Egypt Places In The News:

Egypt and the Contradictions of Liberalism Dalia F. Fahmy, Daanish Faruqi, 2017-01-05 The liberatory sentiment that stoked the Arab Spring and saw the ousting of long time Egyptian dictator Hosni Mubarak seems a distant memory Democratically elected president Mohammad Morsi lasted only a year before he was forced from power to be replaced by precisely the kind of authoritarianism protestors had been railing against in January 2011 Paradoxically this turn of events was encouraged by the same liberal activists and intelligentsia who d pushed for progressive reform under Mubarak This volume analyses how such a key contingent of Egyptian liberals came to develop outright illiberal tendencies Interdisciplinary in scope it brings together experts in Middle East studies political science philosophy Islamic studies and law to address the failure of Egyptian liberalism in a holistic manner from liberalism s relationship with the state to its role in cultivating civil society to the role of Islam and secularism in the cultivation of liberalism A work of impeccable scholarly rigour Egypt and the Contradictions of Liberalism reveals the contemporary ramifications of the state of liberalism in Egypt traditional international providers such as the BBC or France 24 This book employs a global perspective to explore the subject across the whole population and different media platforms in select developing markets of Africa and South Asia It is unique in providing a theoretical framework by which to analyze demand and usage of and trust in news from international broadcasters across the whole population not just opinion leaders It outlines the strategic options for international broadcasters in these evolving market contexts Railway News, Finance and Joint-stock Companies' Journal ,1918
