Raber, 2014-03-01 Do you have a right NOT to have children Do we have a right NOT to be born Choosing to remain child free or childless is something that sparks various reactions but not everyone has actually given it deep thought The names and viewpoints discussed in this book may spur some thinking among those considering becoming parents feminists ecologists the religious right and the child free community The Internet is full of lists of people who are reported as not having had children some of these lists contain errors Here the author has added dates and places of birth and death to aid in verification Also while most lists focus on contemporary celebrities in this book the author presents an original list painstakingly compiled over these past years it is not a copy of anyone else s list of names and contains mostly historic individuals illustrating how many of our cultural and scientific landmarks are the gifts childless people have bequeathed to humanity

American Impressionism and Realism ,1998 49 American impressionist and realist paintings and works on paper from the Margaret and Raymond Horowitz collection were presented including works by William Merritt Chase Childe Hassam George Bellows Maurice Prendergast and William Glackens This was the first time the collection had been on exhibition since it was shown at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in 1973

Tales from the Easel ,2004 Tales from the Easel features seventy full color reproductions that convey the expressive allusive powers of narrative painting Though they range widely in subject and setting all of the paintings gathered here are rendered in a representational or realistic style Carrying moral social or patriotic messages the paintings are meant to teach enlighten or inspire Then again the paintings can also tweak the very conventions that define them with results that range from the delightfully idiosyncratic to the visionary Thomas Hart Benton Winslow Homer Andrew Wyeth and Jacob Lawrence are just some of the household names whose work appears in Tales from the Easel Others like Elihu Vedder and Lilly Martin Spencer are less well known but still vital to the development of narrative painting While some of the artists including George Caleb Bingham and Paul Cadmus were classically trained self taught painters such as Carlos Shoney Moon and Thomas Waterman Wood are also represented American rivers cities and battlefields are among the native surroundings shown in many of the paintings However artists also looked elsewhere for settings to Europe the Holy Land or even some imagined realm Charles

C Eldredge's essay discusses the rich and varied sources of American narrative painting from literature and history to childhood and domestic life and an essay by William Underwood Eiland provides a discussion of the southern tale telling tradition Artist biographies by Reed Anderson and Stephanie J Fox appear opposite the paintings adding further context Tales from the Easel a companion volume to the national touring exhibit of the same name is a stunning reminder of a tradition in American painting that has endured across two centuries and numerous art movements
