An Autoethnography of Letter Writing and Relationships Through Time Jennifer L. Adams, 2023-06-27 An Autoethnography of Letter Writing and Relationships Through Time Finding Our Perfect Moon is about love letters stories and the ability of words to bring people together across time and physical space Weaving together edited and annotated letters between a young couple in the 1930s with interludes of autoethnographic reflection the book relates the author's experiences as she has negotiated this project over 20 years Reading the letters is a sepia-toned window into the very private world of two young well-educated Jewish American people who lived their lives against the backdrop of the Jazz Age the Great Depression and Prohibition The author uses reflective autoethnographic interludes to tell the story of finding the letters and to explore the significance of letters as a communicative genre Adams considers the ethical implications of being a researcher eavesdropping on private moments in others' lives and she explores the function of dialogue in the development of the romantic relationship that unfolds in the letters and between the letters and her The author also advocates for the everyday relational communication practices that collectively comprise life's most important experiences Students and researchers interested in letter writing autoethnography and relationship development will find relevance in this book It will also be of value to those interested in letter collections the ethical implications of intimate research on people from the past who cannot offer consent the role of nostalgia in interpersonal communication and anyone who thrills at a love story told from primary documents from the past Hill's Manual of Business and Social Information Thomas Edie Hill,1921

Whittier Social Case History Manual by J. Harold Williams, Willis W. Clark, Mildred S. Covert, Edythe K. Bryant J. Harold Williams,1921 Metaphors and Social Identity Formation in Paul's Letters to the Corinthians Kar Yong Lim,2017-05-05
Why did Paul frequently employ a diverse range of metaphors in his letters to the Corinthians Was the choice of these metaphors a random act or a carefully crafted rhetorical strategy Did the use of metaphors shape the worldview and behavior of the Christ followers In this innovative work Kar Yong Lim draws upon Conceptual Metaphor Theory and Social Identity Theory to answer these questions Lim illustrates that Paul employs a cluster of metaphors namely sibling familial temple and body metaphors as cognitive tools that are central to how humans process information construct reality and shape group identity Carefully chosen these metaphors not only add colors to Paul s rhetorical strategy but also serve as a powerful tool of communication in shaping the thinking governing the behavior and constructing the social identity of the Corinthian Christ followers The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1878
