Section Information and Meeting Objectives

The purpose of section is to serve as a discussion component for the course and is designed to help understand and apply concepts learned from the lectures, readings, and weekly assignments. It is your responsibility to come to section each week prepared to both ask and answer questions, as well as to engage in discussion with your peers. Section is the time to clarify expectations for assignments, to develop practical skills and strategies to successfully complete the writing assignments, and to pose any other questions you may have about the material. This class is a 5/0 unit writing course, so all submitted assignments will be graded for grammar and style in addition to content. The more effort you put into this course, the more you will see your writing improve. It is my objective to make this course run for you as smoothly as I can, but problems will inevitably arise. Contact me immediately if you have any concerns – now or as the course progresses. The following information will outline how discussion sections will be handled for ANTH 3.

Section Format and Requirements: Section is worth 23% of your overall course grade and is considered a mandatory part of ANTH 3. Section for ANTH 3 will be held in person at the time and location posted above. However, given the ongoing presence of COVID-19 in our campus community, I realize that there may be weeks where you are unable to attend section for your health and for the safety of others. Contact me as soon as possible if anything

Every Rose Has Its Thorn Erin Bradley, 2010-06-10 Is there a reason some girls grew up worshipping The Cure while others were hot for Miley Cyrus? Could your love of the Beastie Boys have anything to do with your current beau's commitment issues? Have you ever wished for the kind of timeless romantic wisdom that can only come from years spent listening to David Bowie in your bedroom? Wonder no more! EVERY ROSE HAS ITS THORN: A ROCK N ROLL FIELD GUIDE TO GUYS is here to help and/or moderately entertain you. Packed with quizzes, true life tales, lots of words and illustrations in glorious black and white, this book will help you better identify and understand the rockstars and wanna-bes you'll meet on romance's bumpy tour. What kind of guy owns a gorilla suit but not an interview suit? Uses a broomstick as a curtain rod and a T-shirt as a pillowcase yet spends entire paychecks optimizing the gaming capabilities of his computer? Wants sex but not as much as he wants to watch Adult Swim? See Chapter 4. What kind of guy considers a car a job and a place to live nice to have but mostly optional? Has a life story that reads like a reverse Horatio Alger novel? Is self-proclaimed lazy about brushing his teeth, returning monies borrowed, dressing open wounds? See Chapter 1. What kind of guy can school you on complicated investment strategies but keeps sending you viruses on Facebook? Arrives at your 40s Party in period clothes with a martini shaker instead of in an Adidas sweatsuit with a case of malt liquor? Has lots of baggage but really nice luggage? See Chapter 9.

Ecoflourishing and Virtue Steven Bouma-Prediger, Nathan Carson, 2023-11-10 This book brings together the interdisciplinary reflections of Christian scholars and poets to explore how ecological virtues can foster the flourishing of our home planet in the face of unprecedented environmental change and devastation. Its central questions are: What virtues are needed for us to be better caretakers of our home planet? What vices must we extinguish if we are to flourish on the earth? What is the connection between such virtues and vices and the flourishing of all creatures? Each contribution offers insight on ecological virtue, ethical questions through disciplinary lenses ranging from biology, geology, and economics to literature, theology, and philosophy. The chapters feature the legacy and lessons of senior scholars reflecting on a lifetime of earthkeeping work, highlight global concerns and perspectives, and include compelling poetic reflections. Focusing on the way in which human vices and virtues drive so many of our ecological problems and solutions, the volume engages timely issues of environmental importance such as environmental racism, interfaith dialogue, ecological philosophies of work and economics, marine pollution, ecological despair, hope, and humility, encouraging fresh reflection and action. It will be of interest to those working in theology and religious studies, philosophy, ethics, and environmental studies. The Bible Doctrine of Man, Or, The Anthropology and Psychology of Scripture John Laidlaw, 1895 Cultural Anthropology Carol R. Ember, Melvin Ember, 1990 Between Wisdom and Torah Jiseong James Kwon, Seth Bledsoe, 2023-05-08 Previous scholars have largely approached Wisdom and Torah in the Second Temple Period through a type of reception history whereby the two concepts have been understood as signifiers of independent earlier biblical streams of tradition that later came together in the

Hellenistic and Roman eras largely under the process of a so called torahization of wisdom Recent studies critiquing the nature of wisdom and wisdom literature as operative categories for understanding scribal cultures in early Judaism as well as newer approaches to conceptualizing Torah and authorizing compositional practices related to the Pentateuchal texts however have challenged the foundations on which the previous models of Wisdom and Torah rested This volume therefore brings together several essays that aim to reexamine and rethink the ways we can describe the developments of texts categorized as Wisdom that proliferated during the Second Temple Period and whose contents point to an engagement with a Torah discourse By asking anew the question of whether Wisdom was transformed by into Torah during this period this volume offers reformulations on the discursive space between Wisdom and Torah through analyzing new identifications confluences and transformations

Negotiating Sex Work Carisa R. Showden, Samantha Majic, 2014-04-01 Globally discussions about sex work focus on exploitation The media regularly provides us with stories about teen girls coerced to perform sexual acts for money frequently beaten and robbed by their pimps or traffickers While one would have to be hard pressed to deny that sex workers are victimized the popular media and our political leaders emphasize sex work as exclusively exploitative In Negotiating Sex Work Carisa R Showden and Samantha Majic present a series of essays that depict sex work as an issue far more complex than generally perceived Positions on sex work are primarily divided between those who consider that selling sexual acts is legitimate work and those who consider it a form of exploitation Organized into three parts Negotiating Sex Work rejects this either/or framework and offers instead diverse and compelling contributions that aim to reframe these viewpoints Part I addresses how knowledge about sex work and sex workers is generated The next section explores how nations and political actors who claim to protect individuals in sex work often further marginalize them Finally part III examines sex workers own political organizational efforts to combat laws and policies that deem them deviant sinful or total victims A timely and necessary intervention into sex work debates this volume challenges how policy makers and the broader public regard sex workers capacity to advocate for their own interests
