Hanged Man The Life And Death Of Ronald Ryan:

The Hanged Man Mike Richards, 2003 Ronald Joseph Ryan was hanged in Melbourne on 3 February 1967 following his conviction for the shooting murder of a prison warder during a daring escape from the maximum security Pentridge prison thirteen months before The decision of the Victorian government in December 1966 to proceed with Ryan s death sentence sparked immediate media condemnation and angry political protests and put the Liberal premier Sir Henry Bolte under siege for the duration of the case State governments around the country moved to abolish the death penalty in the 1970s and 1980s and Ronald Ryan became the last man to be hanged in Australia Today many years later the Ryan case still prompts spirited debate about the guilty finding against Ryan the merits of capital punishment and the politics behind his execution But who was Ronald Ryan and how did he come to be the focus of such dramatic political events Drawing on previously unpublished documents and personal accounts including details of Ryan s childhood and his early turn to crime this book reveals the truth about Ryan s guilt It also goes behind the scenes to tell for the first time of the life long anguish of the judge who pronounced the death sentence the inner workings of the secret cabinet meeting that decided Ryan s fate and the dramatic political process that resulted in the rejection of eleventh hour appeals to save Ryan Mike Richards first became involved in the case as the leader of student protests against Ryan s execution Now he has written a masterly compelling account that retrieves the individual and the drama at the centre of the most divisive capital case in Australia s history Through the depth of its original research and the persuasiveness of its insights Mike Richards award winning biography of Ronald Ryan provides a definitive account of the life and death of the man whose execution stopped a nation A History of Capital Punishment in the Australian Colonies, 1788 to 1900 Steven Anderson, 2020-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive overview of capital punishment in the Australian colonies for the very first time The author illuminates all aspects of the penalty from shortcomings in execution technique to the behaviour of the dying criminal and the antics of the scaffold crowd Mercy rates execution numbers and capital crimes are explored alongside the transition from public to private executions and the push to abolish the death penalty completely Notions of culture and communication freely pollinate within a conceptual framework of penal change that explains the many transformations the death penalty underwent A vast array of sources are assembled into one compelling argument that shows how the lesson of the gallows was to be safeguarded refined and improved at all costs This concise and engaging work will be a lasting resource for students scholars and general readers who want an in depth understanding of a long feared punishment Dr Steven Anderson is a Visiting Research Fellow in the History Department at The University of Adelaide Australia His academic research explores the role of capital punishment in the Australian colonies by situating developments in these jurisdictions within global contexts and conceptual debates

Capital Punishment, Clemency and Colonialism in Papua New Guinea, 1954-65 Murray Chisholm, 2024-07-02 This study builds on a close examination of an archive of files that advised the Australian Commonwealth Executive on Papua New

Guineans found guilty of capital offences in PNG between 1954 and 1965 These files provide telling insight into conceptions held by officials at different stages of the justice process into justice savagery and civilisation and colonialism and Australia's role in the world The particular combination of idealism and self interest liberalism and paternalism and justice and authoritarianism axiomatic to Australian colonialism becomes apparent and enables discussion of Australia's administration of PNG in the lead up to the acceptance of independence as an immediate policy goal The files show Australia gathering the authority to grant mercy into the hands of the Commonwealth and then devolving it back to the territories In these transitions the capital case review files show the trajectory of Australian colonialism during a period when the administration was unsure of the duration and nature of its future relationship with PNG

The First Murderer I Ever Met Mark Dapin, 2025-08-26 For more than thirty years Mark Dapin has been hanging out with crooks and both types of cop In this gripping often funny and always surprising book he sorts the tall stories from the truth about true crime showing us what some of Australia's most famous felons are really like Mark Dapin was still in school when he met his first murderer a boy called Ian In reporting the murder Ian eventually committed newspapers used the cliché that it shocked even those who knew him best But it didn't shock Dapin because he knew Ian in real life not in clichés Criminals are sensationalised in the press and mythologised in their own stories In describing criminals police and prison officers he's spent time with Dapin searches for the real characters and events How many of Chopper Read's stories were actually true What's it like at home with former murder cop Gary Jubelin Was the biggest art heist in Australian history carried out by one of Dapin's neighbours the mysterious Sky Blue And what happens when you go to visit a prison with celebrated escapee John Killick These encounters are better than a ring side seat to the underworld Dapin gets in the ring

