Emptiness Yoga The Middle Way Consequence School:

Emptiness Yoga Jeffrey Hopkins, 1987 Emptiness Yoga Jeffrey Hopkins, 1997 Emptiness Yoga is an absorbing and highly readable presentation of the highest development in Buddhist insight Professor Jeffrey Hopkins considered by many to be the foremost contemporary Western authority on Tibetan Buddhism presents an in depth lively exposition of the methods of realization of the Middle Way Consequence School Prasangika Madhyamika His personal and accessible presentation is based on a famous work by Jang gya Rol bay dorjay lchang skya rol pa i rdo rje 1717-86 which was used as a primary text in Tibet's largest monasteries A translation of this text is included as well as the Tibetan text itself The many reasonings used to analyze persons and phenomena and to establish their true mode of existence are presented in the context of meditative practice This exposition includes a masterful treatment of the compatibility in thought and experience of emptiness and dependent arising Emptiness Yoga will be greatly appreciated by both beginners and advanced students for its immediacy profundity and precision Unique Tenets of The Middle Way Consequence School Daniel Cozort, 1998-01-01 According to Tibetan traditions the Indian Buddhist Prasangika Madhyamika school is the one that represents the final true thought of the Buddha Unique Tenets of the Middle Way Consequence School presents and analyzes the issues that separate that school from the other principal schools of Buddhism issues such as the existence or non existence of an external world the way in which karma and reincarnation operate the nature of consciousness the nature of time and the status of Arhats enlightened but not omniscient beings Parts Two and Three of the book are annotated translations of Tibetan texts that are used as source books in monastic education Emptiness in the Mind-Only School of Buddhism Jeffrey Hopkins, 2003-03-15 This is a scholarly tour de force the likes of which are rarely seen in the academy Jos Ignacio Cabezon Illif School of Theology An exceptionally clear and detailed account of a central debate in Tibetan Buddhist scholastic philosophy Matthew Kapstein University of Chicago This is without question the finest and most complete discussion of the renowned Mind Only school and its Tibetan context Anne C Klein author of Knowledge Liberation Path to the Middle An important new contribution to our understanding of the development of Buddhist philosophical thought in Tibet Matthew T Kapstein author of The Tibetan Assimilation of Buddhism Conversion Contestation and Memory Reflections on Reality Jeffrey Hopkins, 2007 This is the second volume in Jeffrey Hopkins' valuable series on the Mind Only School of Buddhism and a focal description of it in Dzongka-ba's The Essence of Eloquence Dzongka-ba 1357-1419 is generally regarded as one of the greatest Tibetan philosophers and his Mind Only discourse on emptiness is considered a landmark in Buddhist philosophy In Volume I Emptiness in the Mind Only School of Buddhism Hopkins provided a translation of the introduction and the section on the Mind Only School in The Essence of Eloquence The present volume places this enigmatic and influential exposition in its historical and philosophical contexts Reflections on Reality conveys the intellectual vibrancy of the different cultural interpretations of this text and expands the key philosophical issues it addresses Hopkins one of the leading scholarly voices in Tibetan studies begins this volume with two introductory chapters contextualizing Tibetan scholarship in general. He then goes on to discuss in detail the religious significance of the central topic of the three natures in the Mind Only School. He also considers various views on the status of reality including the doctrine of other emptiness promulgated by the fourteenth century Jo nang savant Shay rap gyel tsen. Presenting accurate and insightful translations of a large amount of material that has never been available in English before, he shows how these topics have been debated among scholars in Tibet over six centuries. Comparing these with presentations in Europe, Japan, and the United States today, he created a lively conversation between normally disparate voices.

Psychotherapy without the Self Mark Epstein, 2008-10-01. Immersed in Buddhist psychology prior to studying Western psychiatry, Dr. Mark Epstein first viewed Western therapeutic approaches through the lens of the East. This posed something of a challenge. Although both systems promise liberation through self-awareness, the central tenet of Buddha's wisdom is the notion of no self, while the central focus of Western psychotherapy is the self. This book, which includes writings from the past twenty-five years, wrestles with the complex relationship between Buddhism and psychotherapy and offers nuanced reflections on therapy, meditation, and psychological and spiritual development. A best-selling author and popular speaker, Epstein has long been at the forefront of the effort to introduce Buddhist psychology to the West. His unique background enables him to serve as a bridge between the two traditions, which he has found to be more compatible than at first thought. Engaging with the teachings of the Buddha as well as those of Freud and Winnicott, he offers a compelling look at desire, anger, and insight and helps reinterpret the Buddha's Four Noble Truths and central concepts such as egolessness and emptiness in the psychoanalytic language of our time.

