This book examines the World's Fairs that took place from the mid nineteenth century to the 1930s with a particular emphasis on Latin America. It introduces the notion of cultural world maps to understand these events as reflections of the global landscape. The fairs played a crucial role in showcasing state and private endeavors shaping identities facilitating knowledge exchange and disseminating objects and ideas. Through innovative approaches the essays in Latin America and the World's Fairs 1867-1939 depart from conventional nation-centric accounts drawing on insights from cultural history, global and comparative history as well as exhibition studies. This volume will be of value to students, scholars as well as general readers interested in Latin American history and social and cultural history. Biblioteca Americana Joseph Sabin, 1878 Bibliotheca Americana Joseph Sabin, 1878 History of the Pacific States of North America: Mexico. 1883-88 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1883 Spain and Spanish America in the Libraries of the University of California University of California, Berkeley. It was also an opportunity to create literary friendships and contacts between these two great regions. Generally Latin America and Africa still have a lot of stories to share among themselves and with the rest of the world. There are still very strong untapped storytelling traditions in these continents. The stories in this volume are selected from an amazing range of entries to a call for contributions to an anthology on experimentation. It is hoped this robust selection will serve a wide variety of tastes in both Spanish and English and that the book will open dialogue and the sharing of ideas between the two regions and the whole world. This is an invaluable contribution on many fronts.
