Segundo Coloquio Anglogermano Hamburgo 1970    The Solo Song Settings of Eichendorff's Poems by Schumann and Wolf Jürgen Thym, 1974    The German Volksbuch Albrecht Classen, 1995 This study explains how the Volksbuch developed from the medieval courtly romance under the influence of complex sociological economic technological and cultural factors during the 15th century and became an art form in its own right. The new genre was characterized by a wide range of styles from the earthy plot and language of Till Eulenspiegel to the formal style and moralistic didacticism of the Magelone. The study goes on to examine the history of the genre's critical evaluation from the Romantic period to the present providing a close up survey of the history of German literary scholarship. It also discusses four major representatives of the genre Thuring von Ringoltingen's Melusine the anonymous Fortunatus Till Eulenspiegel and Historia von D Johann Fausten. This book should interest not only students and scholars of German but also those interested in the social historical and mental transition of Germany from the late Middle Ages to the modern age    Literature, Music, Fine Arts, 1972    Schriften der Theodor-Storm-Gesellschaft Theodor-Storm-Gesellschaft, 1992    The Romantic Movement, 1972
