Handbook On Probation Services Guidelines:

Handbook on Probation Services Jon F. Klaus, 1998 Intended to serve as an instrument to guide and facilitate the comprehension and implementation of the Tokyo Rules the United Nations standard minimum rules for non custodial measures not only in countries where probation already exists but also in countries interested in such a system

Guidelines Manual United States Sentencing Commission, 2002 Guideline Manual United States. Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, 1977 Essentials of Community Corrections Robert D. Hanser, 2018-01-03 Essentials of Community Corrections offers you a concise and practical perspective on community corrections while emphasizing successful offender reentry through strong community partnerships Author Robert D Hanser draws on his expertise with offender treatment planning special needs populations and the comparative criminal justice fields to present you with a complete introduction to community corrections today A variety of practical pedagogical tools offer you insights into the daily lives of those working in the field and encourage you to start thinking like practitioners Key Features What Would You Do assignments give you the chance to apply what they have learned by analyzing real world scenarios to determine the best course of action for common challenges in community supervision Applied Theory inserts throughout the book provide you with a focused application of a specific theory to particular issues in community corrections Cross National Perspective boxes demonstrate common themes in community corrections around the world as well as different approaches used in other countries Applied Exercises encourage you to reflect on your understanding of each chapter's content and to demonstrate your competence in using the information techniques and processes that you have learned Food for Thought features at the end of each chapter guide you through a recent research study related to community corrections and include follow up questions to help you think critically Information Sources in the Social Sciences David Fisher, Sandra Price, Terry Hanstock, 2018-02-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in the Social Sciences Working with Offenders Robert Douglas White, Hannah Graham, 2010 This book provides a theoretically informed guide to the practice of working with offenders in different settings and for different purposes It deals with topics such as offender rehabilitation case management worker offender relationships working with difficult clients and situations collaboration addressing complex needs and processes of integration The book offers a unique perspective on working with offenders in that it incorporates three key elements As part of the latter it provides different types of data including descriptions of programs and selected statistics from each jurisdiction and presents this information in easy to read formats The chapters are structured around a dual focus of workers and their environments on the one hand and the nature of the offenders with whom they work on the other The condition and situation of workers is thus considered in the context of the condition and situation of offenders and the relationship between the two The book is intended to be relevant and familiar to those already working in the field as well as to introduce contemporary principles and practices to those wishing to do so in the future

Each chapter concludes with two key features The first Further Reading is oriented toward concepts and the why questions of practice The second Key Resources alerts readers to appropriate manuals and handbooks and the how questions of practice This includes reference to evidence based examples of good practice and specific intervention models United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual 2013 United States Sentencing Commission,2014-03-13 This book contains the official guidelines of the federal criminal sentencing policies established by the United States Sentencing Commission The Federal Sentencing Guidelines are rules that set out a uniform sentencing policy for individuals and organizations convicted of felonies and serious Class A misdemeanors in the United States federal courts system The Guidelines do not apply to less serious misdemeanors Guidelines Manual ,2001 U. S. Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual Ricardo H. Hinojosa,2008-05 Establishes sentencing policies Offense Conduct Adjustments Criminal History Determining the Sentence Sentencing Procedures Plea Agreements Violations of Probation Sentencing of Organizations Statutory Index Selected Sentencing Statutes Rules and Procedures Manual, July 24, 1989 United States Parole Commission,1989 An Introduction to Penology: Punishment, Prisons and Probation Lawrence Burke,Dr Helena Gosling,2022-11-23 An Introduction to Penology is a concise informative scholarly guide that will speak to a variety of audiences interested in how the notion of punishment plays out in community and custodial settings with people who have broken the law With a particular focus on prisons and probation the book provides an opportunity for readers to critically engage with the concept of punishment in theory and practice and consider different ways in which we as a society can respond to lawbreaking The text will allow students to pursue a more in depth study of two of the main criminal justice institutions through the lens of their organisational structures cultures service delivery and responses to the needs of minority and vulnerable groups Throughout the text students will be encouraged to critically engage with longstanding penological debates taking into consideration the theory policy and practice of punishment and will explore ways in which we can rethink penology on an individual and social level and begin to make a case for social justice rather than criminal justice This innovative and contemporary text is a must read for students studying criminology criminal justice penology and those interested in pursuing a career in either the prison or probation services Lol Burke is Professor in Criminal Justice and Dr Helena Gosling is a Senior Lecturer in Criminal Justice at Liverpool John Moores University United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual ,2000 Document Retrieval Index ,1972 U.S. Parole Commission Rules & Procedures Manual United States Parole Commission,1997 Manual for Probation Officers in New York State ,1913 Report and manual for probation officers of the Superior Court acting as Juvenile court, Los Angeles County, California, 1912 California. Superior Court (Los Angeles County),1912 Trial Court Performance Standards and Measurement System Implementation Manual ,1997 Manual for Probation Officers in New York State New York (State). Probation Commission,1913 Manual for Probation Officers in New York State New York (State). State

Probation Commission,1918 Community Corrections Robert D. Hanser,2009-02-19 Aimed at undergraduate courses in criminal justice that offer modules in community corrections probation and parol this text covers the necessary topics in community corrections but with a more practical approach than other texts Subjects covered include the history of probation and parole arguments for and against the treatment of offenders the point and purpose of community corrections and jail facilities and detention centers The book offers a unique perspective given the author s expertise with both special needs populations and in the comparative fields It is supported by an online study site and instructor s resource materials
