Posthuman Writing Sidney I. Dobrin,2015-05-01 Writing Posthumanism Posthuman Writing is designed to spark conversation It is intended to highlight the growing importance of posthumanist approaches to writing studies and in doing so works to solidify the importance of such work to the future of writing studies Its organizational structure length and approach serve this agenda working as much to encourage a growing conversation as it does to provide substantial original work from which such conversations might emerge The thirteen original essays that comprise Writing Posthumanism Posthuman Writing are organized to provide a progression from articles that introduce theoretical concepts regarding the intersections of posthumanism and writing to works that examine specific contexts as vehicles for developing posthumanist theories Event of Signature Michaela Fiserova,2022-08-01 Event of Signature formulates a new philosophical problem which focuses on the handwritten signature as sign of legal identification Author Michaela Fiserova works with three metaphysical expectations which are shared in discourses of graphology and forensic analysis The first expectation tends to reveal the signer's soul a handwritten signature naturally mirrors the unique psychological qualities of the signer The second expectation tends to guarantee the originality of the signer's trace a handwritten signature proves physical contact between the signed document and the writing tool authentically moved by the signer's hand The third expectation tends to recognize the signer's legal identity a handwritten signature is expected to reproduce the signer's personal style which enables identification by legal authorities In a methodologically inventive and semiotically based dialogue with Derrida's deconstruction Fierov situates this triple expectation in the interval between life and law Challenging coverage of this topic finally shows that none of the metaphysical expectations will ever be fulfilled in the event of manual signing Legal uses of handwritten signature are characterized by the complex aporia of repeating the unrepeatable Intertwining
