A.1, 1999 Employment Revival in Europe Peter Auer, 2000 This innovative study reviews the remarkable economic and labor market recovery made by four small European countries Austria Denmark Ireland and the Netherlands It analyzes their success and highlights the specific factors responsible in particular the promotion of social dialogue and the institution of critical macroeconomic and labor market policies While assessing the progress and examining the remaining problems in these four countries the book compares their progress with that of other European Union countries and examines how similar policies and action could help combat unemployment and make progress towards full employment The study presents a detailed comparative analysis of the labor markets of the four countries It analyzes employment and unemployment developments in detail covering gender gaps the sectoral distribution of employment and the shares of people which are dependent on social transfers It shows the employment intensity of economic growth and gives readers a substantial broad overview of the economic and labor market situation in each country Finally the book makes relevant policy recommendations for promoting further growth and social progress in these countries as well as others across Europe Women's Employment in Europe Jill Rubery, Mark Smith, Colette Fagan, 1999 The book aims to provide a systematic and international analysis of key dimensions for understanding women's labour market position and reveals that to assess future trends it is necessary to look beyond the narrow focus of equal opportunities policies to broader issues of labour market conditions regulations and policy developments New Governance and the European Employment Strategy Samantha Velluti, 2010-03-10 This book examines the European Strategy for Employment EES and its implementation through the Open Method of Coordination exploring what the EES reveals about recent developments in EU social governance and offering new insights and fresh perspectives into the operation of New Governance and its relationship with law and constitutionalism Employment in Europe 1998 Commission of the European Communities, 1998 EU Employment Law Jeff Kenner, 2002-12-23 This book traces the evolution of European Union employment law and social policy from its essentially economic origins in the Treaty of Rome through to the emerging themes post Amsterdam co ordination of national employment policies modernisation of social laws and combating discrimination Each stage of development of Community employment law and social policy is analysed in depth to give a sense of perspective to this fast changing field As the European Union seeks to meet the challenges of globalisation the need to develop social policy as a productive factor has come to the fore The author explains how the social economic and employment imperatives of European integration have always been intertwined and how the emergence of Community employment law from its hitherto twilight existence is best understood through an examination of consistent strands of policy development Unemployment in the New Europe Nancy Bermeo,2001-08-27 This book examines the consequences and interconnections between unemployment and European unification Labour Supply and Incentives to Work in Europe Ramón Gómez-Salvador,Ana Lamo,Barbara Petrongolo,Melanie Ward,Etienne Wasmer,2005-01-01 Labour Supply and Incentives to Work in Europe highlights recent developments in the labour supply in Europe and gives a detailed assessment of their link with economic policies and labour market institutions Despite major changes in European labour supply during the past few decades the existing literature still lacks a comprehensive study of the relationship between labour supply and labour market institutions from a macro perspective Welfare and Families in Europe Peter Abrahamson,Bent Greve,Thomas Boje,2019-06-04 Originally published in 2005 The primary focus of this work is the relationship between family work and the welfare system Focusing on Denmark Sweden Germany France and the United Kingdom the study draws comparisons between societies which represent different types of welfare mix between state market and civil society Three important issues in the transformation of the European welfare state systems are considered The conditions for social citizenship in European welfare states and how they have changed in relation to family and work Changes in the provision of social welfare and how they have affected the interrelationship between the welfare state the market and civil society The impacts of constraints on public expenditure and the financing of the welfare state The authors discuss the question of whether the welfare states of these countries have profoundly changed over the last ten to fifteen years and examine how this might provide insights into the contemporary welfare state The framework developed by the authors can be applied in other specific areas of the development and transformation of welfare states Unsocial Europe Anne Gray,2004-10-20 How and why are European welfare systems and the labour market changing How do they affect the daily lives of those facing unemployment or precarious work Anne Gray shows how the idea of unemployment benefits as a right is evolving into a regime closer to American workfare She explains how this policy forces the unemployed into low paid temporary or part time jobs associated with the new flexible labour market Drawing on unemployed people s own accounts of their experiences in the UK Germany France and Belgium Gray illustrates the job market as seen from the dole queue Exploring the changing nature of work in Europe Gray reveals why is there a shortage of full time permanent jobs what is to be done and what the future holds for labour market regulation in Europe Providing clear explanations about shifts in welfare policy this book is ideal for trade unionists activists and students and makes an important contribution to wider debates on globalisation and the future of work Research Handbook on EU Labour Law Alan Bogg,Cathryn Costello,A.C.L. Davies,2016-12-30 Research Handbook on EU Labour Law features contributions from leading scholars in the field Part I addresses cross cutting themes such as the relationship between EU law and national law the role of human rights in EU labour law and the impact of austerity measures In Part II the contributors focus on topics in individual and collective labour law at EU level including working time and job security Finally Part III offers a comprehensive overview of the EU s interventions in equality law

The Dynamics of Wage Relations in the New Europe Linda Clarke, Peter de Gijssel, Jörn Janssen, 2012-12-06 The debate on The Dynamics of Wage Relations in the New Europe is an offspring of a research project on Disparities in Wage Relations and the Reproduction of Skills in Europe At a meeting of the advisory committee for this research held at the University of Westminster in London on 14th November 1994 it was decided by Linda Clarke, Jörn Janssen, Henryk Lewandowski, Philippe Mehaut, Patrick Rozenblatt and Frank Wilkinson to set up a larger international committee to develop a programme and seek funding from the European Commission for a symposium of experts on wage relations This committee of ten scientific experts was formed and invited to a number of meetings throughout 1995 and 1996 by DG V of the European Commission in order to develop a programme and proposal for a symposium to take place in 1997 Eventually the proposal formally submitted by University of Westminster, London University of Maastricht, Netherlands, Fachhochschule Dortmund, Germany and University of Osnabrück, Germany was accepted by the European Commission in May 1996 Additional funding was then obtained from the Hans Bockler Stiftung and the Dutch Organisation for Scientific Research allowing in particular participants from Central and East European countries to be invited The subject of wage relations as a central issue of European social policy was intended to be tackled in an open debate between scientists and policy makers the latter as individual experts rather than representatives

Care and Social Integration in European Societies Birgit Pfau-Effinger, Birgit Geissler, 2005-09-07 This book provides invaluable descriptions and comparative analyses of the now complex and highly varied arrangements for the care of children, disabled and older people in Europe set within the context of changing labour markets and welfare systems It includes analyses of the modernisation of informal care and new forms of informal care topics often neglected in the literature Issues of gender, family change, social integration and citizenship are all explored in a series of chapters that report on original empirical cross national research All contributors are high ranking experts involved in the COST A13 Action Programme funded by the European Union Care and social integration in European societies is essential reading for social policy and sociology academics particularly those who are interested in comparative policy analysis, gender, labour markets and families It is also recommended reading for graduate level students in these fields and policy makers for whom the book provides a unique resource on the latest European developments in this critical policy area
