Hangman39s Whip:

A Hangman's Diary Franz Schmidt,1929      America's Agatha Christie Rick Cypert,2005 Between 1929 and 1988 American mystery writer Mignon Good Eberhart wrote fifty nine mystery novels at least as many short stories and served a term as president and Grand Master of the Mystery Writers of America This study of Eberhart s life and work considers the influence of her childhood in Nebraska her marriage and frequent travels and her various professional and personal contacts in Chicago and on the East Coast Eberhart s friendships with well known literary figures including mystery and romance authors provide a fascinating glimpse into the social matrix of a bygone publishing world Eberhart s experiences with Hollywood and Broadway show how the mystery genre and writer were transformed in an alternate medium Leading women s magazines of the day also sought Eberhart s talent and inevitably transformed her writing Eberhart s novels and correspondence provide insight into the social mores of her day in particular about women s friendships repressed sexuality and closeted homosexuality Those interested in cultural studies women s studies and twentieth century popular literature will find this book valuable      Québec City, 1765-1832 David T. Ruddel,1987-01-01 This book provides a synthesis of social demographic and economic change in Quebec City during the British regime a period which saw the former French capital transformed into an English city with all the problems associated with rapidly growing urban centres Published in English the editors of literary journals actively encouraged and published antigallows writing that popular crime novelists created a sympathy toward criminals that led readers to question the state's justifications for capital punishment that poets crafted verse that advocated strongly for Christian sympathy for criminals that coincided with an antipathy to the death penalty and that female sentimental writers fashioned melodramatic narratives that illustrated the injustice of the hanging and reimagined the justice system itself as a sympathetic subject capable of incorporating compassion into its workings and seeing reform rather than revenge as its ends The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1910 Testimony of Christ's Second Appearing, Exemplified by the Principles and Practice of the True Church of Christ Benjamin Seth Youngs, 1856 Oscar Defoe, 1834 Barbara O'Sullivan, 2015-07-31 Oscar Defoe and the Victorian Workhouse 1834 A review of chapter 6 Syon House With no time to read the whole book before the printers speed into action I studied the chapter on Syon House my family's London home for 400 years and was immensely impressed by the accuracy of the author's research and the fluent style which brings the characters to life The contrast between Syon and the workhouse and between the rich and poor is a poignant reminder of the hellish life that so many lived in Victorian times This brief taste of Barbara O'Sullivan's historical tale has certainly wetted my appetite for a more comprehensive study of Oscar Defoe Duke of Northumberland 2006 It is very interesting a good period piece and has a nice historical flavour J K Wingfield Digby Sherborne Castle Dorset 2006 A Practical Guide to the Quarter Sessions and Other Sessions of the Peace, Adapted to the Use of Young Magistrates, and Professional Gentlemen, at the Commencement of Their Practice William Dickinson, 1820 A Treatise of the Pleas of the Crown Edward Hyde East, 1806 Familiar Quotations John Bartlett, 1882 Familiar quotations [compiled] by J.