Beautiful Adornment of Mount Meru Changkya Rölpai Dorjé, Donald Lopez, 2019-12-17. The most lucid and penetrating survey of classical Indian philosophy in the Tibetan language, Beautiful Adornment of Mount Meru by Changkya Rölpa Dorjé (1717-86) is a work of doxography presenting the distinctive philosophical tenets of the Indian Buddhist and non-Buddhist schools in a systematic manner that ascends through increasingly more subtle views. It is a Tibetan corollary to contemporary histories of philosophy. The Mount Meru of the title is the Buddha's teachings, and Changkya's work excels in particular in its treatment of the two Mahayana Buddhist schools: the Yogacara here called the Vijñaptimātra and the Madhyamaka. Unlike Jamyang Shepa's (1648-1722) much longer Great Exposition of Tenets, which was one of the key sources and inspirations for Changkya, Beautiful Adornment is often praised for the clarity of its prose and its economical use of citations from Indian texts. At the same time, like Jamyang Shepa's work, Changkya's text is not simply a catalog of assertions; it skillfully examines core philosophical issues, including a number of intriguing ancillary discussions. Also like Jamyang Shepa's text, Changkya's is very much a Geluk work, drawing heavily on the works of Tsongkhapa and his disciples. The manageable size of Beautiful Adornment and, more importantly, its lucid literary style, made this work the classic source for the study of Indian thought used by students throughout the Tibetan cultural sphere. In contemporary academic circles, it has also been a central source for studying the Tibetan interpretation of the classical Indian philosophical systems

Absorption in No External World Jeffrey Hopkins, 2017-10-24 Dzong ka ba s The Essence of Eloquence is still considered so important to Tibetan Buddhists that the Dalai Lama keeps a copy with him wherever he goes This book examines many fascinating points raised in six centuries of Tibetan and Mongolian commentary concerning the first two sections of this text the Prologue and the section on the Mind Only School By providing vivid detail Jeffrey Hopkins reveals the liveliness of Tibetan scholastic controversies showing the dynamism of thoughtful commentary and stimulating the reader's metaphysical imagination In the process of examining 170 issues this volume treats many engaging points on Great Vehicle presentations of the three natures and the three non natures including how to apply these to all phenomena the selflessness of persons and the emptiness of emptiness It concludes with a delineation of the approaches through which the Mind Only School interprets scriptures This stand alone book is the final volume of a trilogy on Mind Only that Hopkins composed over a period of twenty two years His heavily annotated translation of the first two sections of Dzong ka ba s text is contained in the first volume Emptiness in the Mind Only School of Buddhism along with a historical and doctrinal introduction a detailed synopsis of the text and a critical edition The second volume Reflections on Reality The Three Natures and Non Natures in the Mind Only School provides historical and social context a basic presentation of the three natures the two types of emptiness in the Mind Only School and the contrasting views of Dol po ba Shay rap gyel tsen of the Jo nang ba order of Tibetan Buddhism

The Madman's Middle Way Donald S. Lopez Jr., 2008-09-15 Gendun Chopel is considered the most important Tibetan intellectual of the twentieth century His life spanned the two defining moments in modern Tibetan history the entry into Lhasa by British troops in 1904 and by Chinese troops in 1951 Recognized as an incarnate lama while he was a child Gendun Chopel excelled in the traditional monastic curriculum and went on to become expert in fields as diverse as philosophy history linguistics geography and tantric Buddhism Near the end of his life before he was persecuted and imprisoned by the government of the young Dalai Lama he would dictate the Adornment for Nagarjuna's Thought a work on Madhyamaka or Middle Way philosophy It sparked controversy immediately upon its publication and continues to do so today The Madman's Middle Way presents the first English translation of this major Tibetan Buddhist work accompanied by an essay on Gendun Chopel's life liberally interspersed with passages from his writings Donald S Lopez Jr also provides a commentary that sheds light on the doctrinal context of the Adornment and summarizes its key arguments Ultimately Lopez examines the long standing debate over whether Gendun Chopel in fact is the author of the Adornment the heated critical response to the work by Tibetan monks of the Dalai Lama's sect and what the Adornment tells us about Tibetan Buddhism's encounter with modernity The result is an insightful glimpse into a provocative and enigmatic work that will be of great interest to anyone seriously interested in Buddhism or Asian religions Emptiness Panacea Wim van den Dungen, 2017-06-16 This book is about emptiness the core of the Buddhayana the vehicle of the Buddha Shunyata is the noun form of the adjective shunya meaning void zero nothing and empty from the root shvi or hollow But emptiness does not mean nothing and instead refers to the absence of something to the fact an object has been negated What is found wanting A certain common way of existence entertained by most of us This book gives body to my intent to help understand emptiness clearly and distinctly so its salvic power may benefit as many as possible This is directly related to the fact that common Emptiness Meditation clears emotional and mental afflictions whereas seeing emptiness is a nondual state of mind fostering nondual perception thought and action These aspects of the awake mind lack substance obsession heal the obscurations and end the conflicts resulting from a lack of actions uprooting suffering Svatantrika-Prasangika Distinction Georges B.J.
