Edwin Lutyens His Life His Wife His Work:

Edwin Lutyens Jane Ridley, 2003 The work of Edwin Lutyens 1869 1944 includes the Cenotaph in Whitehall much of Imperial New Delhi and especially his masterpiece Viceroy's House now Rashtrapati Bhavan Queen Mary's Dolls House and Hampstead Garden Suburb But his greatest heritage is the traditional Edwardian country house an architectural style he made his own using local materials and often working with Gertrude Jekyll who planted the gardens for his family homes This is a full biography of a witty complex personality a man who had little formal education who loved jokes and hated growing up It is also a portrait of an extraordinary marriage His wife Emily fell in love with Krishnamurti 21 years her junior and believed to be the reincarnation of a god and she thereafter spent her time and her husband's money promoting Theosophy a Hindu inspired cult Lutyens's failure to find a common language with Emily possibly drove him to achieve the remarkable communication through the language of architecture which characterises his best work Sir Herbert Baker John

Stewart, 2025-02-18 Architect Sir Herbert Baker left an indelible mark on South Africa and much of the British Empire in the first half of the 20th century This is the first full biography from childhood and was written with full cooperation from his family and with access to his archive and private papers After a Victorian architectural apprenticeship in London Sir Herbert Baker went on to become the most prolific architect of his age in South Africa where he designed numerous public buildings churches schools and private houses including the Union Buildings St George's Cathedral and Groote Schuur Thereafter he worked in India Kenya and England where among many other projects he designed South Africa House He was an intimate friend of many fascinating men of his age including Cecil Rhodes T E Lawrence John Buchan and Jan Smuts Lavishly illustrated this biography offers a compelling picture of an architect whose buildings contribute greatly to South Africa's rich history The Country House Revealed Dan Cruickshank, 2012-07-31

Spanning the architectural history of the country house from the disarming Elizabethan charm of South Wraxall the classical rigour of Kinross in Scotland the majesty and ingenuity of Hawksmoor's Easton Neston the Palladian sweep of Wentworth Woodhouse with over 300 rooms and frontage of 600 feet the imperial exuberance of Clandeboye through to the ebullient vitality of Lutyens' Marshcourt the stories of these houses tell the story of our nation All are the buildings of the greatest architectural interest each with a fascinating human story to tell and all remain private homes that are closed to the public But their owners have opened their doors and allowed Dan Cruickshank to roam the corridors and rummage in the cellars as he teases out the story of each house who built them the generations who lived in them and the families who lost them Along the way he has uncovered tales of excess and profligacy tragedy comedy power and ambition And as these intriguing narratives take shape Dan shows how the story of each house is inseparable from the social and economic history of Britain Each one is built as a wave of economic development crests or crumbles Each one's architecture and design is thus expressive of the aims strengths and frailties of those who built them Together they plot the psychological economic and social route map of our country's ruling class in a rich new telling of our island story Cemeteries of the Great War by Sir Edwin Lutyens Jeroen Geurst, Sir Edwin Landseer Lutyens, 2010 The British architect Sir Edwin Lutyens 1869 1944 designed 140 cemeteries in the countryside of Flanders and northern France for soldiers killed in the First World War The cemeteries can be regarded as an imprint of the former battlefield on the map of Europe All are designed according to principles established beforehand based on the idea of a cathedral church or chapel in the open air and include uniform gravestones a War Stone and a Cross of Sacrifice Yet the difference in size alignment and provenance make them all unique variations on the themes in question The most memorable aspects are their meticulously chosen position in the landscape the varied selection of trees and other greenery and the architecture of the entrance and shelter buildings In an exhaustive landscape architectural analysis this opulently illustrated book charts the history of the designs and reveals the underlying principle of order and variation in the architecture All 140 cemeteries are fully documented with references to the places where they are to be found P 4 of cover The Nirvana

