Hankey: Man of Secrets: 1931-1963 Stephen Wentworth Roskill,1972 Britain and Japan Hugh Cortazzi,2025-10-01
Published in association with the Japan Society and containing 57 essays this ninth volume in the series continues to celebrate the life and work of the men and women both British and Japanese who over time played an interesting and significant role in a wide variety of different spheres relating to the history of Anglo Japanese relations and deserve to be recorded and remembered Read together they give a picture even if inevitably a partial one of important facets of modern history and Anglo Japanese institutions They shed light on a number of controversial issues as well as illuminate past successes and failures Structured thematically in four Parts Japan in Britain Britain in Japan Scholars and Writers Politicians and Officials the highlights in this volume include The Great Japan Exhibition 1981 82 Japanese Gardens and the Japanese Garden Society in the UK Cricket in Late Edo and Meiji Japan Norman Macrae pioneering journalist of The Economist Arthur Balfour managing the emergence of Japan as a Great Power Michio Morishima an economist made in Japan Margaret Thatcher a pragmatist who radically improved Britain s image in Japan Fighting Churchill, Appeasing Hitler Adrian Phillips,2019-10-08 In Fighting Churchill Appeasing Hitler Adrian Phillips presents a radical new view of the British policy of appeasement in the late 1930s No one doubts that appeasement failed but Phillips shows that it caused active harm even sabotaging Britain s preparations for war He goes far further than previous historians in identifying the individuals responsible for a catalogue of miscalculations deviousness and moral surrender that made the Second World War inevitable and highlights the alternative policies that might have prevented it Phillips outlines how Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and his chief advisor Sir Horace Wilson formed a fatally inept two man foreign policy machine that was immune to any objective examination criticism or assessment ruthlessly manipulating the media to support appeasement while batting aside policies advocated by Winston Churchill the most vocal opponent of appeasement Churchill understood that Hitler was the implacable enemy of peace and Britain but Chamberlain and Wilson were terrified that any display of firmness would provoke him For the first time Phillips brings to light how Wilson and Churchill had been enemies since an incident early in their careers and how eventually opposing Churchill became an end in itself Featuring new revelations about the personalities involved and the shameful manipulations and betrayals that went into appeasement including an attempt to buy Hitler off with a ruthless colonialist deal in Africa Fighting Churchill Appeasing Hitler shines a compelling and original light on one of the darkest hours in British diplomatic history The Royal Navy, China Station: 1864 - 1941 Jonathan Parkinson,2018-02-20 A definitive history of the Royal Navy s China Station In the The Navy List for April 1864 the China

Station was first shown as a separate Royal Navy Station It remained as such until the outbreak of the Pacific War in December 1941 which was to signal the end of that era In addition to a precis of the lives and naval careers of each of the Commanders in Chief of the China Station this volume also gives relevant information outlining something of the concurrent internal affairs of China and Japan Both are very different but sad tales the former in decline towards the end of the Manchu Ching dynasty and then into the chaotic 1920 s and 1930 s and the latter increasingly adopting a militaristic attitude which was to result in their disaster of the Pacific War of 1941 1945 As a reminder of these days long gone are interwoven brief references to the British Consular Service This is especially relevant for China and for a shorter period for Japan during that era of extraterritoriality Mention is also made of the British Colonial Service with whom necessarily the Navy worked very closely In addition being one important reason for it all frequent references are made to a few British shipping and trading interests together with those of some other nations All of these areas are linked together to give a definitive history of this very important Royal Navy Station

Morrell, 2006-01-01 Russian politics like opium seems infallibly to provoke the most fantastic dreams and imaginings on the part of the people who study them E A Walker British Embassy Moscow 1931 In March 1933 the economic section of the Soviet secret police arrested six British engineers employed by the Metropolitan Vickers Electrical Company The arrests provoked a confrontation that brought Anglo Soviet relations to the brink of disaster and resurrected the spectre of the show trials and purges of the technical intelligentsia that had shaken Soviet society from 1928 to 1931 Britain Confronts the Stalin Revolution is the first full length study of the Metro Vickers show trial of 1933 Based upon some new and many underutilized Soviet and British sources Gordon Morrell examines the political economic social legal and cultural dimensions of the only Stalinist political trial of the 1930s that directly engaged a foreign power Morrell explores the roots of the crisis by analyzing Metro Vickers role in the electrification of the USSR and he examines the political economic and diplomatic relations between Britain and the Soviets that gave the crisis its international importance He focusses on the efforts of the British Government to understand and respond to the new Stalinist order and importantly casts new light on the apparent role of the British Industrial Intelligence Centre during the early 1930s Britain Confronts the Stalin Revolution is an accessible original and multidimensional work that makes an important contribution to the study of Anglo Soviet relations
