Alastair Fowler presents a fascinating study of title pages printed in England from the early modern period to the nineteenth century He examines pictorial title pages in the context of the History of the Book for the first time The first part of The Mind of the Book explores the forerunner of the frontispiece in late antiquity the use of frames and borders in title pages portraits printers devices emblematic title pages of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries especially attending to explanatory verses and arcane features such as chronograms title pages as memory prompts and eighteenth and nineteenth century title pages tracing the rejection of emblematic and symbolic features and the introduction of unadorned unpictorial title pages The second part of the book presents illustrations of sixteen significant title pages with commentaries ranging from Chaucer s Works in 1532 through Bacon s Instauration Magna in 1620 Dicken s The Mystery of Edwin Drood in 1870 and arriving back at Chaucer with Edward Burnes Jones s illustrated title page for the Works of 1896      Design and Distribution of Late Medieval Manuscripts in England Margaret Connolly,Linne R. Mooney,2008 New essays on late medieval manuscripts highlight the complicated network of their production and dissemination One of the most important developments in medieval English literary studies since the 1980s has been the growth of manuscript studies Long regarded as mere textual repositories and treated superficially by editors manuscripts are now acknowledged as centrally important in the study of later medieval texts The essays collected here discuss aspects of the design and distribution of manuscripts in late medieval England with a particular focus on vernacular manuscripts of the late fourteenth fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries Those in the first half consider material evidence for scribal decisions about design these range from analysis of individual codices to broader discussions of particular types of manuscripts both religious and secular Later essays look at the evidence for the production and distribution of manuscripts of specific English texts or types of text These include the major Middle English poems The Canterbury Tales and Piers Plowman as well as key religious works such as Love s Mirror Hilton s Scale of Perfection the Speculum Vitae and The Pricke of Conscience all of which survive in significant numbers of manuscripts The comparison of secular and devotional texts illuminates shared networks of production and dissemination and increases our knowledge of regional and metropolitan book production in the period before printing Contributors DANIEL W MOSSER JACOB THAISEN TAKAKO KATO SHERRY L REAMES AMELIA GROUNDS ALEXANDRA BARRATT JULIAN M LUXFORD LINNE R MOONEY MICHAEL G SARGENT JOHN J THOMPSON MARGARET CONNOLLY RALPH HANNA GEORGE R KEISER      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1972      A Flood of Pictures Michael Leja,2025-07-22 Explores how the widespread circulation of pictures reshaped a nineteenth century US culture that was accustomed to printed and spoken words When and how did pictures start to permeate everyday lives in the United States What happened to those daily lives when they did And what happened to pictures in the process In this full color heavily illustrated book Michael Leja traces the beginnings of a transformation in cultural life in the United States when the widespread circulation of pictures reshaped a culture accustomed to printed and spoken words In the three decades before the Civil War the ordinary experiences of a large segment of the population came to include pictures of many kinds including illustrations in books pamphlets and newspapers photographs on cards full sheet printed pictures collected in scrapbooks or albums or hung on walls posters and broadsheets spectacular paintings displayed in theatrical venues and more Pictures supplemented verbal texts and in some cases overshadowed them for conveying news and information portraying people places and events focusing public discourse selling things educating and instructing generating excitement and aesthetic gratification promoting and disguising political agendas shaping social identities and building and undermining social bonds A Flood of Pictures recovers a time before successful pictorial formulas for mass appeal were established before an audience habituated to consumption of pictures existed and before pictures had become thoroughly commodified Through its exploration of these nineteenth century developments the book reveals the foundations of our picture saturated twenty first century

Sperling,2016-10-15 Roman Charity investigates the iconography of the breastfeeding daughter from the perspective of queer sexuality and erotic maternity The volume explores the popularity of a topic that appealed to early modern observers for its eroticizing shock value its ironic take on the concept of Catholic charity and its implied critique of patriarchal power structures It analyses why early modern viewers found an incestuous adult breastfeeding scene good to think with and aims at expanding and queering our notions of early modern sexuality Jutta Gisela Sperling discusses the different visual contexts in which Roman Charity flourished and reconstructs contemporary horizons of expectation by reference to literary sources medical practice and legal culture *National Library Service Cumulative Book Review Index, 1905-1974: Authors.
