BIBLIOGRAPHY 1973 Jozef M. A. Janssen, Histories of the Hidden God April D DeConick, Grant Adamson, 2016-04-08 In Western religious traditions God is conventionally conceived as a humanlike creator lawgiver and king a being both accessible and actively present in history Yet there is a concurrent and strong tradition of a God who actively hides The two traditions have led to a tension between a God who is simultaneously accessible to humanity and yet inaccessible a God who is both immanent and transcendent present and absent Western Gnostic esoteric and mystical thinking capitalizes on the hidden and hiding God He becomes the hallmark of the mystics Gnostics sages and artists who attempt to make accessible to humans the God who is secreted away Histories of the Hidden God explores this tradition from antiquity to today The essays focus on three essential themes the concealment of the hidden God the human quest for the hidden God and revelations of the hidden God Cult and Ritual in Persian Period Egypt Fatma Talaat Ismail, 2019-10-15 Ancient Egyptian temple walls expressed royal and political ideologies reflected the ancient Egyptian secular and spiritual world order supplied a medium for the reenactments of assorted myths and implied a metaphor for the universe The Temple of Hibis is one of the most important temples from Late Period Egypt Despite the conventional overall architecture plan of the temple it exhibits numerous particularities While the more prominent parts of the temple such as the sanctuary have been studied by numerous scholars in other areas the decoration schemes remain largely unexplained This book focuses on the decorative schemes of several chapels in the earlier part of the temple chapels that were either established and or were decorated during the first Persian Period 525 404 BCE These chapels were located around the main sanctuary A but have rarely been the subject of scholarly discussions It concentrates on a few chapels of the Temple of Hibis chapels F and G to the south of sanctuary A on the first level of the temple and all the decorated chapels E1 E2 H1 and H2 on the second level of the temple Each chapter begins with a brief description of the scenes and their basic layout and a complete translation of the accompanying texts A more in depth analysis regarding both text and image follows in the commentary It includes the analysis of the different aspects of the gods their origins and the development of their cults that are significant to the scenes and to each other Also discussed are their coherence any aspects that are especially emphasized and any other information that could be gleaned from the whole scene The analysis tries to detail the specific composition that makes up the mosaic of the picture wall or room Attention is paid to both the scenic arrangement and the hieroglyphic inscriptions as the interpretation of one would be meaningless without the other Attention is given to investigating the general function of the different rooms by means of their decoration and by identifying the patterns or important themes generated by the layout of the scenes The results are summarized in the last chapter A number of line drawings have been inserted into the text beside a described scene as an aid to the reader The Cult of the Seer in the Ancient Middle East Violet MacDermot, 1971-01-01 The Oxford
