Egyptian Archaeology, 2004 Sex and Gender in Ancient Egypt Carolyn Graves-Brown, 2008-12-31 This volume offers new research on an essential but often controversial aspect of life in Dynastic Egypt Its originality lies in combining research which uses Egyptology's traditional strengths philological and iconographic with reflections on material culture and on the discipline of Egyptology itself The authors are internationally recognized authorities in their fields The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Childhood Sally Crawford, Dawn Hadley, Gillian Shepherd, 2018-05-10 Real understanding of past societies is not possible without including children and yet they have been strangely invisible in the archaeological record Compelling explanation about past societies cannot be achieved without including and investigating children and childhood However marginal the traces of children's bodies and bricolage may seem compared to adults archaeological evidence of children and childhood can be found in the most astonishing places and spaces The archaeology of childhood is one of the most exciting and challenging areas for new discovery about past societies Children are part of every human society but childhood is a cultural construct Each society develops its own idea about what a childhood should be what children can or should do and how they are trained to take their place in the world Children also play a part in creating the archaeological record itself In this volume experts from around the world ask questions about childhood thresholds of age and growth childhood in the material culture the death of children and the intersection of the childhood and the social economic religious and political worlds of societies in the past Archaeology Brian M. Fagan, 2016 Remembering the "Nubia Campaign", 2024-12-23 The surviving protagonists of the International Campaign to Save the Monuments of Nubia one of the most important enterprises in the field of cultural heritage met many years later at the Nubia Museum of Aswan to celebrate its 50th Anniversary It was March 2009 They recounted their personal experience in Nubia highlighting the success of the technical work carried out but without ever forgetting what has been irremediably lost in this conflict between culture and human development The Campaign transformed the Nubia region not only in a international chantier of new and challenging scientific experiences but also in a theatre of unforgettable human relationships Dynamics reflections evaluations mixed with scientific data make this volume an educational manual in the field of cultural heritage at all levels enriched by descriptions of natural panoramas no longer visible to our eyes geological observations insights on local flora and fauna Words and images offer a vision of not only what is part of the collective memory of major events almost always scientific academic but also popular memories of ordinary individuals of which history is also made Empire of Ancient Egypt Wendy Christensen,2009 Presents a clear detailed picture of the life and history of the ancient Egyptians Explains why religion played such an important part in Egyptian politics who stood atop the Egyptian social pyramid what games Egyptian children played and why Egypt eventually succumbed to the Roman Empire as well as its connections to the modern world

Archaeologists Brian Fagan,2003-04-10 Including eccentric professors and adventuring fortune hunters of old and highly trained scientists of today Archaeologists collects together biographies of more than 30 archaeologists of the past two centuries In the process Archaeologists presents an engaging portrait of how digging for treasure evolved into the respected and vital science we know today Some of the archaeologists profiled include Giovanni Belzoni the 19th century archaeologist who brought the head of Ramesses II back to England Heinrich Schliemann the modern discoverer of prehistoric Greece whose excavations included Mycenae and the ancient city of Troy Howard Carter who discovered King Tut s tomb Mary and Louis Leakey whose discovery of humanoid fossils placed human evolution s beginning in Africa From the romance of golden pharaohs and lost civilizations to computers tree ring dating and numerous other scientific methods Archaeologists is a fascinating look at the explorers of the human past The Shadow King Jo Marchant,2013-06-04 More than 3 000 years ago King Tutankhamun s desiccated body was lovingly wrapped and sent into the future as an immortal god After resting undisturbed for more than three millennia King Tut s mummy was suddenly awakened in 1922 Archaeologist Howard Carter had discovered the boy king s tomb and the soon to be famous mummy s story even more dramatic than King Tut s life began The mummy s afterlife is a modern story not an ancient one Award winning science writer Jo Marchant traces the mummy s story from its first brutal autopsy in 1925 to the most recent arguments over its DNA From the glamorous treasure hunts of the 1920s to today s high tech scans in volatile modern Egypt Marchant introduces us to the brilliant and sometimes flawed people who have devoted their lives to revealing the mummy s secrets unravels the truth behind the hyped up TV documentaries and explains what science can and can t tell us about King Tutankhamun