Lady Constance Lytton Lyndsey Jenkins, 2015-03-12 Lady Constance Lytton 1869 1923 was the most unlikely of suffragettes One of the elite she was the daughter of a Viceroy of India and a lady in waiting to the Queen She grew up in the family home of Knebworth and in embassies around the world For forty years she did nothing but devote herself to her family denying herself the love of her life and possible careers as a musician or a reviewer Then came a chance encounter with a suffragette Constance was intrigued witnessing Emmeline and Christabel Pankhurst on trial convinced her of the urgent necessity of votes for women and she went to prison for the cause as gleefully as any child going on a school trip But once jailed Constance soon found that her name and her connections singled her out for unwelcome special treatment By now 1909 the suffragettes were hunger striking and the government had retaliated with force feeding The stories that began to leak out of bungled operations of dirty tubes of screams half heard through brick walls of straitjackets and handcuffs

outraged the suffragettes Constance decided on her most radical step yet to go to prison in disguise Taking the name Jane Warton she cut her hair put on glasses and ugly clothes and got herself arrested in Liverpool Once in prison she was force fed eight times before her identity was discovered and she was released Her case became a cause c l bre with debate raging in The Times and questions being asked in the House of Commons Lady Constance Lytton became an inspiration and in the end a martyr In this extraordinary new biography Lyndsey Jenkins reveals for the first time the fascinating story of the woman who abandoned a life of privilege to fight for women s rights "Memory, Masculinity and National Identity in British Visual Culture, 1914-1930 " Gabriel Koureas, 2017-07-05 With its specific focus on British representations of masculinity in relation to the trauma of the First World War and notions of national identity class and sexuality this book provides a much needed addition to the historiography of visual culture during the period The study interrogates the complications arising out of issues of trauma cultural expressions of sexuality and affect as well as the ways in which these are encoded in diverse forms in visual culture and commemorative objects Concentrating on masculinity and cultural memory it investigates the ways in which these and the web of power relations that they entail worked during the interwar years in order to reconstruct the post First World War British society In the course of the narrative the author looks at Bolshevism and the Returning Ex Servicemen the 1919 NUR Strike the Central Labour College in conjunction with banners and revolution as well as the Imperial War Graves the Cenotaph the London and North Western Railway memorial the Machine Gun Corps Memorial and the establishment of the Imperial War Museum He also excavates new archival material particularly case studies of shell shock sufferers and film footage of male hysteria The Edifice Complex Deyan Sudjic, 2006-11-28 A provocative look at architecture exceptionally intelligent and original Jonathan Yardley The Washington Post Book World Deyan Sudjic probably the most influential figure in architecture you ve never heard of argues that architecture far from being auteur art must be understood as a naked expression of power From the grandiose projects of Stalin and Hitler to the theme park excess of today s presidential libraries Sudjic goes behind the scenes of history s great manipulators of building propaganda and exposes Rem Koolhaas Frank Gehry and other architects in a disturbing new light This controversial book is essential reading for all those interested in the power of architecture or the architecture of power A Washington Post Book World Best Book of the Year INTERPRETING GEOMETRIES PUBLICATIONS DIVISION, This book has been conceived with the objective of providing a new insight into the floor designs of Rashtrapati Bhavan It will help the readers appreciate the thoughts and ideas of the famous designers who enriched the aesthetics of this building They will also gain a new perspective on geometry as an inherent part of the art and architecture RIBA Journal , 2002 The Architect and His Wife Jane Ridley, 2002 This is a full biography of a witty complex personality a man who had little formal education who loved jokes and hated growing up It is also a portrait of an extraordinary marriage His wife Emily fell in love with Krishnamurti 21 years her junior and believed to be the reincarnation of a god and she thereafter spent her time and her husband's money promoting Theosophy a Hindu inspired cult Lutyens's failure to find a common language with Emily possibly drove him to achieve the remarkable communication through the language of architecture which characterises his best work

