Rockefeller 3rd Collection of Asian Art* Asia Society,1981* Guide to the Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller 3rd Collection of Asian Art Brooke Travelstead,1981 The Art of Ancient India Susan L. Huntington,John C. Huntington,2014-01-01 To scholars in the field the need for an up to date overview of the art of South Asia has been apparent for decades Although many regional and dynastic genres of Indic art are fairly well understood the broad overall representation of India s centuries of splendor has been lacking The Art of Ancient India is the result of the author s aim to provide such a synthesis Noted expert Sherman E Lee has commented Not since Coomaraswamy s History of Indian and Indonesian Art 1927 has there been a survey of such completeness Indeed this work restudies and reevaluates every frontier of ancient Indic art _ from its prehistoric roots up to the period of Muslim rule from the Himalayan north to the tropical south and from the earliest extant writing through the most modern scholarship on the subject This dynamic survey generously complemented with 775 illustrations including 48 in full color and numerous architectural ground plans and detailed maps and fine drawings and further enhanced by its guide to Sanskrit copious notes extensive bibliography and glossary of South Asian art terms is the most comprehensive and most fully illustrated study of South Asian art available The works and monuments included in this volume have been selected not only for their artistic merit but also in order to both provide general coverage and include transitional works that furnish the key to an all encompassing view of the art An outstanding portrayal of ancient India s highest intellectual and technical achievements this volume is written for many audiences scholars for whom it provides an up to date background against which to examine their own areas of study teachers and students of college level for whom it supplies a complete summary of and a resource for their own deeper investigations into Indic art and curious readers for whom it gives a broad based introduction to this fascinating area of world art Ancient Indonesian bronzes Pauline Lunsingh Scheurleer,Marijke J.  Chinese and Japanese ceramic figures perhaps the most important assemblage of its kind still in private hands is recognized internationally for the superb quality of its many rare forms Acquired by Mrs Lammot du Pont Copeland over the past fifty years each of these beautifully modeled human and animal figures testifies to the unerring eye of a premiere collector The majority of these figures are of porcelain produced during the late seventeenth to the late eighteenth centuries principally for export to the West Each individual piece displays the meticulous artistry the marvelous enameling and the animation and wit characteristic of this remarkably innovative period in ceramic history However modest in scale many are important works of

 Tannehill Shimer, 1910 The Bejewelled Buddha from India to Burma Claudine Bautze-Picron, 2010-12-01 This book represents a comprehensive study of The Bejewelled Buddha considering stylistic as well as iconographic issues A crucial moment in the Buddha s life seems to have been referred to through this image namely the sojourn on Mount Meru where the Buddha sat on Indra s seat and taught all the gods By occupying the seat of the king of the gods he was able to endorse the royal function of this deity this becomes particularly evident in the late fifth century and probably reflects the dramatic situation that the Buddhist community was confronted with i e the political power essentially fostering the Hindu religion and social structure Hence the Buddha is depicted as a perfect and powerful ruler sitting at the top of the universe and showing himself adorned as a king more than any human ruler the Buddha rules over the universe There is also another dimension that should never be neglected as in any other Indian cult worship of his image entailed offerings of various kinds such as flower garlands or jewels being made to the Buddha The image of the Bejewelled Buddha thus included various constituents while at the same time it was used as the locus where different religious or political concepts found a way of expression The result was the creation of an image of multi layered significance which found its way into all Asian cultures *Guide to the but dramatic Momoyama period 1573 1615 witnessed the struggles of a handful of ambitious warlords for control of the long splintered country and finally the emergence of a united Japan This was also an era of dynamic cultural development in which the feudal lords sponsored lavish innovative arts to proclaim their newly acquired power One such art was a ceramic ware known as Oribe whose mysterious sudden appearance and rise in popularity are explored in this book Ceramics are closely connected to the tea ceremony and central to Japanese culture In this context Oribe wares represented a unique and major development since they were the easiest Japanese ceramics to carry extensive multicolor decoration Boldly painted with geometric and naturalistic designs they display sensuous glazes especially in a distinctive vitreous green as well as a whole repertoire of playful new shapes Their genesis has traditionally been ascribed to Furuta Oribe 1543-1615 a warrior and the foremost tea master of his time who appears to have played a crucial role in redefining the aesthetics of Japan Over seventy engaging vessels of Oribe ware along with striking examples of other types of wares produced in the same milieu make up the heart of this catalogue Metropolitan Museum of Art website Buddhist Sculptures in Tibet: India & Nepal Ulrich von Schroeder, 2001 The more than 1100 sculptures in these two volumes represent the long overdue publication of the most important sculptures in custody of Tibetan monasteries Ruthless Compassion Robert N. Linrothe, 1999 The historical development of Esoteric Buddhism in India is still known only in outline A few verifiably early texts do give some insight into the origin of the ideas which would later develop and spread to East and Southeast Asia and to Tibet However there is another kind of evidence which can be harnessed to the project of reconstructing the history of Esoteric Buddhist doctrines and practice This evidence consists of art objects mainly sculpture which survive in significant numbers from the 6th to the 13th century
