The Reagan Administration Helga Haftendorn,Jakob Schissler,2019-08-01 To celebrate the 270th anniversary of the De Gruyter publishing house the company is providing permanent open access to 270 selected treasures from the De Gruyter Book Archive Titles will be made available to anyone anywhere at any time that might be interested The DGBA project seeks to digitize the entire backlist of titles published since 1749 to ensure that future generations have digital access to the high quality primary sources that De Gruyter has published over the centuries

Cardinal Choices ,2000-09 This book is a history of the complex relations between scientific advisors primarily physicists and U S presidents in their role as decision makers about nuclear weapons and military strategy The story unsurprisingly is one of considerable tension between the experts and the politicians as scientists seek to influence policy and presidents alternate between accepting their advice and resisting or even ignoring it First published in 1992 the book has been brought up to date to include the experiences of science advisors to President Clinton In addition the texts of eleven crucial documents from the Einstein Szilard letter to President Roosevelt 1939 to the announcement of the Strategic Defense Initiative by President Reagan 1983 have been added as appendixes

Strategic Defences in the 1990's Ivo H. Daalder,1991-06-18 Examines the value of deploying strategic missile defences to counter the threat of nuclear accidents It concludes that the deployment of strategic defences in the 1990s will not be strategically desirable technically feasible or economically affordable

American Foreign Relations since Independence Richard Dean Burns,Joseph M. Siracusa,Jason C. Flanagan,2013-03-21 This book provides a succinct and accessible interpretation of the major event and ideas that have shaped U S foreign relations since the American Revolution historical factors that now affect our current debates and commitments in the Middle East as well as Europe and Asia American Foreign Relations since Independence explores the relationship of American policies to national interest and the limits of the nation s power reinterpreting the nature and history of American foreign relations The book brings together the collective knowledge of three generations of diplomatic historians to create a readily accessible introduction to the subject The authors explicitly challenge and reject the perennial debates about isolationism versus internationalism instead asserting that American foreign relations have been characterized by the permanent tension inherent in America s desire to engage with the world and its equally powerful determination to avoid entanglement in the world s troubles This work is ideally suited as a resource for students of politics international affairs and history and it will provide compelling insights for informed general readers

Broad and Narrow Interpretations of Philosophy of Technology P.T. Durbin,2012-12-06 BACKGROUND DEPARTMENTS SPECIALIZATION AND PROFESSIONALIZATION IN AMERICAN HIGHER EDUCATION For over half of its history U S higher education turned out mostly cler gymen and lawyers Looking back on that period we might be tempted to think that this meant specialized training for the ministry or the practice of law That however was not the case What a college education in the U S prepared young men almost exclusively for from the founding of Harvard College in 1636 through the founding of hundreds of denominational colleges in the first two thirds of the nineteenth century was leadership in the community Professionalization and specialization only began to take root and then became the dominant mode in U S higher education in the period roughly from 1860 1920 In subsequent decades that seemed to many critics to signal the end of what might be called education in wisdom the preparation of leaders for a broad range of responsibilities Professionalization specialization and departmentalization of higher education in the U S began in the last quarter of the nineteenth century Military Technology, Armaments Dynamics and Disarmament Hans Gunter Brauch,1989-01-13 Benevolent Conspiracies Helmut Willke,Carsten P.
