Luis Buñuel Jo Evans, Breixo Viejo, 2019-10-31 Luis Buñuel A Life in Letters provides access for the first time to an annotated English language version of around 750 of the most important and most widely relevant of these letters Buñuel 1900 1983 came to international attention with his first films Un Chien Andalou with Dalí 1929 and Le grand or 1930 two surprisingly avant garde productions that established his position as the undisputed master of Surrealist filmmaking He went on to make 30 full length features in France the US and Mexico and consolidated his international reputation with a Palme d'Or for Viridiana in 1961 and an Academy Award in 1973 for The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie He corresponded with some of the most famous writers directors actors and artists of his generation and the list of these correspondents reads like a roll call of major twentieth century cultural icons Fellini Truffaut Vigo Aragon Dalí Unik and yet none of this material has been accessible outside specialist archives and a very small number of publications in Spanish and French Luis Buñuel

Luis Buñuel Román Gubern, Paul Hammond, 2012-01-04 The turbulent years of the 1930s were of profound importance in the life of Spanish film director Luis Buñuel 1900 1983 He joined the Surrealist movement in 1929 but by 1932 had renounced it and embraced Communism During the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 he played an integral role in disseminating film propaganda in Paris for the Spanish Republican cause Luis Buñuel The Red Years 1929 1939 investigates Buñuel's commitment to making the politicized documentary Land without Bread 1933 and his key role as an executive producer at Filmfono in Madrid where he was responsible in 1935 36 for making four commercial features that prefigure his work in Mexico after 1946 As for the republics of France and Spain between which Buñuel shuttled during the 1930s these became equally embattled as left and right totalitarianisms fought to wrest political power away from a debilitated capitalism Where it exists the literature on this crucial decade of the film director's life is scant and relies on Buñuel's own self interested accounts of that complex period Román Gubern and Paul Hammond have undertaken extensive archival research in Europe and the United States and evaluated Buñuel's accounts and those of historians and film writers to achieve a portrait of Buñuel's Red Years that abounds in new information