The ^ANext Frontier David T Johnson, Franklin E Zimring, 2009-02-02 Today two thirds of the world's nations have abolished the death penalty either officially or in practice due mainly to the campaign to end state executions led by Western European nations Will this success spread to Asia where over 95 percent of executions now occur Do Asian values and traditions support capital punishment or will development and democratization end executions in the world's most rapidly developing region David T Johnson an expert on law and society in Asia and Franklin E Zimring a senior authority on capital punishment combine detailed case studies of the death penalty in Asian nations with cross national comparisons to identify the critical factors for the future of Asian death penalty policy The clear trend is away from reliance on state execution and many nations with death penalties in their criminal codes rarely use it Only the hard line authoritarian regimes of China Vietnam Singapore and North Korea execute with any frequency and when authoritarian states experience democratic reforms the rate of executions drops sharply as in Taiwan and South Korea Debunking the myth of Asian values Johnson and Zimring demonstrate that politics rather than culture or tradition is the major obstacle to the end of executions Carefully researched and full of valuable lessons The Next Frontier is the authoritative resource on the death penalty in Asia for scholars policymakers and advocates around the world

The Victorian Premiers, 1856-2006 Paul Strangio, Brian J. Costar, 2006 In the century and a half since Victoria was granted responsible government in 1856 44 premiers have presided over the state and colony from Honest William Haines to Steve Bracks Here is their story For the first time this book brings together a comprehensive collection of biographical and political portraits of the Victorian premiers written by leading Australian historians and political scientists The result is a compelling journey through a turbulent occasionally anarchic political landscape A cast of fascinating characters is brought to life the mercurial Graham Berry who in the 1870s threatened broken heads and flaming houses in his heroic struggle to tame the colony's intractably conservative upper house the roguish Tommy Bent the turn of the century can do premier whose development enthusiasms were unhindered by probities of office the bohemian Tom Hollway who conducted Victoria's affairs from his suite in the Windsor Hotel the accidental leader Henry Bolte who became Victoria's longest serving premier and the larrikin metropolitan Jeff Kennett who turned the state into a neo liberal laboratory in the 1990s A tale of premiers the book is also a narrative of politics in a state that has vied with New South Wales as Australia's most prosperous and powerful It recounts many extraordinary episodes the precocious development of democracy in a fledgling colony turned upside down by gold immigrants the titanic bicameral struggles of the 1860s and 1870s that brought Victoria to the brink of insurrection the bank crashes of the 1890s the police strike of 1923 the great Labor split of the 1950s the hanging of Ronald Ryan in 1967 the social democratic adventurism of the Labor decade of the 1980s brought to a shuddering halt by another era of financial collapses and the neo liberal experimentalism of the Kennett government This carefully researched and engagingly written book will leave the reader in no doubt that politics in the Garden State has seldom been sedate and its premiers rarely predictable Who's who in Australia ,2005 Australian Book Review ,2003 Lord High Executioner Howard Engel,2016-03-01 A grisly tour of hangings electrocutions beheadings and other state sanctioned deaths that are part of the long history of the death penalty In Lord High Executioner award winning writer Howard Engel traces the traditions of capital punishment from medieval England and early Canada to the present day United States Throughout civilized history executioners employed on behalf of the kingdom republic or dictatorship have beheaded chopped stabbed choked gassed electrocuted or beaten criminals to death and Engel doesn t shy away from the gritty details of the executioner s lifestyle focusing on the paragons buffoons and sadists of the dark profession Packed with all too true stories from hapless hangings to butchered beheadings this historically accurate look at the executioner s gruesome work makes for a thoroughly gripping read Last Words Barry Dickins,2017-02-01 _____
