Contemporary Crafts Imogen Racz, 2009-01-15 This book explores craft practices in both North America and Britain revealing an astonishingly rich and diverse picture of artisanal work today The text ranges across both urban and rural crafts and analyzes how the country city dichotomy creates differing approaches practices and objects Analyzed in the context of their environment and its localized history crafted objects are shown to embody or critique particular urban rural myths and traditions Covering both traditional and cutting edge crafts from the small scale domestic to large outdoor works Contemporary Crafts demonstrates how crafts people today are responding to the changing creative contexts of culture and history

The Invention of Art Larry Shiner, 2001-09 Larry Shiner challenges our conventional understandings of art and asks us to reconsider its history entirely arguing that the category of fine art is a modern invention and that the lines drawn between art and craft emerged only as the result of key European social transformations during the long eighteenth century

Adopting the Track of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within Handmade In America Conversations With Fourteen Craftsmasters

In some sort of eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate interaction, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony created by the written term often fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and distractions that permeate our lives. But, located within the pages of Handmade In America Conversations With Fourteen Craftsmasters a wonderful literary value overflowing with organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound impact resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of the emotional review, we can discover the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
