Reflecting on Teaching Practice and Learner

Engagement Anjoom A. Mukadam ,2020-05-04 Student Empowerment in Higher Education brings together the accumulated knowledge and experience of many accomplished teachers and students from higher education institutions around the world and has much to offer those who are engaged in higher education as students teachers or support staff The authors offer personal reflections in teaching learning mentoring assessment hands on activities course design and student identities in higher education across the globe supported by academic research and scholarship Readers are provided with a window into tried and tested empowering practices in varying contexts enabling them to see what works and what does not alongside the challenges and possibilities A distinctive feature of this book and its paramount strength is that it explores best practices in student empowerment whilst reflecting on matters of teaching and learning that are familiar to students and teachers alike and also explores practices in a variety of disciplines The intention of these volumes therefore is not only to inform readers about the diverse learning and teaching approaches of the authors but most importantly to facilitate processes of student empowerment and promote reflection on teaching and learning practices In recent decades higher education policy discourse has persistently implied that a university education is delivered to students under the impersonal banner of the student experience Not only does this commodify the diverse individual experiences of students into one marketable product it also creates false barriers and power dynamics between students and their teachers In Student Empowerment in Higher Education the students and lecturers who collaborated to write this important volume have literally blown such misleading notions out of the window I highly recommend each varied and autonomous chapter to learn what really inspires confidence and success in university students Professor Sarah Hayes Professor of Higher Education Policy University of Wolverhampton The two volumes of Student Empowerment in Higher Education offer the reader rich and varied examples and understandings of student empowerment from around the world The authors provide reflective accounts of learning and teaching from diverse perspectives and disciplines which focus on many different areas of practice in higher education It is this variety that will appeal to many readers as the source of ideas and inspiration for numerous possible routes to empowerment With many chapters co authored by students and staff the book models the collective responsibility students and staff have for enhancing student empowerment Dr Catherine Bovill Senior Lecturer in Student Engagement University of Edinburgh Fulbright Scholar Elon University North Carolina USA Visiting Fellow Knowledge Exchange University of Winchester

Children's Literature and Learner Empowerment Janice Bland,2013-07-22 Children s literature can be a powerful way to encourage and empower EFL students but is less commonly used in the classroom than adult literature This text provides a comprehensive introduction to children s and young adult literature in EFL teaching It demonstrates the complexity of children s literature and how it can encourage an active community of second language readers with multilayered picturebooks fairy tales graphic novels and radical young adult fiction It examines the opportunities of children s literature in EFL teacher education including the intertextuality of children s literature as a gate opener for canonised adult literature the rich patterning of children's literature supporting Creative Writing the potential of interactive drama projects Close readings of texts at the centre of contemporary literary scholarship yet largely unknown in the EFL world provide an invaluable guide for teacher educators and student teachers including works by David Almond Anthony Browne Philip Pullman and J K Rowling Introducing a range of genres and their significance for EFL teaching this study makes an important new approach accessible for EFL teachers student teachers and teacher educators

Jacket Empowering Teachers and Democratising Schooling Keith Heggart, Steven Kolber, 2022-09-13 This edited book brings together teachers and education academics who are committed to education about for and through democracy It presents a diverse range of viewpoints about the challenges facing educators working across different sectors and discusses ways to challenge issues like neoliberalism excessive managerialism and accountability and privatisation It also engages with the times that education has and continues to fail students This book outlines both logistical and ideological challenges which educators committed to democracy face and describes innovative approaches they have adopted including networking the use of social media and digital tools and extending their reach beyond their local communities to international audiences It encourages conversations about how educators and academics might re-commit to education for democracy and generate further avenues for discussion and action by educators and academics

Gender, Governance and Empowerment in India Sreevidya Kalaramadam, 2016-03-22 Since the mid 1980s the presence of women in governance has become a major marker of successful democracy in global and national discourses on the democratization of society A diverse set of nation states have legislatively mandated gender quotas to ensure the presence of elected women representatives EWRs in various rungs of governance Since 1993 the Indian state has legislated a massive program of democratization and decentralization As a result more than 1.5 million EWRs have taken office within the lower rungs of governance or the Panchayati Raj Institutions PRI This book is an ethnography of the Indian state and its policy of legislated entry of women into political life It argues that political participation of women is necessary to change the political practices in society to make institutions more gender class and caste representative and to empower individual women to negotiate both formal and informal institutions Its locus is the everyday life contexts of EWRs in the southern Indian state of Karnataka who negotiate their own meanings of politics state society empowerment and political subjectivity Analysing three factors structural boundaries sociocultural divisions and conjunctural limitations imposed on the participation of EWRs by political parties the book demonstrates that the social embeddedness of PRIs within everyday practices and social relations of identity and power severely constrain and shape the political participation and empowerment of EWRs Providing a valuable insight into contemporary state and feminist praxis in India this book will be of interest to scholars of grass roots democracy gender studies and Asian politics
