Mutua, 2006-11-06 In the struggle for pride and political agency the imperative to be a man has been central to the lives of black males Yet what it means to be a black man in terms of both racial and gender identity has been subject to continual debate in public and academic spheres alike Progressive Black Masculinities brings together leading black cultural critics including Michael Eric Dyson Mark Anthony Neal and Patricia Hill Collins to examine an alternatively demonized and mythologized black masculinity Collectively they offer a roadmap for new progressive models of black masculinity that may chart the course for the future of black men Baseball Hits and Bible Bits Frank D. A Chain of Events Ruthie Green, 2012-08-31 In October 2011 a ceremony was held at the Washington DC mall to unveil a granite statue of our slain Civil Rights leader Rev MLK Jr The large piece of granite was 30 feet high and a light reddish brown in color It looked majestic in the sunlight The King family members participating in the ceremony were his sister and three of his children They were all very dynamic speakers and that makes me think that public speaking was a family trait Some of the other speakers that day were also present during the early days of the Civil Rights movement They were Andrew Young Julian Bond and Rev Joseph Lowery Rev Lowery was 90 years old and the tears flowed freely as he spoke It was overwhelming for him and me to witness the final moments of a movement that had started in 1955 in Montgomery AL For the Black man the road had been long and definitely rough but we had stayed on our course Also at times our footsteps toward Freedom were slow but by Gods Grace we were able to reach our goal For years we could not say that America was our country or proudly call America our Home Sweet Home But after seeing a statue of a Black man with a flat nose and thick lips standing among the memorials of past U S Presidents in the DC mall made us realize that only a loving and caring God could have orchestrated such a feat Now I will use the phrase that the Evangelist Joel Osteen uses Put your trust in God and He will take you places that you NEVER dreamed of
