Marsh,2023-03-28 Creating Digital Exhibits for Cultural Institutions will show you how to create digital exhibits and experiences for your users that will be informative accessible and engaging Illustrated with real world examples of digital exhibits from a range of GLAMs the book addresses the many analytical aspects and practical considerations involved in the creation of such exhibits It will support you as you go about analyzing content to find hidden themes applying principles from the museum exhibit literature placing your content within internal and external information ecosystems selecting exhibit software and finding ways to recognize and use your own creativity Demonstrating that an exhibit provides a useful and creative connecting point where your content your organization and your audience can meet the book also demonstrates that such exhibits can provide a way to revisit difficult and painful material in a way that includes frank and enlightened analyses of issues such as racism colonialism sexism class and LGBTQI issues Creating Digital Exhibits for Cultural Institutions is an essential resource for librarians archivists and other cultural heritage professionals who want to promote their institution s digital content to the widest possible audience Academics and students working in the fields of library and information science museum studies and digital humanities will also find much to interest them within the pages of this book The

Oxford Handbook of History and Material Culture Ivan Gaskell,Sarah Anne Carter,2020-04-07 Most historians rely principally on written sources Yet there are other traces of the past available to historians the material things that people have chosen made and used This book examines how material culture can enhance historians understanding of the past both worldwide and across time The successful use of material culture in history depends on treating material things of many kinds not as illustrations but as primary evidence Each kind of material thing and there are many requires the application of interpretive skills appropriate to it These skills overlap with those acquired by scholars in disciplines that may abut history but are often relatively unfamiliar to historians including anthropology archaeology and art history Creative historians can adapt and apply the same skills they honed while studying more traditional text based documents even as they borrow methods from these fields They can think through familiar historical problems in new ways They can also deploy material culture to discover the pasts of constituencies who have left few or no traces in written records The authors of this volume contribute case studies arranged thematically in six sections that respectively address the relationship of history and material culture to cognition technology the symbolic social distinction and memory They range across time and space from Paleolithic to Punk
