Jon M. Sutterfield USAF, 2015-11-06 Eighth Air Force 8AF conducted the US s first thousand bomber raids against Germany in February 1944 recorded in history as Big Week Until that time the USAAF was not able to concentrate such firepower on the enemy in such a short period of time It took much effort to make Big Week big covering the spectrum of planning and execution activities dating back to the end of World War I that were adapted and flexed to be successful in a different context Indeed the depth and breadth of the preparations required to successfully execute Big Week on the scale intended is deserving of a closer examination Leadership from President Roosevelt to first line supervisors influenced 8AF logistics before February 1944 Major General Hugh J Knerr was the one man that stood out as the champion of USAAF logistics He influenced the concept of logistical operations in the ETO and more specifically put logistics on a level of importance equal to that of operations within the United States Strategic Air Forces USSTAF He synchronized logistics with operations and strove for constant improvement by making organizational and process changes aimed at increasing logistical responsiveness effectiveness and efficiency The British provided tremendous host nation support including construction of new airfields skilled and unskilled labor support supply items and transportation The British host nation support 8AF received far surpassed what a cursory review of World War II history leads one to believe and serves as a model for US led coalition operations in the 21st century The US Merchant Marine and US Navy provided sealift of goods from the stateside depots to the theater The US Army provided supply support of common items and Air Service Command ASC provided technical and supply support Last but not least both civil servants and civilian contractors provided depot maintenance and in theater technical support LeMay: A Biography Barrett Tillman, 2015-10-13 A close look at the controversial command and strategies of the Air Force Chief of Staff Curtis LeMay a terrifying complex and brilliant general In World War II LeMay ordered the firebombing of Tokyo and was in charge when Atomic bombs were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki He was responsible for tens of thousands of civilian deaths a fact he liked to celebrate by smoking Cuban cigars But LeMay was also the man who single handedly transformed the American air force from a ramshackle team of poorly trained and badly equipped pilots into one of the fiercest and most efficient weapons of the war Over the last decades most U S military missions were carried out entirely through the employment of the Air Force this is part of LeMay's complicated legacy Packed with breathtaking battles in the air and inspiring leadership tactics on the ground LeMay will keep readers on their edge of their seats An Emotional Gauntlet Stuart J. Wright, 2008-03-21 Stuart J Wright tells the gripping story of a World War II American aircrew of the 453rd Bomb Group serving under Operations Officer Major James Stewart the Hollywood movie star and flying missions from England in a B 24 Liberator bomber nicknamed Corky In recounting the harrowing conditions and horrors of bombing missions over Europe An Emotional Gauntlet emphasizes the relationships among the crew and the spirit these men shared In this true account based on years of research and correspondence with crewmembers and their families Wright adds a dimension rarely explored in other World War II narratives beginning the chronicle during peacetime and introducing the crewmen as civilians kids during the 1920s An Emotional Gauntlet follows the men as they mature through the years of the Great Depression to face a world at war and begin to raise questions about just and unjust wars imperialism and patriotism The Flying Greek Col. Steve N. Pisanos, USAF (Ret.), 2008-04-30 Steve N Pisanos s The
