G. Sebald Scott Denham, Mark McCulloh, 2008-08-22 The novelist poet and essayist W G Sebald 1944 2001 was perhaps the most original German writer of the last decade of the 20th century Die Ausgewanderten Austerlitz Luftkrieg und Literatur His writing is marked by a unique hybridity that combines characteristics of travelogue cultural criticism crime story historical essay and dream diary among other genres He employs layers of literary and motion picture allusions that contribute to a sometimes enigmatic sometimes intimately familiar mood his dominant mode is melancholy The contributions of this anthology examine W G Sebald as narrator and pensive observer of history The book includes a previously unpublished interview with Sebald from 1998 Handbuch zur deutschen Grammatik Larry D. Wells, Jamie Rankin, 1993-01-01 Language in the Context of Use Andrea Tyler, Yiyoun Kim, Mari Takada, 2008-08-27 The volume explores key convergences between cognitive and discourse approaches to language and language learning both first and second The emphasis is on the role of language as it is used in everyday interaction and as it reflects everyday cognition The contributors share a usage based perspective on language whether they are examining grammar or metaphor or interactional dynamics which situates language as part of a broader range of systems which underlie the organization of social life and human thought While sharing fundamental assumptions about language the particulars of the areas of inquiry and emphases of those engaged in discourse analysis versus cognitive linguistics are diverse enough that historically many have tended to remain unaware of the interrelations among these approaches Thus researchers have also largely overlooked the possibilities of how work from each perspective can challenge inform and enrich the other The papers in the volume make a unique contribution by more consciously searching for connections between the two broad approaches The results are a set of dynamic thought provoking analyses that add considerably to our understanding of language and language learning The papers represent a rich range of frameworks within a usage based approach to language Cognitive Grammar Mental Space and Blending Theory Construction Grammar ethnomethodology and interactional sociolinguistics are just some of the frameworks used by the researchers in this volume The particular subjects of inquiry are also quite varied and include first and second language learning signed language syntactic phenomena interactional regulation and dynamics discourse markers metaphor theory polysemy language processing and humor The volume is of interests to researchers in cognitive linguistics discourse and conversational analysis and first and second language learning as well as signed languages
