Hanging Out In Ireland:

Out of Ireland Babe Toner, 2011-04-27 Out of Ireland traces a young boy's struggle going back to his birth in the nineteen thirties. He gives you a candid glimpse of his family life and the horrors they suffered as a result of their drinking father. This abuse was somewhat covered up by the Irish mother who was enticed to America by her older brother Jerem who had to leave Ireland because of a shooting he was involved in of an Irish leader in the town of Beal nam Blath Co Cork Ireland. The author's mother was born on a farm of an upper middle class family and their 100 plus acre farm with a dairy just outside Renanirree at Belvue Co Cork Ireland. Her brother Jerem was having a hard time with his father Timothy O Riordan; he was known around the villages as Timsey Jer. Liam Jerem eventually left for America. He encouraged his two sisters to follow him. Jerem was running away but the sisters wanted to start a new life. With roots in Ireland, Babe being rambunctious almost from the start, shares his pastime of golf ball hawking and caddying, whose caddying antics will have you howling with laughter. Growing up in Wilmington Delaware was where he perfected his hell raising skills. Read how these extraordinary times forged the value and training that will prove to be valuable to him some day. Sex and Sexualities in Ireland Barbara

Górnicka, Mark Doyle, 2023-10-31 This edited collection provides an invaluable resource of seventeen chapters from a wide range of academic disciplines. These chapters place sex and sexualities in Ireland in historical context and take the reader through the structural changes that have transformed the expression of sexuality in Ireland from one of self denial to self expression. The collection does not however unquestionably assume a linear narrative of progress; new issues and challenges are also addressed throughout. This book will be of interest to students and scholars from a range of disciplines including sociology, social policy, history, media, gender studies and psychology. The collection is divided into six separate but interlinked thematic sections: Sexualities in Historical Irish Contexts, Young Adults, Sexual Health and Education, Sexual Practices and Health, Minority Sexualities and Genders, Sex Work in Ireland and Activism and Contestation. Meanings of Life in Contemporary Ireland T. Inglis, 2014-11-06 The struggle to create and sustain meaning in our everyday lives is fought using cultural ingredients to spin the webs of meaning that keep us going. To help reveal the complexity and intricacy of the webs of meaning in which they are suspended, Tom Inglis interviewed one hundred people in their native home of Ireland to discover what was most important and meaningful for them in their lives. Inglis believes language is a medium; there is never an exact correspondence between what is said and what is felt and understood. Using a variety of theoretical lenses developed within sociology and anthropology, Inglis places their lives within the context of Ireland's social and cultural transformations and of longer term processes of change such as increased globalisation, individualisation and informalisation.

The Resurrection Men Paul Rees, 2011-04-01 Wales were written off as no-hopers at the start of the 2008 Six Nations. They had failed to reach the World Cup quarter finals the previous October and had reacted by appointing their 13th coach in 19 years, New Zealander Warren Gatland. On the opening weekend, success appeared unlikely when they trailed World Cup finalists England at Twickenham by ten points at half time Their second half comeback to earn their first victory at the ground for 20 years set them on their way and there was no looking back In a blistering campaign they set a new Six Nations record by conceding just two tries in their five matches The Resurrection Men looks back over the glorious 2008 tournament but also examines the reasons why the foundations laid by Gatland look more secure than those established by Mike Ruddock before his controversial departure from the role less than a year after the side's last Grand Slam triumph in 2005 Wales imploded after Ruddock left winning only one match in each of the 2006 and 2007 campaigns His successor Gareth Jenkins asked to be judged on the team's performance in the World Cup And he was sacked hours after the defeat to Fiji which meant that for the third time in five tournaments Wales failed to make the knock out stage Little more than a week later Welsh Rugby Union officials boarded a plane to New Zealand to meet Gatland and other candidates for head coach Just two minutes into the meeting they were ready to offer him the job He promised them that if Wales won at Twickenham on the opening weekend the slam would be on They did and it was