BOOK JACKET     Shakespeare's Afterlife in the Royal Collection Sally Barnden, Gordon McMullan, Kate Retford, Kirsten Tambling, 2025-01-31 This unique collection of essays and images explores a series of objects in the Royal Collection as a means of assessing the interrelated histories of the British royal family and the Shakespearean afterlife across four centuries Between the beginning of the eighteenth century and the late twentieth Shakespeare became entrenched as the English national poet Over the same period the monarchy sought repeatedly to demonstrate its centrality to British nationhood By way of close analysis of a selection of objects from the Royal Collection this volume argues that the royal family and the Shakespearean afterlife were far more closely interwoven than has previously been realized The chapters map the mutual development over time of the relationship between members of the British royal family and Shakespeare demonstrating the extent to which each has gained sustained value from association with the other and showing how members of the royal family have individually and collectively constructed their identities and performed their roles by way of Shakespearean models Each chapter is inspired by an object in or formerly in the Royal Collection and explores two interconnected questions what has Shakespeare done for the royal family and what has the royal family done for Shakespeare The chapters range across the fields of art theatre history literary criticism literary history court studies and cultural history showing how the shared history of Shakespeare and the royal family has been cultivated across media and across disciplines

The Countryside at War 1914-1918 Caroline Dakers, 2013-09-19 When war broke out in 1914 conscription seemed unnecessary there was no shortage of volunteers ready to lay down their lives for their country In this fascinating book illustrated with contemporary drawings and photographs Caroline Dakers explores exactly what their country meant to the men and women who fought died survived She suggests that with a little subliminal help from literature art and propaganda the British volunteer whether factory worker farm hand or public school boy felt that he was fighting for old England village church meadow and carthorse rather than city factory commerce and motor car Drawing on a wide range of unpublished papers and family archives Dr Dakers recreates the world of the countryside at war There are chapters on agriculture literally the home front and life and death in the manor house vicarage school and farm And while all this was being fought for The French countryside was smashed into a quagmire This is the most complete picture yet of the impact of the First World War on rural England a war which if only in the ubiquitous village war memorials still reverberates across the decades

Kakissis, 2023-07-12 Byzantium was a very influential part of the development of the Arts and Crafts Movement 1880 1910 in Britain and although the influence of the Gothic Revival 1830 80 is well known that of the Byzantine Revival 1840 1910 is not This volume is about the people and the movements that created the Byzantine Revival and shows how they influenced British heritage from architecture to the decorative arts during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The central pillars of the volume are the architects and scholars who created the Byzantine Research Fund BRF Archive a unique collection of architectural drawings and photographs of numerous monuments across the Byzantine world and the social and professional networks in which they circulated The BRF members an eclectic and little known group who based themselves at the newly founded British School at Athens established the research of Byzantium in Britain and Greece They were trained in the traditions of the Arts and Crafts Movement which sought authenticity in design and decoration in reaction to the styles that had developed through industrialisation Their work uniting a distinctively British design tradition with Byzantine arts and crafts represents a highly significant and under researched link between Britain and the Hellenic world This volume is the first contribution to try to fill this knowledge gap Byzantium and British Heritage will appeal to all those interested in the relation between Byzantine and British culture and Byzantine art

The Power and the Glory Adrian Tinniswood, 2024-11-12 A spirited history of the English country house in its golden age For generations the great palaces of Britain were home to living histories noble families that had reigned for centuries But by the end of the nineteenth century members of elite society found themselves for the first time in the company of arrivistes Their new neighbors from chorus girls to millionaire greengrocers to guano impresarios lacked lineage and were unencumbered by the weight of tradition In The Power and the Glory historian Adrian Tinniswood reconstructs life in the country house during its golden age before the Great War when Britain ruled over a quarter of the earth's population and its stately homes were at their most opulent. But change was on the horizon: the landed classes were being forced to grapple not only with new neighbors but also with new social norms and expectations. An exuberant story, The Power and the Glory offers a delicious, captivating and often scandalous history of the British country house.
