Egyptian Wall Paintings The Metropolitan Museum Of Arts Collection Of Facsimiles:

bind people together or opposes them It is a communicative tool that gives crucial information for understanding the dance as well as the culture and the sociological effects of a group of people As such dress transcends how it is seen visually to address what is being communicated Nonetheless studies in ancient dance have rarely taken clothing into consideration Therefore this publication gathers articles that give new perspectives and insights on ancient dances and their ancient textiles Comprehension of ancient dance benefits from investigations undertaken through the lens of dress And research on ancient dress is understood through its relation to body movement and performative rituals thus reinforcing the progressive integration of an anthropological and sociological dimension into historical analysis of ancient textiles For the first time the two way transfer of knowledge between dance studies and costume studies is connected via an innovative approach Among the issues that are specifically addressed are the movement design of dress for dance its sensory experience gender and identity reenactment and reception The chronological range of the publication is limited to the ancient world 3rd millennium BC to 5th century AD and the geographical definition is meant to be broad in order to promote a comparative approach and cross cultural dialogue as well as discourse between fields and disciplines

The Image of God in the Garden of Eden
Catherine L. McDowell, 2015-09-09 Catherine McDowell presents a detailed and insightful analysis of the creation of adam in Gen 2 5 3 24 in light of the Mesopotamian m s p p t p washing of the mouth opening of the mouth and the Egyptian wpt r opening of the mouth rituals for the creation of a divine image Parallels between the mouth washing and opening rituals and the Eden story suggest that the biblical author was comparing and contrasting human creation with the ritual creation animation and installation of a cult statue in order to redefine elem eloh m as a human being the living likeness of God tending and serving in the sacred garden McDowell also considers the explicit image and likeness language in Gen 1 26 27 Drawing from biblical and extrabiblical texts she demonstrates that elem and dem t define the divine human relationship first and foremost in terms of kinship To be created in the image and likeness of Elohim was to be metaphorically speaking God s royal sons and daughters While these royal qualities are explicit in Gen 1 McDowell persuasively argues that kinship is the primary metaphor Gen 1 uses to define humanity and its relationship to God Further she discusses critical issues noting the problems inherent in the traditional views on the dating and authorship of Gen 1 3 and the relationship between the two creation accounts Through a careful study of the t led t in Genesis she demonstrates that Gen 2 4 serves as both a hinge and a telescope the creation of humanity in Gen 2 5 3 24 should be understood as a detailed account of the events of Day 6 in Gen 1 When Gen 1 3 are read together as the final redactor intended these texts redefine the divine human relationship using three significant and theologically laden categories kinship kingship and cult Thus they provide an important lens through which to view the relationship between God and humanity as presented in the rest of the Bible
