Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research John C. Smart, 2006-05-11 Published annually since 1985 the Handbook series provides a compendium of thorough and integrative literature reviews on a diverse array of topics of interest to the higher education scholarly and policy communities Each chapter provides a comprehensive review of research findings on a selected topic critiques the research literature in terms of its conceptual and methodological rigor and sets forth an agenda for future research intended to advance knowledge on the chosen topic The Handbook focuses on twelve general areas that encompass the salient dimensions of scholarly and policy inquiries undertaken in the international higher education community The series is fortunate to have attracted annual contributions from distinguished scholars throughout the world Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research J.C. Smart, William G. Tierney, 2003-04-30 Reform and

Change in Higher Education Consortium of Higher Education Researchers. Conference, 2005-04-05 This volume offers a comprehensive discussion of implementation analysis in higher education and an extensive review of relevant recent literature Coverage analyzes the effective and specific complexities of the implementation of higher education policies in several countries including Australia Austria Finland Italy Mexico the Netherlands Norway Portugal Spain South Africa Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States Dialogic Feedback for High Impact Learning Filip Dochy, Mien Segers, Simla Arikan, 2022-10-12 In recent years the transmission paradigm of learning and teaching is making way for new approaches fuelled in part by the technology and AI revolutions Learning is seen now more often in the light of connectivism collaboration and creative problem solving Dialogic Feedback for High Impact Learning explores this fascinating trend championing learning as a dialogic process between learners and coaches where learning is connecting networks and resources and leads to creative problem solving It addresses the need for feedback as a dialogue in training for tomorrow what it entails and how you can best deal with it The book explores the power of feedback in a high impact learning setting where all parties strive for a learning and feedback culture rather than a consumption and testing culture The authors discuss the feedback process feedback seeking behaviour and the quality of the feedback message sharing tips for software and apps to support this process and how teachers and coaches from a variety of settings have integrated the feedback dialogue into their training This book is intended for everyone who wants to contribute to the learning culture of tomorrow including learning coaches managers education and training professionals and teachers and trainees at all levels in education

Cheating in School Stephen F. Davis, Patrick F. Drinan, Tricia Bertram Gallant, 2011-09-07 Cheating in School is the first book to present the research on cheating in a clear and accessible way and provide practical advice and insights for educators school administrators and the average lay person Defines the problems surrounding cheating in schools and proposes solutions that can be applied in all educational settings from elementary schools to post secondary institutions Addresses pressing questions such as Why shouldn't students cheat if it gets them good grades and What are parents teachers businesses and the government doing to unintentionally persuade today's student to cheat their way through school Describes short and long term deterrents that educators can use to foster academic integrity and make honesty more profitable than cheating Outlines tactics and strategies for educators administrators school boards and parents to advance a new movement of academic integrity instead of dishonesty

Studying Educational and Social Policy Ronald H. Heck, 2004-07-19 The purpose of this textbook is to introduce beginning researchers to the study of policy making how it has been examined from a scholarly perspective and the salient issues to consider in conceptualizing and conducting policy research

Building Knowledge in Early Childhood Education Jane Murray, 2017-04-27 A focal point of early childhood education is how young children build knowledge and the ways that practitioners parents and carers can help them to do so Many adults find it challenging to identify what knowledge young children are building and how they do so making it difficult to support young children's learning and development in the most effective ways This essential guide will help you to identify and develop young children's knowledge and understanding in early years settings not only in terms of statutory requirements but far beyond them Building Knowledge in Early Childhood Education draws on empirical research findings from the Young Children As Researchers YCAR project to examine everyday activities and reveal the means that young children use to build knowledge and understanding as well as exploring the similarities between learning behaviours in early childhood and adult life Interweaving everyday activities in practice with research and theory this book covers how young children construct knowledge learning problem solving and exploring concepts and conceptualising in early childhood evidence based decision making how young children behave as researchers Offering practical advice and suggestions to create opportunities that identify and facilitate young children's own constructions of knowledge and understanding this book is essential reading for practitioners students and all those interested in the theories surrounding young children as researchers

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Higher Education Miriam E. David,Marilyn J. Amey,2020-05-21 Higher Education is in a state of ferment People are seriously discussing whether the medieval ideal of the university as being excellent in all areas makes sense today given the number of universities that we have in the world Student fees are changing the orientation of students to the system The high rate of non repayment of fees in the UK is provoking difficult questions about whether the current system of funding makes sense There are disputes about the ratio of research to teaching and further discussions about the international delivery of courses New Directions in Higher Education R. Nata,2005 Higher education is a complex package of issues which never seems to leave the limelight The primary wedge issues are tuition cost access accountability financial aid government funding sports and their place within higher education academic results societal gains as a whole in terms of international competition and continuing education This new book examines new directions in this ever changing vital and controversial field which has a profound effect on society The Feedback Process Karen A. Wink,2022-09-28 The Feedback Process Engaging Students with Meaningful Comments About their Writing features curriculum and instruction to assist humanities educators with commenting on student drafts The focus is on students non fiction writing or arguments supported with credible sources To make a complex process more accessible this book features strategies for both written and auditory commentary To make the process more efficient it includes surveys feedback models rubrics lists of useful comments and sample student drafts with commentary This book draws from classroom research to discuss strategies for managing students emotional responses to feedback as well as instructors using tone and word choice constructively for greater impact on drafts The Feedback Process ultimately aims to lessen the burden on instructors and educators who comment on a substantial number of papers every semester with a fresh approach to feedback
