Escape into Life Dr. H. Lincoln Douglas, 2022-03-15 this is a book of stories and poetry about my life my beliefs and about my actions I also have a recorded version of this book and in that version in the middle of the recording the talking and the drumming fades to one minute of silence the idea was to slowly stop and reflect so if you disagree or even if you agree with me take a little time stop and reflect on life and whatever little change you can make make it because the world is changing i certainly hope my stories and poetry in some small way will remind you of your possibilities will assist you in revealing the meaning of your life and help you find a way of escape not a running away from but a form of securing a key for total fulfillment one of my many metaphors for life is a game of cards you have no choice of the cards you re dealt but by god you better learn to play play your best game and enjoy yourself while yuh playing

Peter's Epistles - Letters to the Scattered Saints John Hill, 2019-02-05 It had been several years since Peter had delivered God s message at Pentecost The audience had come from all over the world There was nothing novel in the message it consisted of things any good Jewish person would have known from their childhood The difference was that this message was accompanied by the power of God s Spirit After our Lord s ascension into heaven Acts 1 11 Peter labored for his Savior tirelessly to the point of death He understood well the urgency of the times and he desired to pass that along to as many believers as possible These two epistles show Peter s efforts in stirring up those who had been stirred up at Pentecost
